SUMMER ADORERS NEEDED

Our commitment to adore Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament does not take a summer break. 54 hours a week are spent in prayer in our Chapel. What if you took a moment to do the same? How would that change your life? Our parish Eucharistic year began on June 11, so now is the perfect time to be our guest for 15 minutes in the Chapel and grow to commit to an hour. You are needed as part of the great Body of Christ to pray and let that prayer change our world. Sign up at stbrendan.weadorehim.com

IMPORTANT: Beginning June 20, to increase safety when campus doors are locked after 6 PM, all adorers will need the PIN code to enter the building. Adorers must be registered on the stbrendan.weadorehim.com site to receive a code. The keypad is on the far right side of the doors labeled A2. (A2 doors are located near the statue.) As always, you are encouraged to sign up for a time to adore!

FIRST FRIDAY PERPETUAL ADORATION

Join us to adore our Lord at our First Friday Perpetual Adoration on July 7. Experiencing Jesus in Adoration is one powerful way we can deepen our understanding and devotion to Him in the Eucharist this year. Join us from 8 AM Friday, July 7 through 1 PM on Saturday, July 8. Please sign up through stbrendans.weadorehim.com. You must be a registered adorer on the site and sign up to receive the code to access the building after hours. Please contribute to making our first try of perpetual Adoration a success!

MESSAGE FROM BEN ROMAKER

Greetings, parishioners and visitors to St Brendan. It has been an industrious several months as we navigate the diverse needs of a thriving parish and school. I've been delighted to meet so many new faces, and to serve God with nearly every gift He's bestowed upon me. Between my time split here and at St Margaret, my cup has run over with the warm tidings and support from my new faith families. From rural roots, I moved here almost a year ago to the day and have strived to match the pace and zeal of this amazing parish in my new backyard.

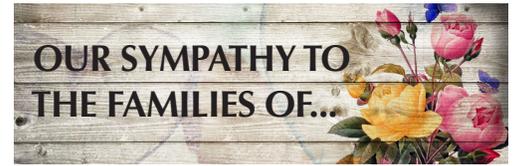

Though I spend some workdays buried in spreadsheets or litigious letters, I'm afforded plenty of creative outlets. One such project, and a personal favorite, was designing medallions for our altar servers at Fr Bob's request. You could say the design brief was very concise: "design medallions for our altar servers," ...so the world was my proverbial oyster. My first iteration was deemed the perfect iteration. Fully bedecked in symbolism and intention, allow me to introduce what I named Saint Brendan's Compass...

The outer edge features a nautical rope and compass with the 4 cardinal and ordinal directions. A central cross shape includes a smaller Celtic cross as well as the trinity knot. Finally, four shields bearing the Celtic symbol of water complete the piece. Fr Bob has injected special significance into the ribbons as well, with 3 different color-ways denoting experience, level and responsibilities. Acolytes that rise through the ranks to bear the gold ribbon will be awarded their own medallion to keep.

FAMILY FAITH FORMATION & SACRAMENT PREPARATION

For 2023-24, Family Faith Formation at St Brendan will begin to offer three different pathways for families. Each family will be involved in one of the following:

SEEK & ROOT - If you are new to family faith formation, you will join the Seek & Root pathway. These families meet on Monday night at church 10 times throughout the year - twice a month in September and October, and once a month November-April.

SACRAMENT PREPARATION - Families returning to family faith formation and preparing one (or more!) of their children for a sacrament this year will meet on a Monday night five times throughout the year, in addition to sacramental celebrations. These family sessions run from October-March.

CONTINUED GROWTH - Families returning to family faith formation who are not preparing any children for a sacrament are part of the continued growth pathway, which meets on a Sunday morning or evening, OR Monday night 8 times from September-April.

Each of these pathways needs volunteers, too! We need catechists, aides, middle school small group leaders, and parent small group leaders. Please reach out if you have a heart for families and can help!

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jer 20:10-13 | Rom 5:12-15 | Mt 10:26-33

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

When I was in middle school, I came upon a group of students who had singled out another student, accusing her of some pretty rotten things. The Lord must have helped me to be brave that day because I decided to step in and defend her. Thankfully, calling them out on their cruelty was enough to fend them off. Thank God for his presence and aid in that moment! In the first reading today, Jeremiah tells of his experience of being betrayed and accused: "All those who were my friends are on the watch for any misstep of mine. 'Perhaps he will be trapped [they say]; then we can prevail, and take our vengeance on him.'" But Jeremiah does not lose heart, saying also, "the Lord is with me, like a mighty champion." And Jesus' words in the Gospel echo the resolve of Jeremiah when he says: "Fear no one ... What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light ... And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul." It seems pretty clear, then, that our job is to bring the Good News of Jesus into the world whenever we can and let his light shine forth by our words and actions. We are commissioned to be warriors for Christ who should not fear injury but rather call upon him in our need and trust in his goodness and mercy to render aid.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Stepping into a conflict or situation can be difficult. But we are not meant to do it alone. Yes, we are called to proclaim the Word of God at every opportunity – to let "zeal" for our Father's house consume us, as we heard in the psalm. And the task at hand may seem a daunting one – until we focus on the second part of the Gospel and soak in the depth of the love Jesus has for each of his children. Matthew writes: "Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted." We are not alone as we do the work of the Father; rather, we are known and loved by him and strengthened by the Advocate, the Holy Spirit. We can feel emboldened by this as we pursue the everlasting gift of heaven.

ENGAGE This world often tells us to do what makes us happy. Let's challenge ourselves to, instead, do what makes us holy, as we keep our eyes fixed on the path to eternity.
