Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

*"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment.
The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments." -Mt 22:34-40*

A MESSAGE FROM FR STINNETT

The dual feast days of All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day, coming up this week on Wednesday and Thursday respectively, are a reminder to us of everyone who makes up the Church. All three "states" of the Church are present to us in the liturgy on these days, and our relationship to them is particularly pronounced. The Church can be separated into three different "states," based on the location of each person's baptized soul. The Church here on earth, the one you and I are a part of right now, is called the Church Militant. We are the ones who are fighting the good fight here on earth, choosing for God, growing in love, and moving away from sin and the temptations of the Devil. The Church Penitent, sometimes called the Church Suffering, are the souls in Purgatory, those undergoing their final cleansing from sin and its effects, to prepare them for the perfection of Heaven. It is for the poor souls in Purgatory that we pray for especially on All Souls' Day and throughout the month of November. Finally, the Church Triumphant are all those saints who have reached the perfection of Heaven, have triumphed with and through Jesus over sin and death, and who are at home in the Lord, in perfect communion with the Most Blessed Trinity.

Lumen Gentium, the Constitution on the Church from Vatican II, reminds us that all three states of the Church make up the Body of Christ. Concluding with a quote from 2 Maccabees, the Constitution says, "Fully conscious of this communion of the whole Mystical Body of Jesus Christ, the pilgrim Church from the very first ages of the Christian religion has cultivated with great piety the memory of the dead, and 'because it is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins,'" (LG 50). Our prayers on behalf of the Church Suffering aid them in their purification and perfection. Our charity, which we express through our prayers, comes to them and increases their desire for God. St Paul's description of the Church as the Body of Christ is proven true in our own practice of praying for the dead and rejoicing in the victory of the saints. He begins his explanation by saying: "As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ" (1 Cor 12:12). The Church, in her three states, is the One Body, and we here on earth, the Church Suffering in Purgatory, and the Church Triumphant in Heaven are the many parts, united under Christ our Head. Paul concludes with these words, words that can be our inspiration to pray for the poor souls this month in particular, taking upon ourselves the sufferings of the purification needed to enter Heaven: "If [one] part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy" (1 Cor 12:26).

ALL SAINTS' MASS – Nov 1, 7 AM & 7 PM (Vigil Mass: Oct 31, 5:30 PM)

ALL SOULS' MASS – Come celebrate the Feast of All Souls (Mass of Remembrance) November 2, 6 PM. This liturgy is for you who have experienced a loss in the past year, for you who want to pray for the departed souls precious to you, but also for all of us, as members of this great family, to pray for the dead.

During the month of November, the names of our deceased parishioners and those who have had funerals at St Brendan in the last year are inscribed on banners that hang behind the altar. Blank banners will be in the gathering space for you to write the names of your own deceased loved ones. Let us remember all the souls of the faithful departed in prayer.

BIBLICAL EVIDENCE FOR THE REAL PRESENCE IN THE EUCHARIST (PART 4)

A fourth way to defend the Catholic understanding of the Eucharist is to appeal to St Paul's teaching on the Eucharist in 1 Corinthians 11:27:

"Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of profaning the body and blood of the Lord."

One incurs the "guilt of blood" only if the victim is present in person. As in, someone shooting at a real live human being versus a picture of someone. If someone fires a gun at a picture of a person, that someone is not guilty of the person's blood. But, if someone shoots a real human being, then that person is guilty of the other person's blood.

Paul says that we are guilty of Jesus' blood if we unworthily partake of the Eucharist. Therefore, Paul must view the Eucharist to be Jesus present in person and not a mere symbol of Jesus.

A PILGRIMAGE TRAVELER'S STORY BY LORI CROCK

I had the blessing of going on a pilgrimage recently to Fatima, Portugal, Lourdes, France and Bugos, Barcelona and Monserrat, Spain. As I was praying about what to write about, the Holy Spirit gave me the word "childlike" as my theme. I wasn't sure what that meant, but as I prayed and started writing, it became clear.

First though, a pilgrimage refers to a journey and this can be done alone or with others. I was with a group of 40 women and men from the parish and we were blessed to be led by two priests. The experience of a pilgrimage with others of various ages and backgrounds is truly one of the gifts of the pilgrimage.

Back to childlikeness... I really felt like the Lord wanted me to just be open and receive like a little child as we visited the holy places – especially the places where Our Lady appeared to children. My desire was to be open to whatever was presented before me – to explore, discover, reflect, share and to give thanks with openness and childlike joy.

In Fatima, it was a visit to the humble homes of the three children of Fatima whom Our Lady appeared to and we saw the fields where they kept their sheep. As I prayed, I tried to imagine what it must be like for the children when Our Lady visited them. They were surprised, but not afraid. They were truthful in sharing with the authorities as their stories never changed. I was struck that Lucia and Jacinta could both hear and see Our Lady, but the youngest, Francisco, could only see her. He had to keep asking his sister and cousin, "What did the Lady say?" How hard that must have been! Our Father knows us so much better than we know ourselves - perhaps Francisco would have been frightened hearing her voice. Our Lady revealed herself as the "Immaculate Conception" and they did not know what that meant. Her name and her message were for the adults of that time and for us. Thanks be to God that the children brought us her message of love, repentance and faithfulness to prayer, especially the Rosary.

Six men from our group (Jim Cogan, Michael Hermsillo, Donald Linehan, Martin Mitchell, John Todd and Michael Vedra) had the privilege of carrying the statue of Our Lady of Fatima in the candlelight Rosary procession one evening. I felt like a child running alongside them, praying and appreciating the beautiful presentation of Our Lady and the joy of the pilgrims. It was an extremely emotional event for the men, and for many of us pilgrims, as we united our hearts as one with Our Lady of Fatima.

In Lourdes, again, was a feeling of childlikeness. That was so easy as we moved between three basilicas to pray, to celebrate Mass daily in private chapels with our pastor and to give thanks. It was powerful to pray the Rosary in different languages with people from around the world, to pray at the Grotto where Our Lady spoke to St Bernadette, to wash in the miraculous waters, to touch the Grotto rocks, and to see the spring still bubbling up from the ground where St Bernadette scratched at the earth and washed in the muddy waters in response to Our Lady's promptings.

I was so emotional as I entered the baths to formally lift my intentions to Our Lady and to wash in the miraculous waters. I had brought so many intentions with me and I was at peace that Our Lady lovingly carried each one to her Son. The nightly candlelit Rosary processions were a magnificent display of faith by pilgrims from around the world. I felt so free going before the Father giving thanks, praising and worshipping alongside others who love Jesus through Mary. The daily afternoon procession of the sick, in which hundreds of people in wheelchairs moved around the square with the assistance of so many volunteers, touched our hearts and it reminded me of the childlike qualities of humility, hope and trust that led them to make the difficult journey to Lourdes.

Finally, we made a visit to the Black Madonna in Monserrat, Spain. This was a special gift. I'd heard of the Black Madonna, but didn't know the story. The statue of Our Lady was discovered in a cave and placed in a small church. Many miracles have been attributed to praying before the statue that was found in the mountains. The Benedictine Monks build the sanctuary around the statue of Our Lady. The mountainous area of Monserrat, near Barcelona, Spain, is an amazing display of rock formations and beautiful valleys where clouds shift in and out throughout the day. As we entered into the serene mountain sanctuary, I was excited to explore. The moment before the statue of Our Lady brought tears of joy and peace as I gazed upon her beautiful black and gold countenance with wonder and awe.

When a pilgrimage ends, it is bittersweet. It's wonderful to be back home. Now there is time for reflection, sharing stories with others and pondering the spiritual messages that we received. Whether your pilgrimage is abroad, or you go to your local parish church for a Holy Hour, I pray that you are blessed with a childlike spirit of wonder and awe at the glorious gift of our faith and the endless riches of our Church and communion with the saints and our brothers and sisters in Christ.
