GOOD and GROWING need

Dcn.
MICHAEL HAEMMERLE

OUR PRAYERS ARE ANSWERED

SECOND COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND TO SUPPORT OUR SEMINARIANS

Bishop Earl K. Fernandes had called upon each of us to pray for more young men to discern the religious life and we are overjoyed that God has answered our prayers! We are now experiencing a good and growing need to support the 16 young men who have entered the seminary this past year. It costs $55,000 per year to educate, form, and foster a single seminarian. The Diocese of Columbus is asking all Catholics to assist with this immediate financial need. There will be a second collection at all Masses this weekend. We thank God for this bountiful gift and we thank you for your prayers and generosity! A MESSAGE FROM MAGGIE AGRA

"So, what are you doing for Lent?"

When I was at the small Catholic college known as Franciscan University, that was one of the most common questions in February. Although a perfectly normal question, something about it didn't sit quite right with me. And then I realized what it was – it was the mentality of "doing." We're so constantly worried about our to-do lists, or whatever event we have to get to next, that Lent can turn into just another checkbox. And it's true that we are all busy, whether it be with work, family, or school responsibilities. However, this Lent I want to challenge you to move from a mentality of "doing" to one of "being" and simply making space for God to come in. But how do we do that, when we still have so many responsibilities?

It is first necessary to recognize that even if we don't check off all the boxes on our lists, we are still made good. Our worth and view of ourselves shouldn't be placed in how much we accomplish. God has a deep, unconditional love for us, and it is not dependent on our achievements. If you feel like you have to earn God's love, then you should begin by recognizing that He already loves you, even if you haven't done a single thing.

It is true, however, that the Christian life requires sacrifice. We may not, and probably won't, be able to have our preferences 100% of the time. In other words, getting our to-do lists done, whether in Lent or otherwise, shouldn't be our top priority. In order to be more intentional this Lent, there will be a need to reorganize what is important in our lives.

But, even amidst our schedules and responsibilities, we can be creative with the time we offer God. Instead of scrolling through social media, or checking emails while we wait in the car, what if we prayed a decade of the Rosary, or looked at the Mass readings of the day? What if while we were cooking dinner, we asked the Holy Spirit to make our hearts more receptive to Him?

Ultimately, it all comes back to having a relationship with God. The more we cultivate friendship with Him, the more we will actually want to spend time with Him! Lent doesn't have to be about "doing more." It can simply be a time to reevaluate where we are, and how we can encounter God in the day-to-day.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION TESTIMONIALS

As we offer more and more hours to adore our Lord, we see more and more come to visit Jesus regularly, moved by the time with Him, and bringing others to Him. Let their testimonies encourage you to spend some time with Jesus this Lent.

"In the days before, when I'm at work and even home, I can't wait for my Adoration time. Our church isn't empty, it truly has Jesus there physically! I ask that you just stop by and feel the love, peace and quiet that is in the chapel. "

"Jesus calls all of us to come away with Him. Being in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament amplifies my prayer life. I find peace, refreshment, and inspiration there. He thirsts for you. He cherishes YOU. I pray that you will answer when He knocks on the door to your heart and whispers, 'Come away with Me.'"

"I was unfamiliar with having a regular Holy Hour – it wasn't something common growing up. It took me a while even when we started here to see the need and the value. I had experienced Adoration with music and testimony and that was powerful, but something in me also craved the silence. I started visiting the chapel and noticed that this was one place where I could really rest. I could turn off the outside noises and pressures and just sit. Sometimes I do nothing but close my eyes and breathe, listening for His voice. Sometimes I write, pray the Rosary, pray for others, ask Him to give me something I need to go out there. Slowly, the sporadic hour became regular, weekly or more. I find I need that time and no other time provides the same refreshment and peace as this does. So now I'm a regular. It's hard to just tell someone why to go to weekly Adoration – you have to experience it, grow in it, realize that there is more for you there so you need to keep coming back. I pray that people at least try – that's all Jesus needs from us. "

Second Sunday of Lent

Gn 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18 | Rom 8:31b-34 | Mk 9:2-10

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Just two weeks ago, when Christians walked around all day with a cross of ashes on our foreheads, we may have received puzzled looks. Who bothers with fasting and almsgiving for 40 whole days? Many of us live with great abundance in this country; the only time we actually need to fast might be for lab work. With this in mind, it's helpful to remember the why: because Christ sacrificed himself for us, and he calls his followers to participate in his redemptive mission through our own sacrifices. Without sacrifice, we simply cannot be like Christ, nor will we see our own transfiguration in the resurrection to come. So Lent is a blessed season of reorienting our lives to Christian sacrifice: that of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Perhaps this season can also dispel some of the complacency that has a tendency to creep into our lives. The poor and hungry and disenfranchised still exist, and Christ depends on us to be his hands and feet to serve them. But how can we serve them if we do not embrace Christ's example as a living sacrifice? Ask the Lord for the grace to see and hear what he is asking us to do for him.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Today's readings show an incredible arc from Abraham's willingness to sacrifice his son for God to Christ's Transfiguration after his Passion. Without Abraham's willingness to give up that which he wanted most and finally obtained, he would not have earned his greatest blessing from God in having countless descendants; and without Christ's sacrifice on the cross, all of mankind would not have been saved. Maybe we aren't called to great sacrifices such as these in our own lives, but we as Christians are called to offer our lives as a living sacrifice to our family, our neighbor, those in need, and God himself. Lent is a reminder not only to help us reorient our lives to God and his call for our lives, but to live it, too. By our own witness and prayer we have the ability to help bring others to the Lord and his promise of eternal life.

ACCOMPANY What is something you have always appreciated being done for you? What is a specific sacrifice, large or small, that you know has been made on your behalf? Make an effort this week to identify a specific need you know someone has, pray for that person/need, and offer to God a sacrifice of treasure, time or even your suffering for the fulfillment of that need.
