3-DAY PARISH MISSION

This Week! March 4-6 at 7 PM in the Church

It is the third Sunday of Lent and sometimes this means we can feel like we have hit a plateau in our journey. Prayer may have slacked a bit, fasting a little more challenging, and we may be still trying to find a way to give alms. Here's the good news about plateaus: they are higher ground and the perfect way to survey the landscape to find opportunities to refresh and deepen our experience.

Enter in the parish mission this week. The timing is right to seek the Lord through three very different experiences, to come and see what He has to say to us, so we may take His words into our hearts and then into action for the rest of Lent and beyond.

Each night begins at 7 PM and will be in the church. There is no cost, no RSVP, no homework, nothing needed. Just you, your family, your friends. Each event is open to all ages and all places on the faith journey.

LISTEN – Monday – We welcome Monsignor Frank Lane, who is well known in our diocese as a gifted speaker among his long history of service in many roles, including pastor and seminary Vice Rector. Msgr Lane will speak to us about the power of the Eucharist to give us a gift that is beyond our wildest imaginations. At the same time we receive that gift, we also give thanks to God for that gift with a response that will spur us to action. This Revival year we are dedicated to know and love Jesus more, and then serve Him. Msgr's talk will give us the knowledge and motivation to do so.

ADORE – Tuesday – The Vigil Project is a nationally-known group making its way across the country with their True Presence Nights. You may have heard this musical group on Hallow – currently in the Lenten Playlist – or through their YouTube channel. We are blessed to host them as we sing, pray, listen to testimony, and are immersed in God's love for us through the Blessed Sacrament in Adoration. Our school children will be present for a mini mission during their day and you do not want to miss this opportunity to just be in the true presence of Jesus that night. Confessions will also be available and a reception to meet the group will be held afterward.

LEARN – Wednesday – For the first time, Father Bob and Father Jacob are teaming up to provide a teaching Mass! This is an actual Mass (so it counts) that stops and starts to give commentary on the WHY behind what we say and do what we do as we worship. This is one of those opportunities that will change your Mass attendance into Mass engagement! Come and see what you've been missing and get ready for your worship life to change!

We can't wait to see you!!

If so, please call or share the phone number with them for the Society of St Vincent de Paul (614-221-3554) so that together, we can be a sign of God's love to the suffering and poor.

HOW DO I MAKE A HOLY HOUR?

Excerpt from Jesus Make Me Fully Alive: 30 Holy Hour Reflections by Fr Tim Anastos

When it comes to prayer in general, the first and most important thing you have to do is show up. Then the Lord, who is always present, will never stop loving you. Remember, this is your relationship with Jesus! There will be Holy Hours that suck because you’re distracted or you can’t hear the Lord Speak to you and there will be incredible Holy Hours that will rock your socks and open up a whole new part of your heart. All you need to do is show up.

Wherever you are in your journey with Christ, don’t be afraid. The Holy Hour is supposed to be not intimidating but rather completely normal and for everyone. We make a Holy Hour any time we intentionally spend time with Jesus in His Eucharistic presence. That’s it!

Did you know that Jesus desires to spend time with you? It’s true! Just like any relationship or friendship that we have in our lives, we need to spend time to grow in relationship, love, knowledge, and trust. Imagine if you hung out with your best friend for an hour or less on Sunday and then ghosted them for the rest of the week until the following Sunday. That would be pretty unhealthy! In the same way, if we spend one hour on Sunday at Mass and then ghost Jesus for the rest of the week...that’s not much of a relationship. So the Church, in its wisdom, encourages us to intentionally spend time with Jesus, who is waiting for us in the tabernacle.

We will break this down in our next column...

TRAVELING VOCATIONS CRUCIFIX

Sign up for a week (up until April 21) with our Traveling Vocations Crucifix via the QR code or at <https://stbrendan.ccbchurch.com/goto/needs/public> to promote religious vocations. After your week ends, bring it back to the marked cabinet in the Adoration Chapel by 10:45 AM (the following Sunday) for the next family to retrieve.

SEEKING HOSTS FOR COFFEE & DONUTS

The Inviting Catholics Home/Welcome Ministries will begin overseeing Coffee & Donuts, and need your help! Coffee & Donuts is on hold until April. Only 18 spots are available this year (first and third Sundays of each month), so don't wait to pick a date to host! We're looking for families, classes, groups or ministries to help out and to foster fellowship after Mass – by setting up or cleaning up the Davidson Road Meeting Rooms after the 8:45 & 10:45 AM Masses or to simply greet parishioners. Kids can help, too! To make a commitment, contact Janet Walsh at jlwalsh1@gmail.com

Third Sunday of Lent

Ex 20:1-17 | 1 Cor 1:22-25 | Jn 2:13-25

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

When I was a kid, my older siblings used to tell me what to do (no surprise there!) and often backed up their, ahem, “commands,” by saying, “Mom and Dad said so.” Interestingly, sometimes that statement was not true (!), and I would get the right information - what to do and the correct way to do it - directly from my parents. My experience is not unlike that of the Israelites in today’s first reading. As they escaped from bondage in Egypt and followed the Lord through the guidance of Moses, they developed their own ways of doing things, listened to the wrong people and acted as if they were indeed conveying truth. But the Lord steps in to correct them, and in “a direct, unmediated communication” of truth to them, gives them commandments to follow. (USCCB commentary) These instructions for how to live a moral life in relationship with God and with one another are the basis of the covenant they made there with the Lord. They are the foundation of the new covenant in which we partake through Jesus Christ, who came into our history as the perfect, unmediated communication of God.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

How do you envision Jesus? It’s easy to think of him as kind and easy-going - the type of person who never lets his feathers get ruffled, no matter how many times the Pharisees question and challenge him. However, we see a different side of Jesus today - one in which he is flipping over tables and brandishing a whip. He is driving out those who are using his Father’s house as a place to make money rather than as a place to worship. In the drama of that scene, let’s not overlook what comes next in the reading. The people there at the temple, obviously taken aback by what they have seen, ask for a sign to justify what authority Jesus has to drive people out of the temple. Jesus says, “Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up.” That confused people then, but we know today that the true temple is Jesus and that his rising from the dead would be the sign they sought. Just as the commandments of God have authority, so does Jesus who came as perfect obedience to those commandments to help us follow them ourselves.

PRAY It’s easy for us to think we’re doing a good job keeping the Lord’s commandments, but at the same time the line between right and wrong can seem blurred at times and we may relax a bit on some of their finer points. Try this week to dig deep within ourselves and turn to prayer for the strength to do what is right, seeking the wisdom of God rather than relying on human wisdom.
