A MESSAGE FROM BEN ROMAKER

St Brendan Family,

My message today is one of celebration and gratitude. In my prayer life, and by my estimation, I'm often guilty of overloading the Lord with prayers of petition or intercession. I too often forget to give thanks for the abundant blessings He affords me and my loved ones. I know that we can never spend too much time in prayer, and our Lord is never truly overburdened with our requests for intervention, but it's still important to find balance in expressing our appreciation to the One who listens.

Oftentimes in our daily lives, seizing the opportunities to express gratitude can be easily missed as well. It's important to find moments of respite to count our blessings and better demonstrate our love for our friends and families. Here at St Brendan the Navigator, and on behalf of our clergy and staff, I'd like to extend sincere gratitude for our parishioners – our incredible faith family – who never cease to exemplify the love, charity, and fervor that God has called us to.

Across our bustling campus, we've had a tremendous year richly filled with inspiring worship opportunities and exciting festivities. On more than one occasion, I've seen families having to park on Father's front lawn :) We're also wonderfully blessed with financial stability that has allowed us to dynamically tackle challenges like this past summer's renovations. Our parish contribution to The Appeal has eclipsed an awesome $300,000 for the first time ever, the refund of which will soon retrofit our lighting and electrical systems.

I'm also thrilled to share the great news that we've made our final loan payment from the ONE Campaign. Through the incredible generosity of our faith family, the guidance of various professionals, and the tireless direction of Colleen Speer, our former Director of Development, a beautiful vision of a unified campus was made into a reality. Our modernized facilities – coupled with the smiling faces that fill them daily – coalesce to create a nourishing Catholic experience that is worthy of celebration. That's why we're inviting all parishioners to join us next weekend for our first ever Masses of Gratitude! Whether you donate of your time, talent, or treasure to the campus at St Brendan, we ask you to join us in celebrating one another with one another. No matter which Mass you frequent, we will be hosting special catered receptions after each one next weekend. Let us count our blessings, celebrate our parish, and be refreshed as we look back at all that we've accomplished in Jesus' name. Thank you!

Masses of Gratitude

Saturday 11/18 After 5:30PM Mass

Charcuterie displays, butter boards, meatballs, sliders, hummus & spinach dips, desserts, buckeyes, fruits, adult beverages

Sunday 11/19 After all morning Masses

Pancakes, bagel bar, biscuits & gravy, egg and veggie casserole, bacon, drinks

Sunday 11/19 After 5:30PM Mass

Sundae bar, gourmet brownie bar, caramel apple nacho bar

HOW TO PRAY THE OPENING PRAYER

Spiritual Meaning: The Opening Prayer requires both individual contributions – the pleas of each member of the Mystical Body – and a leader to gather them and give voice to them to God the Father. The moment of silence following the priest's invitation "Let us pray" is a time to offer our intentions to and desires for God.

Participation: Formulate your intentions – sentiments of adoration, sorrow, thanksgiving, and petition – before Mass. When the priest says, "Let us pray," consciously bring these intentions forward so that he can offer them, along with everybody else's, to God.

HOW TO LISTEN TO THE READINGS

Spiritual Meaning: The Word of God is not simply texts spoken at Mass, but first and foremost is a Person, the Word of the Trinity. All liturgical words, in some way, make audible this divine Word. The Mass' Liturgy of the Word resembles history's larger economy of salvation: just as the Father conversed with the Chosen People through the prophets, so now does He continue the dialogue with His people in the Mass' readings.

Participation: In the days leading up to Sunday, follow the method of Lectio Divina for the Sunday Gospel: reading, reflecting, responding, contemplating, acting. At Mass, listen attentively with the ears of your heart. In the day or two following the Sunday hearing of the Word, recall the Gospel message and thank God for the fruits received.

MINISTRY OF CARE TO HOMEBOUND AND FACILITIES

Did you know we have 17 senior living facilities in our parish area with Catholics that need connection, prayer and the Eucharist? Our extended family members need our help to visit and bring Communion. We are in great need of people with a heart for this ministry and population to help us once a month, as a sub, or more frequently. All training is provided by our teams, shadowing until you are ready to venture on your own.
 You do not already need to be an EMHC to participate – you can be trained just to serve the sick. For more information or to say “YES!” please call Jennifer Rice at the parish office or email jrice@stbrendans.net

ADOPT-A-SENIOR THIS WEEKEND & SUPPORT OUR EXTENDED PARISH FAMILY!

Each month, our home and facility-bound seniors receive the Word Among Us which contains the daily readings, reflections and guide to Mass. Many follow along watching a streamed Mass or use them at the Communion services we hold onsite. In 2021, your generosity surpassed our goal of distributing these for one year and provided two! Your $20 gift will provide a year plus Advent and Lent supplements. To give online, please visit <https://tinyurl.com/Adopt-Senior> or scan the QR code. A card will be signed with your name, or you can donate and sign your own after Masses this weekend, November 11 & 12.

The books and cards will go into 250 care packages for Advent. We also need donations of large print word search books (no other puzzle books), lip balm, lotion, and individually packaged snacks/cookies. These may be placed in the marked boxes in the church gathering space. The care packages will be assembled by our school children as their service project. Thank you for your generosity! Questions? Contact Jamie Young at jyoung@stbrendans.net

TRAVELING VOCATIONS CRUCIFIX

As part of Vocations Awareness Week, we have a special Traveling Vocations Crucifix that will spend a week with families in the parish. It includes prayer resources for families to pray and discuss vocations, how God is calling each of us in a special way to serve Him and His Church, and to live out the call to holiness that is for everyone. Sign up your family for a week in ParishStaq and commit to receive the Vocations Crucifix during that time. After your week ends, drop it off in the specially marked cabinet in the Adoration Chapel by 10:45 AM on Sunday so the next family who signed up can retrieve it. We would like to get enough families to have the Vocations Crucifix passed among parish families at least until Good Shepherd Sunday, the Fourth Sunday of Easter on April 21. The next open spot we currently need to fill is November 26. Scan the QR code or sign up by visiting <https://stbrendan.ccbchurch.com/goto/needs/public>

CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE

The Giving Trees are going up next weekend in the Church Gathering Space! Please take a tag and follow the instructions. Your donations will go to a variety of causes. For more information, see the poster in the gathering space. If you prefer online shopping, visit our Amazon Wishlist: <https://tinyurl.com/giving-tree-23> or scan the QR code. Make your purchase online and it will be delivered directly to our Giving Tree volunteer, Marge Cogan. Your donations will help to support the St Francis Evangelization Center Christmas Store in McArthur, OH. Please return all purchased Giving Tree items by December 3 and place them by the trees in the church lobby. We appreciate your generosity! Questions? Contact Rhonda Hamrock at 614-313-2066

FOOD DRIVE

St Brendan's annual Thanksgiving Food Drive began last weekend and runs through November 18 & 19. The familiar trailer will be located outside the church for your donations after Masses. Any regular Thanksgiving "Fixin's" or items listed on the Green Bin are greatly desired. Some of the highest need items are Cereal and Oatmeal, Pancake Mix and Syrup, Peanut Butter and Jelly, and Household Essentials (ie: paper towels and toilet paper.) All donations will be delivered to the Hilliard Food Pantry for distribution to families in need. If you would like to learn more about St Vincent de Paul, contact Heather Carrier at heathercsvdp@gmail.com

LECTOR TRAINING □ NOV 12 & 13

Is God nudging at your heart right now to proclaim God's words? We currently are in need of Lectors who can do just that and who desire to live out the Gospel message. St Brendan's Lector Ministry invites you to be a part of this vibrant and important ministry of service. If you have ever thought about becoming a Lector, please prayerfully consider participating in the upcoming training sessions to join this meaningful ministry.

Lectors share our Catholic faith story during liturgies and in doing so, bring the Word of God to life. This is an exciting call we hope you consider joining. Also, please attend if you are an existing Lector, to brush up and share your questions and thoughts about improving the Ministry.

We are offering two training sessions – Sunday, November 12 and Monday, November 13 – both at 7 PM in the Church. Please email Pete Terranova at peteterranova@gmail.com to receive materials to read for the sessions and/or to reach out with any questions.

NEW! CHRISTINGLE EVENT

Join us for a new Advent tradition brought to you by Father Bob's own tradition! Bring your family and friends to the Christingle Event, December 3, 2-3:30 PM.

The Christingle is a special symbol full of meaning around the Christmas story. Craft one with us and learn about its meaning from 2-2:45 PM while you enjoy refreshments and community in the Davidson Road Meeting Rooms. Then come into church to participate in a service full of music, prayer, and preparation for Jesus' birth. Please RSVP your family at www.stbrendans.net/advent-events

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN □ NOV 18

The next PGC session at St Brendan is Saturday, Nov 18 at 9 AM-12 PM in Davidson Rd Meeting Rm A. Sign up at www.tinyurl.com/StBrendanPGC

INVITE ONE BACK TO MASS!

Do you know any family members, neighbors or friends who are no longer practicing their Catholic faith? What would happen if each of us invited just one person to attend Mass with us? This Christmas, we are asking each of our parish family members to "Invite ONE back" to Mass with them. To aid your efforts, we have created a special invitation greeting card which will be available for you to take home beginning November 18. Thanksgiving gatherings offer an opportunity to share this invitation! An electronic version, which may be emailed, is available now by visiting www.stbrendans.net/advent-events

ADVENT BY CANDLELIGHT

We invite all women of the parish to attend a beautiful night of prayer and reflection on December 7 at 6:30 PM in the Davidson Road Meeting Rooms to fill our hearts with hope for the coming of Jesus at Christmas. We welcome Sister Ana Chiara, DLJC to speak with us about the hope and peace that comes from our relationship with Jesus. A catered dinner will be served. Sign up to be a table hostess to provide linens, decorations, and place settings for your table as you invite women to join you and leave a few spots open for guests. Come as a guest and be welcomed at one of the many decorated tables. Cost is $10 per person. Table hosts as well as all guests should register and pay by visiting our women's ministry page at www.stbrendans.net/womens-groups Questions? Contact Jen at jrice@stbrendans.net

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wis 6:12-16 | 1 Thes 4:13-18 | Mt 25:1-13

Written by
FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I'll always remember that first Easter after my Dad passed away. It was when the promise of the resurrection truly hit home. Sure, I had always believed in heaven and that everyone had the possibility of spending eternity there, but until my Dad died, it had all been theoretical. Now, it was personal. Someone I loved deeply had left this world, but because of Christ's sacrifice, he had the opportunity to go to paradise, someplace where we will hopefully be reunited someday. I believe that's what St. Paul is talking about in today's second reading. We do "not grieve like the rest, who have no hope." We have hope! We have hope for our family, for our friends – for our very selves! – that we will rise again and spend eternity with the Lord and with those we love. Paul writes elsewhere, "Where, O death, is your sting?" (1 Cor 15:55) The sting of death is sin, Paul says, but Christ has won the victory over it. In being baptized into Christ, we share in that victory, and we are inheritors of the promise of eternal life that comes from death's defeat.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The parable in today's Gospel is a reminder that while Christ has opened the gates of heaven for us, we must be ready to accept that gift and walk through them. In the parable of the ten virgins, we see how all fell asleep while waiting for the bridegroom to arrive. When he did show up, five were ready with oil for their lamps while five were sent scurrying to buy some. As a result, those who were not ready missed the opening of the doors and were locked out of the wedding feast. "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour," Jesus admonishes us. Are you awake? Will you be ready to enter the wedding feast when the door is opened to you? There is nothing wrong with enjoying God's creation and gifts here on earth, but we must guard against getting so caught up in the things of this world that we forget to prepare for the next.

PRAY The ten virgins needed oil for their lamps to be ready for the bridegroom, but we need a clean heart and a steadfast spirit, as Psalm 51 tells us. (12) We get that by setting aside regular time for prayer and making a point to regularly receive the sacraments, including the reception of the body and blood of Jesus in the Eucharist and his forgiveness within the sacrament of reconciliation. Making time for the Lord now will mean we are ready for his return later.
