MESSAGE FROM JACOB DORAN

At the end of our first semester of family faith formation this year, we gave all families a challenge to stop and visit Jesus in the church or adoration chapel. Each parent, teen, and child received a “Jesus visit guide” that shows how to spend time in adoration. Our parish encourages a full hour commitment, but just a visit does not require an entire hour. Even just a few minutes with Jesus in the Eucharist can be a refreshing time filled with grace. The church’s Directory for Catechesis teaches that “it is necessary to teach [the believer] to pray with Jesus and like him.”

There are a few prayers that come recommended for teaching how to pray. They include reading sacred Scripture, the prayer of the heart called the “Jesus Prayer,” and the Rosary. If you want to get started with any of these or more, they are all available on the Hallow app. We still are providing a full subscription to Hallow Plus for all parishioners until Easter. All family faith formation middle school students have access to Hallow Plus through July 31.

Family Faith Formation this semester will regularly practice Lectio Divina, an ancient prayer practice of the Church, which involves reading and meditating on Scripture. Pope Francis recommends reading the Gospels for 15 minutes each day.

Combining these two practices would make a solid prayer time in which we read and hear God’s word. Scripture is the living Word of God, so it applies to us just as much now as when it was written over two thousand years ago.

If you aren’t, or your family isn’t, in a regular practice of prayer, take time before dinner or bed each night to pray one prayer together. This is a great way to help kids and yourself memorize important traditional prayers – so that when they need prayer the most, they will have something to say.

Why is there something rather than nothing?

Why is everything so obviously messed up?

What if anything has God done about it?

How should I respond?

Ever ask yourself these questions?

We invite you to join us for The Rescue Project.

Together we can discover The Story.

Beginning February 23, 9 AM and 6:30 PM (Thursday morning and evening sessions).

To learn more about The Rescue Project, scan the QR code.

CREATE A NEW PRAYER HABIT!

PRAYER HABIT TIP #2 - EARLY WAKE-UP FOR PRAYER

"Being a loving and present mother starts with filling my own cup first (think of the airplane mask metaphor). A life-altering practice for me has been waking up 30 minutes before my daughter in order to sit in silence and pray. I begin with a meditation from Divine Intimacy. I close my eyes and ask God to enter into that space, to heal my heart and be present with me in whatever hurt I'm facing and to grant me the patience to handle the day's tasks ahead." — Alexa Hyman

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 8:23–9:3 | 1 Cor 1:10-13, 17 | Mt 4:12-23 or Mt. 4:12-17

Written by
THE FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Since the Fall, the world has been riddled with strife and divisiveness. From the disobedience in the Garden, to Cain and Abel, to conflicts and wars throughout the centuries, it's clear that we humans are prone to picking sides and fighting over them. We hear about this even within the early Church from St. Paul in today's second reading. There were rivalries, and Christians were saying things such as, "I belong to Paul" or "I belong to Cephas." But Paul wisely asks: "Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?" Clearly not. There is only one source of Truth – Jesus Christ – and Paul never hesitated to refuse credit for himself, and to instead glorify the Lord in his word and deed. This is the model set for us – to refuse to set ourselves or God-made-in-our-own-image over and against the Triune God who created us. Christ came to unite us with himself and to one another, in reconciliation with the Father. His words are now our words: Repent and believe in the Gospel. Pray for the grace to come together as the body of Christ so that we can be his hands and feet in the world and carry out the work he began.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In Jesus Christ the kingdom of God enters into human history, fulfilling God's promise of salvation for his people. Christ inaugurated the kingdom on earth, and as members of his Church we are responsible for continuing to build it – here and now. As Christ called his first disciples and made them "fishers of men," so he calls us, that we might go forth "proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people."

PRAY The Lord has commissioned us to take the Gospel to the ends of the earth. Where we cannot go physically or in person, we can go in prayer. Bring before the Lord all who yet need to hear his voice and repent and believe. Pray for those who are persecuted for their belief in Jesus Christ.
