MESSAGE FROM SISTER JOANNE

You may ask, "What?! You've been a professed religious sister for 60 years? That can't be!" "Yes," I answer, "Maybe I entered the convent when I was only 2!" (But, of course, I did not!)

I was "professed" (that is, pronounced my vows of "poverty, chastity and obedience" – the same vows I will renew during the 10:45 AM liturgy on Oct 6) in 1964 at the age of 21. At that time, our Stella Niagara Franciscan Sisters were still in full habit, as shown in my photo below. One of the documents entitled Decree on Adaptations and Renewal of Religious Life promulgated by Vatican II had changed many areas affecting religious life – two of them being how sisters lived in community and a simplification of the religious habit.

We all need mentors, that is, people who inspire us to follow their example. My first mentors were my parents. Then, I met "our" sisters during my eight years of grade school at St Rose in New Lexington and also during my four years of high school at St Aloysius Academy in a "little part of heaven" known as Perry County. Because I was attracted to the "mystery and example" of their lives, I entered the novitiate at our motherhouse, seven miles north of Niagara Falls, immediately after high school. I had secretly wondered if, behind convent walls, the sisters could "walk on water!"

I've lived a rich life in school and parish ministry and I thank God for all those children, teachers, catechists, sisters, associates and friends over the past 60 years in ministry who have taught me so much about life, with its blessings and pitfalls, as together we journey toward our final destination.

I have lived and ministered here in St Brendan parish for the last 25 years. You have prayed for, inspired and encouraged me. Because of that, know that YOUR thumbprint is embedded deep into my heart. And if ever you need or want a hug, I'm ready!!

At the end of my renewal of vows ceremony next Sunday, you will be invited to stand, raise your arm in blessing and pray "over me" as I stand facing you with my arm likewise raised so that YOUR blessing flows through me and back to you! A recording of our sisters in our motherhouse singing the traditional Franciscan blessing will be seen and played on the screens during this time. Let's all continue to pray for vocations for the Church of today!

Following the Mass, ALL OF YOU are invited to join me for a simple reception in the Davidson Rooms, (see invitation to the left) thanks to the generosity of Father Dooley and our parish.

Sister Joanne Fogarty

WALK WITH ONE STEP FOUR

Continuing with our series, remember that the most important initiative of this third Eucharistic Year is to walk alongside those who are seeking, away from the faith, or on the edges – in our families, with friends, coworkers, or others in the community. We are here to support you with resources, but it begins with prayer and relationship. Our first three steps were to identify someone in a spirit of humility and intercede for that person in communion with the Holy Spirit, then connect in Eucharistic friendship.

THE FINAL STEP IS TO INVITE THAT PERSON ON A PATH MOST SUITABLE FOR HIM/HER

Follow the promptings of the Holy Spirit to invite him or her to a concrete next step in fostering a personal relationship with Jesus and the Church. It may not be easy to invite them to come to Mass, particularly someone who has been away for some time or had no religious formation. Begin with an invitation to a parish small group, a service opportunity or social event. For those in need of healing or an experience of God's merciful love, an invitation to accompany them to the Sacrament of Reconciliation could be appropriate.

If you discern that inviting the person to Mass is the best next step, encourage them to come with you and your family or with a group of friends. Your invitation can be as simple as: "We always look forward to celebrating Sunday Mass together. It is a source of strength and hope for us, and it reaffirms our trust in Jesus. We would love for you to join us. We are going to the 10:45 Mass at St Brendan on Sunday and you are welcome to come with us and go to lunch afterwards. We can pick you up!" If the person shuts down the conversation, do not take it personally. Maybe they are not yet ready. Follow up with a statement that keeps the door open. "I understand. Thank you for talking with me about this. If you ever want to talk about your faith, I am always here." No matter what the outcome, keep persevering in friendship and ask the Lord to continue to guide you. After every encounter, thank God for the conversations and remember to keep this person in your prayers.

A "THANK YOU" NOTE FROM J.O.I.N.

St Brendan parishioners, Thank you for the wonderful donations of personal care and household items. Your frequent donations have made it possible for us to always have something for our neighbors in need of these items. It's significant to be able to give when a neighbor has depleted funds on rent, utilities, food, etc. God bless you all, always!

Retreat cost of $130 includes a private room with bathroom, 3 meals, snacks and drinks. Early Bird discount of $5 if you register and pay by October 22. Add Friday night to your stay for an additional $75. We do not want to turn any woman away, so, if cost is a factor, there are scholarships available. Questions? ## SUPPORT SVDP THIS WEEKEND!

The St Brendan conference of St Vincent de Paul has been helping the less fortunate in Hilliard for decades. Your generous contributions help us to share financial and spiritual support with local families in distress. Below are a couple glimpses of real-life stories that we were able to positively impact because of your generous support:

"My wife just had a baby and hasn't been able to work. I had a car accident and have been working two jobs, but the costs from the accident have me short on money for rent. Due to repair costs and my wife being unable to work, we can't manage. Will you help?"

"I hate that I need to ask for assistance, but am retired and living in a senior apartment complex. I moved here 5 years ago to be closer to my medical treatments at Ohio State. I had an increase in expenses due to medical issues and am not able to pay my rent. Will you help?"

These sentiments of gratitude are real and you can see the spirit of God at work in these families' lives and in the lives of the volunteers. As we head into the busiest time of the year for assistance requests, we would greatly appreciate your donations after Masses this weekend on Sept 28/29 OR scan the QR code OR mail your gift to the parish office, attn: St Vincent de Paul, 4475 Dublin Road, Hilliard, Ohio 43026

October 2, 7:15-9 pm

In this Eucharistic Year of Mission, we are called to be companions for those in need of physical, emotional, or spiritual support!

To be effective in our ministry, we first must be equipped to pray, to ask the Lord for His intercession – just as Simon Peter and his family asked for the healing of his mother-in-law. First, join us for Adoration at 6 PM in the church (optional). Then, enjoy a light dinner, game-changing talk, and prayer ministry at 7:15 PM in the Davidson Rooms.

Faithful Citizenship: Subsidiarity

In Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the Catholic bishops of the U.S. identify the four main principles of the Church's social teaching—Dignity of the Human Person, the Common Good, Solidarity, and Subsidiarity—and apply them to concrete issues. This entry focuses on Subsidiarity.

Subsidiarity is a principle that larger institutions (such as the state or federal government) should not overwhelm or interfere with smaller or local institutions (such as the family, local schools, or the Church community). And, when local entities cannot uphold human dignity, meet human needs, or advance the common good, larger entities have responsibilities to ensure all people can thrive.

Respecting this principle promotes the flourishing of each person and the realization of the common good. By participating in public life locally, each person and civil society can enrich their neighbors, communities, and society<sup>1</sup> through:

- Defending and strengthening marriage between a man and a woman as the most fundamental unit of society and a sanctuary for creating and nurturing children.<sup>2</sup>
- Upholding parents' rights and responsibilities in directing their children's education in accordance with their convictions, with support rather than interference from the state.<sup>3</sup>
- Strengthening family stability with laws and policies to support parents, including childcare, healthcare, housing assistance, and child tax credits.<sup>4</sup>
- Advocating for economic policies that provide jobs with decent working conditions, fair wages, and protect workers' rights to organize and bargain collectively.<sup>5</sup>

As we pursue the principle of Subsidiarity in our public policies, we pray for all families and those in poverty and support their efforts to exercise their rights and responsibilities in society.

Make a gift at www.catholiccemeteriesofcolumbus.org/about-us/donations (Find "Garden of the Holy Innocents" in the drop-down.)
