A MESSAGE FROM JACOB DORAN

Why do we so often call the Sacrament of the Eucharist "Communion"? I myself say phrases like, "going to Communion" or "time for Communion" when speaking with my kids. It can be easy to use the word without really knowing what I mean by it. By my language, Communion can seem more like an event or "just a part of Mass," rather than a Sacrament. Events happen and are left in the past, but Sacraments have and confer God's own life.

The Church teaches us that it is because in the Sacrament, we are united to Christ to form a single body. The language of this teaching is very important. It is not I alone who am united with Christ, but it is we who are, together, united as a body to Jesus Christ the Head. "...all who eat the one broken bread, Christ, enter into communion with him and form but one body in him" (CCC 1329).

Christ Himself teaches the true meaning of Communion, that we would eat and drink to become more united with Him. "He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so he who eats me will live because of me" (John 6:56-57). Jesus gives us Communion as a pledge of future glory with Him in Heaven.

Communion also strengthens our bonds with each other. "Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread" (1 Corinthians 10:16-17). So in receiving Communion, we are united not only with Christ but with each other, all facing towards and obedient to Jesus. So now we see that it is not just about one's own union with Christ, but that we are united with each other as well as the whole communion of Saints already in Heaven.

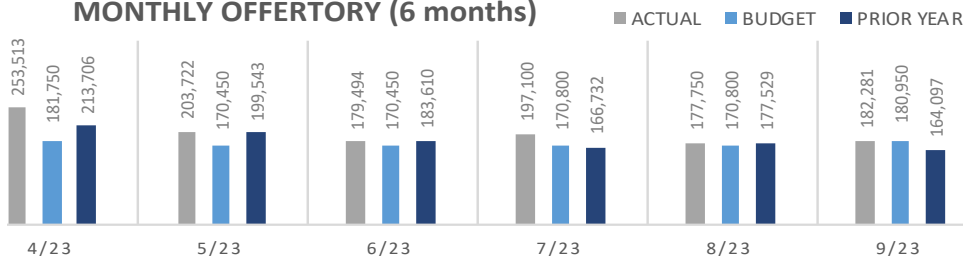

Receiving Holy Communion is not "just a part of Mass" or a ritual that closes out our time together. It is a Sacramental sign by which our orientation is changed. We are made to be closer to Jesus, closer to each other, and closer to Heaven.

MONTHLY OFFERTORY (6 months)

DEEPENING OUR PARTICIPATION IN THE MASS (WEEK ONE)

Each of us can admit to sometimes going through the motions at Mass. Distracted, tired, or even unsure about what we are praying or why we are praying it. For the next several weeks, we are going to highlight some suggestions to more fully participate in the Mass from Christopher Carstens' book, A Devotional Journey into the Mass. Each week, we will present the spiritual meaning of an element of Mass and how we can fully, actively, and consciously participate in them.

First up: How to Make the Sign of the Cross

Spiritual Meaning: Mystagogy leads the attentive participant from the visible sign to the invisible reality—who is ultimately Jesus—by looking to the roots of sacramental meaning in creation, culture, the Old Testament, Christ and heaven.

Participation: Make the Sign of the Cross thoughtfully, for in it we recall our creation from the hands of the Trinity and along with the entire cosmos, our re-creation today. By this Sign we are nourished with God-given grace, as from the very tree of life in nature's original garden. Like the Chosen People under Moses' outstretched arms along their way to a Promised Land, the Cross is our standard and protection. In the Sign of the Cross, we configure ourselves to Jesus and His Cross. By this sign we are transported to heaven, where we eat the fruit of the tree of life in a restored Garden.

LECTOR TRAINING NOVEMBER 12 & 13

Is God nudging at your heart right now to proclaim God's words? We currently are in need of Lector ministers who can do just that and who desire to live out the Gospel message. St Brendan's Lector Ministry invites you to be a part of this vibrant and important ministry of service. If you have ever thought about becoming a Lector, please prayerfully consider participating in the upcoming training sessions to join this meaningful ministry.

Lectors share our Catholic faith story during liturgies and in doing so, bringing the Word of God to life. This is an exciting call and we hope you will consider joining. Also, please attend if you are an existing Lector, to brush up and share your questions and thoughts about improving the Ministry.

We are offering two training sessions – Sunday, November 12 and Monday, November 13 – both at 7 pm in the Church. Please email Pete Terranova at peteterranova@gmail.com to receive materials to read for the sessions and/or to reach out with any questions.

VOCATIONS AWARENESS WEEK

National Vocation Awareness Week is November 5-11. Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons, and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of vocation. Are you currently discerning a religious life vocation? There are now seven Melchizedek Project Priestly Vocation Discernment Groups meeting in the Columbus diocese: OSU Newman Center, Our Lady of Peace, St Michael, St Patrick, St John Neumann (Sunbury), St Bernadette (Lancaster), and St Francis (Newark). For details visit <https://www.vocationscolumbus.org/project>

TRAVELING VOCATIONS CRUCIFIX

As part of Vocations Awareness Week, we have a special Traveling Vocations Crucifix that will spend a week with families in the parish. It includes prayer resources for families to pray and discuss vocations, how God is calling each of us in a special way to serve Him and His Church, and to live out the call to holiness that is for everyone. Sign up your family for a week in ParishStaq and commit to receive the Vocations Crucifix during that time. After your week ends, drop it off in the specially marked cabinet in the Adoration Chapel by 10:45 AM on Sunday so the next family who signed up can retrieve it. We would like to get enough families to have the Vocations Crucifix passed among parish families at least until Good Shepherd Sunday, the Fourth Sunday of Easter on April 21. Scan the QR code or sign up at <https://stbrendan.ccbchurch.com/goto/needs/public>

PRAY THE ROSARY WITH US

All are invited to pray the Rosary each week with St Brendan Knights of Columbus immediately following Saturday 8 AM Mass. "Guide to Praying the Rosary" pamphlets are available in the church gathering space if needed.

SUPPORT OUR EXTENDED PARISH FAMILY THIS CHRISTMAS & BEYOND!

Each month, our home and facility-bound seniors receive the Word Among Us which contains the daily readings, reflections and guide to Mass. Many follow along watching a streamed Mass or use them at the Communion services we hold onsite. In 2021, your generosity surpassed our goal of distributing these for one year and provided two! Your $20 gift will provide a year plus Advent and Lent supplements. To give online, please visit <https://tinyurl.com/Adopt-Senior> or scan the QR code. A card will be signed with your name, or you can donate and sign your own after Masses the weekend of November 11 & 12.

The books and cards will go into 250 care packages for Advent. We also need donations of large print word search books (no other puzzle books), lip balm, lotion, and individually packaged snacks/cookies. These may be placed in the marked boxes in the church gathering space. The care packages will be assembled by our school children as their service project. Thank you for your generosity! Questions? Contact Jamie Young at jyoung@stbrendans.net

THREE THINGS TO TELL YOUR PRO-CHOICE FRIENDS & TWO OBJECTIONS

BY BOB WURZELBACHER, DIRECTOR OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF CINCINNATI RESPECT LIFE MINISTRIES

Q: How do I talk to my pro-choice friends about the dangers of the proposed amendment on the November ballot?

A: When Ohioans hear the November ballot includes an initiative to protect "reproductive rights," the majority of them will be in support of it. However, once they understand what the amendment really says and that it will instill a right to abortion with virtually no restrictions up until birth, the vast majority will not support it. We don't have to convince others to support life from conception in order to defeat this initiative; we only have to explain the truth of the language.

While there are many dangers of this amendment, I want to boil it down to three simple points you can share with your pro-choice family and friends.

1. The amendment will take away parental notification laws. The amendment specifically uses the words "any individual" with no reference to age. This language is deliberate, to ensure that any laws requiring parental notification can be soon struck down as unconstitutional for restricting the rights of anyone, of any age, to access abortion.
2. This amendment will take away typical safety laws. By specifically indicating that no law can place a "burden" on access to abortion (and not even the more traditional "undue burden"), typical safety standards will soon be eliminated. Examples of things legally considered a "burden" to abortion access include requirements such as an in-person visit and ultrasound to determine location of pregnancy before receiving a chemical abortion, ambulatory privileges for abortionists to care for a woman in an emergency, or requiring an actual licensed physician to perform the abortion. Using "burden" in Ohio's constitution threatens any safety laws for women.
3. Although the amendment specifically says abortion may be prohibited after viability, it adds that it may not be prohibited if "necessary to protect the pregnant patient's life or health." Health has already been defined in law related to abortion to include "emotional, psychological, familial, and the woman's age." We aren't talking only about danger to the woman's physical health; we are talking about virtually any reason, up until birth.

Now, say your pro-choice family and friends engage you in a discussion about the amendment. These are two of the most common objections you will hear and how you can respond.

OBJECTION 1 – "I have heard of doctors who have complained they were afraid to do treatment on women with ectopic pregnancy or miscarriage because they thought it could be against the law."

This is nothing more than fear-mongering. Care for ectopic pregnancy has always been legal and protected regardless of restrictions put on abortion. All abortion-restricting laws are fully aware of defining abortion to not include care for miscarriage or ectopic pregnancy. The Ohio Revised Code (2919.11) defines abortion as "the purposeful termination of a human pregnancy with an intention other than to produce a live birth or to remove a dead fetus or embryo." Clearly, miscarriage care does not fall under that definition. Even the Heartbeat Bill in Ohio, which was in place for a short time and is currently not in effect, specifically defines the exception of ectopic pregnancy in ORC 2919.191 saying that the law's restrictions "apply only to intrauterine pregnancies, i.e., only when implantation is in the uterus, not in the fallopian tubes, as occurs in an ectopic or tubal pregnancy." No doctor would be confused about that language.

OBJECTION 2 – "What if the mother's life is at stake?"

First of all, what everyone needs to know is that when the mother's life is at stake during a pregnancy, the safest thing to do for both mother and child is ALWAYS to deliver the baby alive to take care of the mother and do what is necessary to save the life of the child, or provide comfort care if the baby is too premature. It is NEVER safer for the mother to have someone dismember the child first, and then forcibly remove it, which is what an abortion at that stage would do. Nonetheless, as far as the law is concerned, all abortion-restricting laws in Ohio have an exception for both "to prevent the death of the pregnant woman or to avoid a serious risk of the substantial and irreversible impairment of a major bodily function" (ORC 2919.16).

If we let people know what the language actually says, they will be on our side, and we can defeat this initiative!
