LECTIO DIVINA & VISIO DIVINA

Each month in this year of prayer, we will look more closely at a specific practice. You will see hints of this through our social platforms, the bulletin, and monthly course called "Lord, Teach Us" (February 27). This month we learn more about praying with Scripture (Lectio Divina) and with sacred art (Visio Divina). Both practices allow our imaginations to be directed by the Holy Spirit as we go beyond the surface.

Our first task is to recognize that the Word of God is living, breathing, changing (Hebrews 4:12). This means that we can hear or see different messages each time we read it as our seasons and needs may change. It is also "sharper than any two-edged sword," cutting through the junk we may hear in our minds and culture about who we are. If we learn how to set aside the time to read Scripture and take it to heart, we have a natural defense and are participating in the conversation God wants to have with us.

If you search for "Lectio Divina," you will find many ways to approach it, but for now let's just start with the Sunday readings. This week, spend some time reading/re-reading the text for next Sunday. After you read it once, read it again, underlining any words or verses that speak to you. If you want to take it further, write down these words/verses and reflect on them through writing or silent prayer. See what happens when you hear them aloud next Sunday.

Visio Divina, meaning "sacred seeing," is a contemplative practice that helps us to slow down and consider the story portrayed from all angles, really witnessing what message God may have for us in the sacred art. Many individuals are more visual learners, and this type of prayer may be more accessible as we allow our imaginations to go deep into the story. Looking at a piece, like Return of the Prodigal Son below, try noticing the lines, textures, characters and setting. What emotions does the piece evoke in you? Is there an image you are drawn to and you wish to know more of that story? Imagine yourself in the scene and be open to where your mind and heart is directed. Reading the Scripture passage (Luke 15:11-32) alongside this can take your prayer even further.

We hope you will try one of these prayer forms this month and join us to learn more on February 27!

FEB 27 - LORD TEACH US SERIES

PRAYER WITH SCRIPTURE & ART – This month we learn about praying with Scripture (Lectio Divina) and with sacred art (Visio Divina). See the article on this page for more details on what those terms mean and join us Monday, February 27, 10 AM or 7 PM in Wellnitz Hall. Start or improve your prayer routine!

CREATE A NEW PRAYER HABIT

TIP #5 – A DAILY PRAYER RECIPIENT

"Set an alarm each morning to remind yourself which special child will receive your prayers and sacrifices for them that day. Every morning, pray for him or her with simple words, bits of Scripture, a song or decades of the Rosary woven throughout the day. As you pray for your child on his given day, tell them, 'We never stop giving thanks for you, we love you and are lifting you in prayer today,' reminding them of God's personal love and attention as His beloved son or daughter." — Kathleen McNulty Wilson, pro-life coordinator for the Archdiocese of Detroit

A MESSAGE FROM J.O.I.N.

JOINT ORGANIZATION FOR INNER-CITY NEEDS

JOIN, is an agency of the Diocese's Catholic Charities Office. We are located at 578 E Main Street in downtown Columbus. Sharing God's love with our neighbors, sharing His word by caring for our brothers and sisters as He told us to do are the blessings we impart daily. Through the generosity of people throughout our Diocese, JOIN is able to help our neighbors with their essential needs such as food, personal care, household items and diapers. We can also assist with intricate needs such as prescriptions, utilities, birth certificates and transportation. We recognize the necessity of family and that family love is a vocation. St Brendan Parish has been a great ally to JOIN. We are grateful for your generosity in previous years through your Ash Wednesday collection. On behalf of all of us here at JOIN, and from the neighbors we serve, thank you for all you do through your ministries that serve our brothers and sisters. THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sir 15:15-20 | 1 Cor 2:6-10 | Mt 5:17-37

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Just the other day some of my friends agreed on a new way to approach the new year: Select one word, a kind of mantra for 2023. Ironically, even though I am indecisive to a fault, I had no trouble deciding on mine: "Choose." I often get stuck, whether it's deciding which online clothing purchases to return, what to order on the menu ... and don't get me started on major life decisions. Today's reading from Sirach reminds us of the choice that matters most: If we choose to keep the commandments, they will save us. "Before man are life and death, good and evil, whichever he chooses shall be given him." We are well into 2023, but it bears reminding that each day we have an opportunity to choose anew: To follow God's law, fulfilled in the words and example of Jesus. He will show us the way. "If you trust in God, you too shall live."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

We've probably all heard the term "quiet quitting" by now. It's a workplace phenomenon where employees do the bare minimum rather than going above and beyond. I thought of that phrase when reading Matthew's Gospel today. How many of us Christians have "quietly quit," doing the minimum required - going to Mass on Sunday, being faithful to our spouse, not resorting to violence when we get angry with someone. Jesus challenges us to go above and beyond the Ten Commandments. You shall not kill, but you should not stay angry either. You shall not commit adultery, but you shall also love your spouse with your whole heart. Today's readings challenge us to rediscover God's law and challenge ourselves to go "above and beyond" in our daily lives.

PRAY Pray today's psalm (119): "Blessed are they who follow the law of the Lord!" How might you specifically follow the law of the Lord just a little bit better, or above and beyond, today? Each day?

"Blessed are they who follow the law of the Lord!"
