We will work with you and your schools to settle any conflicts that will arise due to you missing classes and/or exams.

WHAT TO BRING: Proper clothes are very important! It will be very cold and we will be working outside on a MOUNTAIN. Hats, gloves, scarves, sweatshirts, coats, boots and/or extra shoes are good to have. Clothes may get wet so bring some backups. Also, rain ponchos! Other items: Toiletries, shower supplies, towel, bed sheets or sleeping bag, Bible, Journal (or notebook), Pen/Pencil, Camera, and Flashlight. Smaller snacks are allowed, especially if you would like to make your minivan a shrine of sugary and salty treats. Please pack efficiently.

WHAT NOT TO BRING: Bad Music (quality and content), Aromatic items that are unsuitable for close quarters (aka AXE!), 600 lbs of luggage, Things that will break, be lost, or be useless, Electronics (Phones to call home in case of emergency are acceptable, though they may not be useful seeing that we are usually out of cell coverage.)

NOTES FOR PARENTS: 6:1 student/adult ratio, all drivers over 25, safe environment compliant, less than 30 minutes to closest hospital.

RELEASE AND INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT

1. I, the undersigned parent/legal guardian of the participant(s) listed in this registration, give my permission for my child(ren) to participate in this program and hereby personally assume all risks in connection with my child(ren)'s participation in the associated activities. 2. I am cognizant of the inherent dangers associated with participation in activities which may include but are not limited to: jet skiing, boating, swimming, archery tag, rock wall climbing, mountain biking, hiking, canoeing, ropes course, grounds initiatives, paintball, field games, zip lines, campfires. Additionally, I acknowledge that certain activities may be subcontracted to vendors located away from and off property that will require transportation of my child to such activity locations. 3. I release from all liability and indemnify Catholic Youth Summer Camp Inc and Damascus Catholic Mission Campus, as well as the Bishop/Diocese of Columbus as well as my local Parish/Bishop/Diocese and their officers, agents, representatives, volunteers, and employees from any and all liability, claims, judgments, cost and expenses, including attorneys' fees, arising out of any injury or illness incurred by my child while participating in or traveling to or from this activity and further agree not to bring or prosecute or allow to be brought or prosecuted (including but not limited to prosecution through subrogation) in my name, or on behalf of my Child, any claims, lawsuits or actions them. 4. I understand that my Child's participation is purely voluntary and is a privilege and not a right, and that my Child, and I on behalf of my Child, elect to participate in spite of the risks. 5. I agree to instruct my child to cooperate with the event leadership. 6. I appoint the leadership of this event as my attorney in fact to act for me in my name and my behalf, in any way that I would act if I were personally present, with respect to the following matters if any injury, illness or medical emergency occurs during camp or related travel: (i) To administer medications to my child as indicated on the completed Medical Information Form. (ii) To give any and all consents and authorizations to any physicians, dentist, hospital or other persons or institutions pertaining to any emergency medications, medical or dental treatments, diagnostic or surgical procedures or any other emergency actions as our attorney shall deem necessary or appropriate for the best interest of the Child. (iii) I understand that the leadership of this event will make a reasonable attempt to contact me as soon as possible in the event of a medical emergency involving my child. 7. This power of attorney shall lapse automatically upon completion of the event and related travel. 8. This acknowledgement and release is intended to be as broad and inclusive as permitted by the law of the State of Ohio, and if any portion hereof is declared invalid, it is agreed that the balance shall, notwithstanding, continue in full legal force and effect. This acknowledgement and release shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Ohio, except for the choice of law provisions thereof. 9. I am of lawful age and legally competent to sign this Permission, Indemnification and Release, and Medical Power of Attorney that shall be effective and binding upon me, my Child, and my own and my Child's personal representative or estate, assigns, heirs, and next of kin; that I understand the terms herein are contractual and not a mere recital; and that I have signed this document of my own free act and coalition. I have fully informed myself of the contents of this Permission, Indemnification and Release, and Medical Power of Attorney by reading it before having signed it.

HARASSMENT POLICY

Harassment is verbal or physical conduct that embarrasses, denigrates, or shows hostility toward a person because of his/her race, color, religion, gender, sex, national origin, age or disability or other protected characteristics. It does not include compliments of a socially acceptable nature. It is the policy of this program to maintain a spiritually enriching environment, free of all forms of harassment and intimidation. No one – male or female – should be subject to unlawful harassment in any form, and specifically not to unsolicited and/or unwelcome sexual overtures or conduct, either verbal or physical. Sexually harassing conduct is prohibited, which includes, but is not limited to, the following: Offensive sexual flirtation, advances, propositions; Continued or repeated verbal abuse of a sexual or gender-based nature; Explicit or degrading sexual or gender-based comments about another individual or his or her appearance; The display or circulation of sexually explicit or suggestive writing, pictures or objects; Any offensive or physical conduct which shows hostility or aversion toward an individual because of gender or sex; Graffiti of sexual nature; Demonstrating or talking about one's sexual activity in front of others; Spreading rumors about or categorizing others as to sexual activity. Sexual harassment is not limited to conduct that is sexual in nature – it also includes harassment that is based on gender. Gender-based harassment, which is also prohibited, is conduct that would not occur except for the sex of the person involved. The same prohibitions apply with regard to inflammatory or offensive comments or conduct which is based upon race, color, age, religion, disability, or national origin. In short, relationships between all leaders and participants must be based on mutual respect. Any person who believes he/she has been subject to unlawful harassment or intimidation must contact the Director of the organization. A complaint must be filed in writing. All complaints will be promptly investigated, and the person initiating the complaint will be advised of the outcome of the investigation. Where it is determined that harassment has occurred, the appropriate authority will take immediate disciplinary action against any individual engaging in harassment. The response shall take into account the individuals and circumstances. Such action may include, depending on the circumstances, disciplinary measures up to and including termination of services. No retaliation against anyone who reports harassment will be tolerated. All leadership receive a copy of this Harassment Policy which is reviewed in its entirety, signed and returned. Leadership are trained to ensure that they understand which types of behavior constitute harassment, the prevention of harassment, and how they should respond in the event of experiencing such behavior. I have read and understand this Harassment Policy.
