A MESSAGE FROM JENNIFER RICE

How is your Easter going? Has anyone ever asked you that question? We check in during Lent – 40 days of fasting, prayer and almsgiving. We usually have a solid plan for our Lent, living it daily with a good grasp of what we are supposed to do and why. But what about Easter? We are blessed with 50 days of joy, peace, and living the Resurrection. Do we have a plan for this season?

In Risen: 50 Ways to Live Easter from Blessed Is She, the introduction tells us that “Easter’s joy can be hard to live long and well. What’s more, we don’t have the same concrete, communal traditions of living out Easter in contrast to Lent’s practices.” So, instead of soaking up this season for what it is made for, we may act like it’s already Ordinary Time. With four more weeks left of the Easter season, we can still intentionally live this season of feasting! Here are some suggestions to try:

DIVE INTO SCRIPTURE: The daily readings bring Easter alive for us. First, we have the Acts of the Apostles as our first reading most days. Here we follow along with what happens after the Resurrection. Reading through Acts on your own is a powerful way to know the story of the early Church and witness the apostles’ joy and trials. Also, go back and read the different Resurrection and post-Resurrection accounts in the Gospels (especially in Luke and John). Use imaginative prayer to put yourself into these stories. Hear Jesus call you by name, witness His breaking of the bread on the Road to Emmaus and at breakfast at the shore.

LOOK FOR ALLELUIA MOMENTS: Alleluia literally means “Praise the Lord!” We can easily get caught up in our days and to-do lists and miss tiny Alleluia moments to praise and thank God. How would your day or Easter be different if you had your eyes opened like the Apostles to the presence of the Lord before you – even in the smallest moments. The simplest is to look for Him in creation – catch a sunrise, take a walk in a park. The practical is to find Him in your daily tasks of caring for children, cleaning your kitchen, working at your job. Praise the Lord for the gifts He bestows each day.

PRAY DIFFERENTLY: With the Resurrection and Jesus’ promises to us, we should be intentionally praying as people who trust that God is going to provide for us in whatever way is best for us. We have proof of His Resurrection and what it means for our eternal life. We know He is faithful. And, most of all, His sacrifice on the cross tells us He will do anything for us because He loves us beyond imagination. In response to this, try prayers that trust. The Litany of Trust, the Surrender Novena prayers, even the Our Father contains affirmations of trust – hallowed be thy name, thy will be done, give us this day our daily bread... Pray boldly!

BE A DISCIPLE WHO KNOWS THE STORY: Because we know the story, we are to live like people of the Resurrection, to bring the Gospel to others. It means loving as He taught us, forgiving others, and living our lives joyfully in our families, at work, at the grocery store, in traffic and at that PTO meeting. Make an extra effort this season to intentionally live with joy and let that shine through in your interactions.

Happy remaining four weeks of Easter, dear friends! ~ Jen Rice

ST BRENDAN WOMEN'S EVENT – MAY 16

Join us Thursday, May 16, 6:30-8:30 PM for a special May Crowning women's event. Our Blessed Mother Mary was the first to gaze at the beauty of her son, the newborn Jesus and the first to feel His heartbeat. If we look at the relationship of our Mother Mary and Jesus, we learn to love HIM and trust that God's Word will be fulfilled. Come for a night of fellowship with other women of faith and be inspired by a traditional May Crowning, heartfelt talk from Fr Jacob Stinnett, and make connections to ignite your belief that nothing is impossible with God. Doors open 6 PM to enjoy a lite meal with refreshments. Kindly bring diapers (larger sizes really needed), wipes, and bibs for a donation to Mommies Matter as we serve those in need. RSVP at www.stbrendans.net/womens-groups or for questions, contact Karen Potondi at potondi.ka@gmail.com

COME ADORE WITH US!

REST, RESTORE, REVIVE, RENEW. PEACE.

So many blessings are available to you when you spend some time with Jesus in Adoration. Sometimes you just need an environment of stillness to sit and pray. What is stopping you from walking through those doors and staying awhile?

Adoration at St Brendan is accessible. We have hours Monday through Saturday to fit your schedule for morning, lunchtime, or 9 PM. There is a kiosk to check in whether you already scheduled a visit, are filling in for someone, or just want to spend some time spontaneously. Each adorer that checks in helps our team to continue its mission to have Jesus waiting and ready for you. If you want to commit to a regular hour, our program stbrendansweadorehim.com lets you choose a time that works for you. Should you be unable to make it, you can even request a substitute through the program.

The chapel has lots of resources to help you in your time there: rosaries, Bibles, and books. Feel free to bring your ear buds and play Hallow or another prayer app on your phone. Just stay in a quiet, prayerful place while you are with us.

Our prayer is that our parishioners and guests have continued access to Jesus to adore, pray, give thanks, and just be comforted in His presence. If you have any questions about Eucharistic Adoration, please reach out to Jan at jansampson@me.com

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Acts 4:8-12 | 1 Jn 3:1-2 | Jn 10:11-18

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Several years ago I went to a shopping mall with my six-year-old son, and I could tell he was overwhelmed by the fast-moving crowds; he stuck close to my side. Not long into our trip, he turned a corner and, suddenly, his face lit up. He pointed at a young boy ahead. "That's James! I know him! He's in my class!" he exclaimed, and ran up to talk to him. Out of the sea of strangers was someone he knew, and who knew him. That changed the whole experience for him. Today's readings are all about that kind of knowing. In the Gospel Jesus tells us that, like a good shepherd, he knows his flock and they know him. How comforting it is to know that Jesus not only knows each one of us, but he willingly chose to lay down his life for each one of us as the ultimate sacrifice of love. But how do we get to know our Good Shepherd better? By immersing ourselves in Scripture and prayer and seeking a personal relationship with him. If we stay close to the Lord, we'll know his voice when we hear it – in the quiet of our prayer, in the everyday promptings of the Spirit in our decision-making, and even, in the midst of all the noise, as the calming and guiding voice leading us along the right path.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Being known is one of the most fundamental human and spiritual needs. When my son recognized his friend, he also instinctively recognized – without being able to articulate it – this need, in the midst of the anonymity of the mall. And his reaction was so pure: "I know him, and he knows me!" But he didn't leave it at that; he went to engage with his friend. He encountered his friend. This is what Christ desires for, and with us – not just to know us, to simply recognize us from afar, but for us to want to encounter him! We are meant to be in community; Jesus is always here for us: in the Church, in the sacraments, in Scriptures and in our hearts.

PRAY Spending time in prayer and reading the Scriptures are essential in order to get to know the voice of Jesus. Read the Gospels this week, even a chapter a day, and contemplate what passages stand out for you. Pray about it at Mass. The Scriptures and the sacraments are how Jesus speaks to us, like a good shepherd speaks to his flock so the sheep will know his voice and follow it.

AROUND OUR DIOCESE
