MESSAGE FROM DEACON JIM

THE TRADITION OF RELICS CONTAINED WITHIN CATHOLIC ALTARS...

Every year I have the opportunity to work with the Cub Scouts/Boy Scouts of our St Brendan Pack/Troop on their Religious Awards Programs. One of the things we usually do is tour the Church. A couple years ago someone asked if the altar had relics in it. It does – two in fact – and the altar in the Adoration Chapel has one. I thought it might be of interest to share some information about those particular relics and relics in general with you.

First, a bit about relics – Relics of saints are objects or remains of religious significance that are preserved as memorials to saints. The word "relic" comes from the Latin word reliquiae, meaning "remaining" or "that which remains." The Catholic Church classifies relics into three types:

- First class - Body parts of a saint, such as bones, blood, or hair, as well as objects directly associated with Christ, like the true cross
- Second class - Objects that came into direct contact with the saint while they were alive, such as their clothing or personal possessions
- Third class - Items that have touched a first or second class relic, or that the saint has touched themselves

The tradition of having relics contained within consecrated Catholic altars is an ancient tradition from the very earliest days of the Church. When Catholicism was still illegal under the Roman Empire, early members of the Faithful would meet in underground catacombs to escape harsh persecution. They would celebrate Mass on the stone slabs covering the tombs of martyrs to show proper reverence for the ultimate sacrifice they made for Christ.

When Emperor Constantine legalized Christianity, Mass no longer needed to be held underground out of necessity. Moving above ground, they didn't leave behind the tradition of venerating the relics of saints. Churches were generally built over the remains of martyrs, but when not possible, a first-class relic was placed within the altar and covered by a stone slab. The Second Council of Nicaea would later decree that all churches were to have altars containing relics of saints. Eventually, the practice became ecclesiastical law, with early editions of the Roman Pontifical mandating altars to contain first-class relics from two separate saints, one of which a martyr.

According to "St Brendan Church History: The first Fifty Years of St Brendan Catholic Church of Hilliard, Ohio" published in 2006, the main altar contains relics from two second century saints – Florentius and Aurelius. The Adoration Chapel altar contains a relic of St Pius X. All three relics were provided by the Diocese. So, when the priest kisses the altar at the beginning of Mass, he is not only showing reverence for Jesus Christ as the literal cornerstone of the Church as the altar represents, but also continues the ancient tradition of showing reverence for the sacrifice of the martyrs.

This practice serves as a continual reminder to us that when we participate in the celebration of Mass, we are celebrating with all the saints and angels in Heaven. "When he broke open the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been slaughtered because of the witness they bore to the word of God."* – Revelation 6:9

Just another example of how rich (and frankly, cool) our Catholic Church is. May God bless you, protect you from all evil and bring you to eternal life! ~ Deacon Jim

The Appeal

Supporting Catholic Ministries

PROGRESS UPDATE

Your gift to The 2024 Appeal is vital to the success of this diocesan-wide campaign. The Appeal benefits many ministries and services including Catholic education, evangelization, social concerns and services, and vocations, including the growing list of seminarians.

Thank you to all those who have already made a gift or pledge! We are off to a good start, with pledges totaling $254,329 from 433 families, which is 86% of our $295,000 goal.

All gifts, large and small are important and appreciated. All monies received above goal will be applied toward renovating our older restrooms in the church gathering area.

Appeal volunteers recently made calls to families who had not yet made a pledge, so if you received a call or voice message from them, please consider making your pledge today! You can return your envelope to one of the marked dropboxes in the gathering space, mail it in to the church office, or pledge online at bit.ly/GiveAppeal or via the QR code. Thank you!

This progress chart shows dollar amounts in increments of $10,000. Our pledge amount reached so far is shown in the darker teal color.

FOOD DRIVE
JUNE 15-30
The annual November food drive has been moved to June!

Look for the trailer outside the church!

Items most needed are:

- Canned fruit
- Peanut butter & jelly
- Canned meat (tuna & chicken)
- Cereal & oatmeal
- Boxed pasta

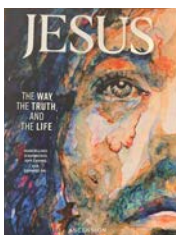

St Vincent de Paul's Annual Food Drive to support the Hilliard Food Pantry has moved from November to June. The Food Pantry receives many donations during the holiday season and so they actually have a much greater need for donations during summer months. Let's all help out!

All items donated will be delivered to the Hilliard Food Pantry for distribution to families in need. To learn more about St Vincent de Paul, contact Heather Carrier at heathercsvdp@gmail.com

WAYS YOU CAN HELP OUR PARISH FESTIVAL...

FESTIVAL SILENT AUCTION & KIDS GAMES HELP NEEDED! – The Festival Committee is looking for a Silent Auction Chairperson to oversee putting together gift baskets, packages, sports memorabilia and vacation packages to be auctioned off. We have all the tools in place to easily take on this role! Also, we are in need of a Kids Games Co-Chair to work with our chairperson to: develop games, determine prizes, assemble game boards/tables and to package prizes. If you can help with one of these needs, contact Mike at bogey0521104@gmail.com or 614-264-0314

DONATE AN EXPERIENCE – If you have tickets to sporting events, vacation time-shares, or other "experience" types of items that you are interested in donating to this year's Festival Silent Auction OR if you are in contact with a business that would like to donate items, or participate as a Festival sponsor, contact Mike Lynch at festival@stbrendans.net or 614-264-0314. For more donation opportunities, watch for the Giving Tree coming later in June!

TUESDAY MEN'S SCRIPTURE STUDY

Please join the men of the parish as we begin a new study on Tuesday, June 18 in the Davidson Room at 6:30 AM for Jesus: The Way, The Truth and The Life written by Marcelino D'Ambrosio. Jeff Cavins and Edward Sri helped to write the workbook. The book and workbook are available at Ascension Press or you may purchase the book on Amazon.

Please join in welcoming to St Brendan this weekend Rt Rev Antonysamy Savarimuthu, Bishop of the Diocese of Palayamkottai, Tamilnadu, India. The Diocese of Palayamkottai is located in south India, about 70 miles from the southernmost tip of India. Palayamkottai was one of the areas where St Francis Xavier evangelized in the 16th century and was instrumental in establishing Christianity in the region.

With 56 parishes and shrines, including the Basilica of our Lady of the Assumption, the Diocese of Palayamkottai has been on the frontlines of the Church's mission to preach and to live Christ's mercy since established in 1973. The diocese runs more than 100 Catholic schools, an Arts & Science college, along with a college of education and many orphanages, serving the poorest of the poor and offering them human and personal development over the years.

The diocese is also currently forming more than 40 seminarians. Raising holy and committed priests involves years of education, so please be generous in supporting Bishop Savarimuthu and his appeal for the work of the Church in Palayamkottai. We are grateful for His Excellency's presence with us this weekend and for the opportunity to join our hands in the mission of the universal Church.

Please give in the baskets after Masses this weekend, via the QR code or at <https://ppay.co/Nw42YKd-KU>
