SPEND AN HOUR WITH JESUS!

A regular commitment to a Holy Hour is a game changer for your life. Seeking peace, patience, rest? Need intercession for someone in need or yourself? Have gratitude for the good in your life? Why not take all of these to the Lord in prayer? Sign up for an hour today and see the difference He makes!

A FAREWELL MESSAGE FROM FATHER BOB

Dear Parish Family

I want to thank everyone who came to greet me and say farewell last weekend. Your love and prayers mean a great deal to me, and it was wonderful to be able to take a few minutes with each of you. I also want to thank everyone who has sent me messages, and given me cards, gifts, and messages of prayerful support. Your kindness has been overwhelming and I am deeply grateful to all of you.

Though I am sad to leave, I am also filled with confidence and hope for your mission here to proclaim Christ and serve Him. St Brendan's is now known as a powerhouse throughout the diocese, and a model for many of its activities and ministries. From our vibrant youth groups to our active Knights and seniors we can help anyone who joins us to quickly feel at home. Never lose that zeal or that commitment to excellence as you serve the Lord!

My final thank-you must be to my wonderful staff. Team, it has been a huge blessing to serve with you in the Vineyard. Your love of our community and commitment to it has been outstanding. Thank you for effectively making me look good through your gifts and talents. I know that Fr Dooley is in good hands!

As you know, I am prone to quote St Teresa of Calcutta regularly. 😊 Her simple, yet profound, wisdom inspires me every day. She reminds us, as do so many of the saints, to not overthink our lives of faith but simply to do that which the Lord puts in front of us and not shirk from the tasks we must do for the Kingdom. So, to quote her again:

Yesterday is gone, tomorrow has not yet come, we have only today. Let us begin!

God bless and much love,

Fr Bob

THANK YOU, FATHER BOB... FOR OUR GIFT OF ADORATION

Those of you who have been here only the last few years have never known our campus to not have a chapel or Adoration, but if you have been here any longer, you know what a new development this is in our parish.

In previous years, the church was open for prayer most of the time. You could drop by and sit with Jesus in the tabernacle or by one of the statues to ponder and pray. The Rosary was said after daily Mass. But it was not a place where you would see a regular entrance and exit of people in prayer as part of their daily routine.

Fr Bob began a Holy Hour in the church in an effort to begin a practice here. The Wednesday hour went from silent to having music, to Anchored in Adoration once a month with a witness speaker and prayer teams. The numbers who attended grew and the hunger for more encounter time with Jesus was evident.

There was no question when plans for the ONE expansion were underway that an Adoration chapel was an essential piece of where we needed to go as a parish – closer to Jesus. Those parishes with Adoration chapels and scheduled Holy Hours see incredible fruit borne – from a deepening in or return to faith, increased Mass attendance, and an increased sense of reverence and mission. Our parish has been no exception. We thrive and this life flows from the Eucharist.

What started with an hour a week has blossomed into 58 regular hours and First Friday overnight Adoration for a year now. We have 441 registered adorers. Father Bob has encouraged and supported this culture of the Eucharist throughout his time here. Because of his vision, we can only move closer to perpetual Adoration here at St Brendan and closer to Jesus.

Thank you, Father.

July 7, 2024

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ez 2:2-5 | 2 Cor 12:7-10 | Mk 6:1-6

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

The prophets of the Old Testament didn't exactly have it easy, and Ezekiel is no exception. The Lord tells him that he's being sent to the Israelites, calling them "rebels who have rebelled against me," who were "hard of face and obstinate of heart." In other words, God basically tells him that they will be a tough audience. Can you imagine how Ezekiel felt? Here, he is being dispatched to a people who will likely not welcome him in order to say things that probably no one will want to hear. And yet his work is crucial. God is sending his people a messenger, telling them he stills loves them and wants them to be his people. It should come as no surprise that we are called to do the same! Although we may not describe the people in our lives as obstinate or "a rebellious house," we know it's not always easy to share God's message. It matters that we do, though. We may not always know exactly what effects our words and actions have, but everything the Lord asks us to do has a purpose.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Rejection, apathy, complacency. Whatever name you want to give it, it's undeniable that witnessing to Christ in the world can be met with something less than pure enthusiasm. Even Jesus himself faced rejection in his own hometown, as we see in today's Gospel. But did he give up? Obviously, we know that he did not. In fact - in the very next verses of this chapter of Mark's Gospel - Jesus sends the Twelve out on mission. They are to represent him, and witness to him. Likewise, as Jesus' hands and feet in the world today, we are to be imitators of Christ (CCC 1694) and witnesses to his Good News. And, just as Jesus wasn't always welcomed by people, it shouldn't surprise us when something similar happens to us. Like Paul, however, we can be "content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints, for the sake of Christ." And then we can call on him for help, because where we are weak, the Lord is strong. As in all things, his grace is sufficient for us.

ACTION We cannot control others' responses to God's gift of himself, we can only be faithful to our commitment to share it. This week, take time to think about what "thorn in your side" makes your witness difficult. What weakness do you need the Lord to enter into so that His power might prevail?
