A MESSAGE FROM JACOB DORAN

LEARN ABOUT THE BENEFITS OF PARTICIPATING IN OUR FAMILY FAITH FORMATION PROGRAMS!

Hello! I am Jacob Doran, the Director of Youth Evangelization and Catechesis here at St Brendan. My family has been attending St Brendan for over nine years now. You can usually find us at the 8:45 Mass over on the left side. My wife, Alicia, is a Catholic school teacher, and we have three children, Felicity (10), Gabe (9), and Desmond (6). We absolutely love being parishioners here and being part of a "family of families," which is how Pope Francis describes a parish.

Today, I want to invite all families with children attending public school or homeschool in Kindergarten through eighth grade to be a part of Family Faith Formation. The church has perennially taught that parents are the primary educators of their children, both in order and importance. At your child's Baptism, you promised to raise and teach your child the Catholic faith, and the Church pledged her support. Family Faith Formation is the concrete way that St Brendan lives out that pledge.

If your child attends public school or homeschool and you are interested in sacramental preparation for a child's First Reconciliation, Holy Communion, or Confirmation, then you will want to join Family Faith Formation. If your family wants to start or re-start your journey of faith, then you will want to join Family Faith Formation. Finally, if your family desires to go deeper in faith and learn more about what daily Christian living looks like, then you will want to join Family Faith Formation. There is a place for every family in our program, and we earnestly desire your growth in a life of faith and the grace of the Sacraments.

The program starts during the summer months, when we meet and visit with parents or whole families and listen to what family life has been like and where your journey of faith has led you so far. We want to know what your experience of faith and family is so that we can best support what you are already doing in your homes.

Each pathway of formation - Seek & Root, Sacramental Preparation, or Continued Growth, centers around a consistent family time at home for parents to teach about the faith and have conversations with their children. We also bring our families together at the Church as a community throughout the year to learn about our faith as a family of families.

Over the last few years of Family Faith Formation, parents have told me that they love the at-home content, that they have grown in confidence in leading and teaching their families in faith, that they appreciate having intentional time as a family, and that their kids are excited to come to church and talk about the faith or even lead a meal prayer when out at a restaurant!

When we surveyed students, the number one comment was that they loved getting to spend time as a family. The primary element in passing on your Catholic faith is God's grace, which we can receive in the Sacraments and in prayer. Other ways we can support this endeavor are showing our children that faith is important to us, regular religious practices and rituals, and frequent conversations about faith. For older children, having a religious mentor in addition to their parents is also very important.

St Brendan wants to support you and your children in your journey of faith, even if you have been away for a while and are looking to bring your family back to the Church. You can find more information on our webpage, and you can always contact me or Maggie, our Family Faith Formation Coordinator, by phone or email.

Please register your family by Monday, August 19. On that date we will be finalizing our small groups, and our programs begin in September, after Labor Day. We hope to see you then! God bless you.

~Jacob Doran,
Director of Youth Evangelization & Catechesis

ST MONICA PRAYER SERVICE: PRAYING THEM HOME, AUGUST 27

All are invited to the St Monica Prayer Service in the Church on August 27, at 7 PM, to pray for all Catholic families and friends no longer practicing our Faith, for those who are on the edge, and for us to be strengthened to go out on mission and bring them home.

In this third year of Eucharistic Revival, our vision is to pray for and walk alongside others to lead them to Jesus. Learn what persisting in prayer can do through St Monica's example. Be moved by music, Scripture, and testimony, with an opportunity to pray with a prayer team. We will also be praying for the names written on our St Monica Prayer boards, located in the church gathering space by the Welcome Desk. Please add any names you would like to include before the event!

GOING FORTH INTO THE YEAR OF MISSION

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Congress

CARDINAL LUIS TAGLE'S CLOSING HOMILY OF THE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS (PART 1)

Cardinal Luis Tagle gave the closing homily of the Eucharistic Congress. For the next few weeks, we will publish excerpts from that homily. Let's reflect on what it means as a Eucharistic people to truly go on mission.

"The theme of our National Eucharistic Congress is taken from the sixth chapter of the Gospel of St John. In the fullness of time, the Father sent His eternal Word, who became flesh, through the Holy Spirit. He was present among us human beings, as one like us in the flesh, except in sin. The Son sent by the Father came as a life-giving gift, a gift in the human flesh of Jesus, "My flesh for the life of the world," Jesus Himself declares. We should note that Jesus' description of His being sent by the Father is always connected to the gift of His flesh for others, being sent and being a gift.

In the Gospel of John, chapter 6, verse 38, Jesus says, "For I came down from heaven, not to do my will, but the will of the One who sent me." Jesus has a profound consciousness of having been sent, of being on a mission. He also says in John 6: 32, "My Father gives you the true bread from heaven." But what is this bread? He says in verse 35, "I am the bread of life." Jesus is sent to be given by the Father to others, sent to be a gift. He is not sent just to wander around and to enjoy Himself. He is sent to be given. The missionary is a gift. Mission is not just about work, but also about the gift of oneself. Jesus fulfills His mission by giving Himself, His flesh, His presence to others as the Father wills it.

The presence of Jesus in the Eucharist is a gift and the fulfillment of His mission. This is my body for you, my blood for you. Always for you, for all. Never for me, for you, for all. When Jesus' mission and gift of self meet, the Eucharist is a privileged moment to experience Jesus' mission as a gift of Himself.

Dear friends, it occurred to me that where there is a lack or a weakening of missionary zeal, maybe it is partly due to a weakening in the appreciation of gifts and giftedness. Do we still look at ourselves, at persons, at objects, at our work, at society, at the events of daily life, and at creation within the horizon of gift? Or is this horizon disappearing? If our horizon is only that of achievement, success, and profit, there is no room to see and receive gratuitous gifts.

There is no place for gratitude and self-giving. There will only be a relentless search for self-affirmation that eventually becomes oppressive and tiring, leading to more self-absorption or individualism. And when pessimism takes over, we see only darkness, failures, problems, things to complain about, blah, blah, blah.

We do not see gifts in persons and events. And those who do not see gifts in themselves and in others will not give gifts. They will not go on a mission."

COME ADORE WITH US!

REST, RESTORE, REVIVE, RENEW. PEACE.

So many blessings are available to you when you spend some time with Jesus in Adoration. Sometimes you just need an environment of stillness to sit and pray. What is stopping you from walking through those doors and staying awhile?

Adoration at St Brendan is accessible. We have hours Monday through Saturday to fit your schedule for morning, lunchtime, or 9 PM. There is a kiosk to check in whether you already scheduled a visit, are filling in for someone, or just want to spend some time spontaneously. Each adorer who checks in helps our team to continue its mission to have Jesus waiting and ready for you.

If you want to commit to a regular hour, visit stbrendansweadorehim.com to choose a time that works for you. Should you be unable to make it, you can even request a substitute through the program.

The chapel has lots of resources to help you in your time there: rosaries, Bibles, and books. Feel free to bring your ear buds and play Hallow or another prayer app on your phone. Just stay in a quiet, prayerful place while you are with us.

Our prayer is that our parishioners and guests have continued access to Jesus to adore, pray, give thanks, and just be comforted in His presence. If you have any questions about Eucharistic Adoration, please reach out to Jan at jansampson@me.com

ANY CHANGES IN YOUR LIFE?

SOCIAL MEDIA SCAM

There continue to be issues with a fake Bishop Fernandes social media account. Many parishioners still haven't gotten word about the scam and are friends with the account on Facebook. The fake account has stolen Bishop's official portrait, a photo of him and Bishop Brennan from the Congress, and an image of his Coat of Arms. The account contacts parishioners via private message and is going to great lengths to impersonate our bishop. Do not fall prey to this scam which attempts to befriend you and then asks for money or gift cards. Read the full Catholic Times article at <https://bit.ly/DioceseOnlineScams>

PARKING LOT REPAIRS

While in the parking lot, look for signs, cones and blocked-off areas to direct you and please do not walk inside the taped-off containment areas. Thank you!

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

In the first reading, we encounter the prophet Elijah as he is fleeing for his life from King Ahab and Queen Jezebel. He accomplishes a day's journey, then sits under a tree and prays for death. This is a tough scene! He is at the lowest point a human being can be. Yet in this darkest moment of despair, the light of faith flickers: Elijah cries out to God. He cries out for what he thinks he wants, and God provides him with what he needs, sending an angel (a messenger) to him with food and water for nourishment and strength. Thus fortified, Elijah continues his journey to Horeb. God took care of his tired, hungry, and despairing child. And over time, and through generations, his people continued to cry out to him, and in abounding love, God took care. Yet they remained separated from him. So he sent them, and the whole world, another messenger to bring food and drink for nourishment and strength: his Son. Jesus says in today's Gospel, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever." With even just a flicker of faith at our lowest point, or in the best of times, we call upon the Lord and can receive the perfect nourishment of the body, blood, soul, and divinity of Jesus Christ. Through God's merciful love, he is food for this life and the next.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Our earthly life is never going to be easy. We will have exhausting days where we feel tired, hungry, and possibly despairing. What's important to remember at those times is that God loves us, travels with us, and he gave us the gift of Jesus to lead us to a heavenly banquet. To have a foretaste of that banquet here on earth requires us to let go of our fears, doubts, anger, and selfishness. Paul tells the Ephesians they need to leave their bad temperament behind and imitate God, living in love. When we open our hearts to the love and joy Jesus offers, we can turn to others and share the Good News that Jesus is "the bread of life" and the bread that he gives is his flesh for the life of the world. He gives us the strength to continue our journey, and to help others in theirs. We become his earthly messengers, bringing nourishment and sharing his love.

SERVE Think of someone you know who is struggling right now.

This week bring this person some food or drink. Say a prayer for and with them. You'll be a messenger of God's redeeming love, offering nourishment for the spirit and soul as well as the body.
