A MESSAGE FROM KARA DAY

Happy Divine Mercy Sunday!
And Happy Easter! (Yes, it's still Easter.)

St Faustina's "Divine Mercy Image" that you may be familiar with (to the left) has been a steadfast part of my prayer for many years now. Particularly the inscription often seen at the bottom of the image that reads "Jesus, I trust in you." It is a simple, short phrase that has found its way into my vocabulary and has become my knee-jerk reaction to almost every situation in my life. When facing disappointment, Jesus, I trust in you. When something doesn't go my way, Jesus, I trust in you. When experiencing fear or worry, Jesus, I trust in you. When I'm hopeful for the future, Jesus, I trust in you. When going about my daily tasks, Jesus, I trust in you.

I start every morning with this declaration of trust. I know that from Jesus' side is the never ending fount of mercy gushing forth for me. This fount of mercy is present to me at every moment and empowers me to live my life as a missionary disciple.

This Easter season, I encourage you to adopt a simple, short prayer that you can have in your back pocket to pray throughout your day as situations arise. What does God want you to recall consistently throughout your day? Examples of some that have blessed my life:

"Take captive every thought and make it obedient to Christ. "

"May it be done unto me according to Thy word."

"Jesus, I trust in you."

"Come, Holy Spirit."

I pray that a simple prayer that you can quickly bring to the forefront of your mind is able to transform your life and allow you to live the abundant life that this Easter season is all about! May we be drawn closer into His merciful love! ~ Kara

O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fountain of Mercy for us, I trust in You!

DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET SERVICE, 3-5 PM

Join us for Adoration and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy (led by the Dominican Sisters of the Immaculate Conception) in the Church this Sunday, April 7 at 3 PM, followed by Confession until 5 PM.

PRAYERS AFTER COMMUNION

What do you do after receiving Communion? We know it is a time of prayer, but we can easily be distracted by what is going on around us. One suggestion is to pray something already established, either reading it from a little card or working to memorize it. This deepens our time with the Lord who has just entered in and gives Him the time and space to work within us. Each week, we will suggest a prayer or two to try after Communion.

In St Thomas Aquinas' prayer after Communion, we feel his ardent desire for the soul-cleansing power of the Eucharist. He once said that "in this Sacrament sins are purged away, strength renewed, and the mind fortified with generous spiritual gifts."

I thank You, Lord, Almighty Father, Everlasting God, for having been pleased, through no merit of mine, but of Your great mercy alone, to feed me, a sinner, and Your unworthy servant, with the precious Body and Blood of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. I pray that this Holy Communion may not be for my judgment and condemnation, but for my pardon and salvation. Let this Holy Communion be to me an armor of faith and a shield of good will, a cleansing of all vices, and a rooting out of all evil desires. May it increase love and patience, humility and obedience, and all virtues. May it be a firm defense against the evil designs of all my visible and invisible enemies, a perfect quieting of all the desires of soul and body. May this Holy Communion bring about a perfect union with You, the one true God, and at last enable me to reach eternal bliss when You will call me. I pray that You bring me, a sinner, to the indescribable Feast where You, with Your Son and the Holy Spirit, are to Your saints true light, full blessedness, everlasting joy, and perfect happiness. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Second Sunday of Easter Sunday of Divine Mercy

Acts 4:32-35 | 1 Jn 5:1-6 | Jn 20:19-31

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

We tend to beat up St. Thomas for his doubt, when what is really most amazing in the scene from today's Gospel is his understanding, and the first public pronouncement of, Jesus Christ's divinity. He gets it. And he proclaims it without hesitation: "My Lord and my God." I think about what Thomas' face might have looked like at that moment, and I imagine a countenance of conviction alongside humility - joyful tears in the eyes that reflect awe and wonder. The truth behind his realization and understanding is that God is faithful, God is loving, God is merciful. Of course, knowing that with our heart and mind needs to be translated into doing with our every action. The early Christian communities seemed to have lived this well, happily sharing their possessions and selling what they didn't need. Not because they had been forced to, but because the "commandments [were] not burden-some" for those who loved God. God loved us first, and by his grace, and his mercy, we are commanded and empowered to love one another.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

God is merciful - Divine Mercy. And that is what we celebrate today, in addition to the second Sunday of Easter. The first Divine Mercy Sunday observance occurred in the year 2000, when St. John Paul II canonized Sister Maria Faustina Kowalska. The Polish sister received private revelations from the Lord about his great mercy in the 1930s, and she outlined these in a diary she kept at the instruction of her confessors. A passage from her diary says: "The graces of my mercy are drawn by means of one vessel only, and that is - trust. The more a soul trusts, the more it will receive." (1578) The apostles in today's passage told Thomas that they had seen the Lord - the resurrected Lord. They trusted that Jesus' messages to them were true and that they indeed need not fear. The message of Divine Mercy should like-wise comfort us and also provide a model for our actions. In the same way the apostles helped Thomas to trust and come to deep knowledge and understanding, let us strive to be "of one heart and mind" with our fellow disciples and love them as we have been loved by God.

PRAY The words of St. Faustina's diary have been used to create the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. This prayer is said using a rosary, but with some differences in the prayers. Once you know the words, the chaplet is a simple prayer to recite, and it is traditionally said at 3 PM in remembrance of Jesus' merciful act of dying on the cross for us. If you have never recited the chaplet, try praying it this week.

ST BRENDAN ATHLETICS SCHOLARSHIP

The St Brendan Athletic Association has established two scholarships in the amount of $750 each to be awarded to one male and one female student to aid them in furthering their education at a Catholic high school. 8th grade students who are a member of St Brendan Parish and have participated in a sport offered by the St Brendan Athletic Association are eligible. Students must be planning to attend a Catholic high school in the Columbus Diocese in the fall of 2024. Deadline to apply is May 3, 2024. Applicants must complete an essay and fill out the form available at www.stbrendans.net/athletics
