GOOD and GROWING need

Dcn.
MICHAEL HAEMMERLE

OUR PRAYERS ARE ANSWERED

At the time of his ordination as Bishop of Columbus, Most Reverend Earl K. Fernandes announced a focus on religious formation and vocations. That year, there were no seminarians ordained to the priesthood in our diocese. The bishop called upon each of us to earnestly pray for more young men to discern the religious life. It should be a natural response to be overjoyed learning that God has emphatically answered our prayers. We are experiencing a good and growing need to support the 16 young men who have entered the seminary within the past year — each of them, an answer to our prayers. It costs $55,000 per year to educate, form, and foster the basic needs of a single seminarian. The Diocese of Columbus is asking all Catholics to assist with this immediate, but inspiring financial need that could impact Catholicism in Central Ohio for decades to come. There will be a second collection at all Masses next weekend, or you can give online to the right:

SEEKING HOSTS FOR COFFEE & DONUTS

The Inviting Catholics Home/Welcoming Ministries will now begin overseeing Coffee & Donuts, and need your help! Coffee & Donuts is on hold for now but will start up again in April. Only 18 spots are available for Coffee & Donuts this year (first and third Sundays of each month), so don't wait to pick a date to host! We're looking for school families, classes, groups or ministries to help out and to foster fellowship after Mass – whether that's someone to pick up the donuts/coffee, set up/clean up the Davidson Road Meeting Rooms after the 8:45 & 10:45 AM Masses or simply greet parishioners. Kids can help, too! If no one steps up to host, we will not have Coffee & Donuts. Our larger parish groups/ministries are highly encouraged to sign up. To make a commitment, contact Janet Walsh at jlwalsh1@gmail.com

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION TESTIMONIALS

As we offer more and more hours to adore our Lord, we see more and more come to visit Jesus regularly, moved by the time with Him, and bringing others to Him. Let their testimonies encourage you to spend some time with Jesus this Lent.

"I look forward to spending an hour adoring our Lord. It's a special, meaningful time and closeness. It has really become a part of me I do not want to give up or give to anyone else in my life!"

"As a Catholic, I receive the body and blood, soul and divinity of our Lord each time I go to Communion. Going to Adoration, I'm able to spend time praying, talking and more importantly, listening to Him."

"Adoration time with Jesus is a special chance to be in a place without distractions. A time to worship, adore God and express my gratitude for all the blessings He showers on our family. It is also a time to ask Mother Mary to pray for me a greater love for Jesus my savior, my God of light and truth and God of grace. With the help of the Holy Spirit, my prayer time has flourished and I am mindful to be patient with everyone and everything in my life."

"Back in the day when I was young and dating, I remember staying up until the wee hours of the night just talking with a new love interest. There was so much to learn about this person that I felt like I was wading into an ocean. It was exciting, invigorating, and magical. I remember thinking that I should say good night and go home, but I did not want to let go of the connection I felt. Nowadays, I relive those same feelings when I spend time in overnight Adoration on First Fridays. Jesus and I spend time talking and just being in each other's company. I wade into His ocean (how wide and long and high and deep) to learn more about Him - He knows everything there is to know about me already. Our Faith is so rich and beautiful that it would take lifetimes to fully explore Him."
