Catechetical Sunday is Sept 15

Lord, when did we see you hungry?

MATTHEW 25:37

THE FAMILY MEAL A MESSAGE FROM FR STINNETT

As Catholics, we are probably familiar with the 7 Sacraments of the Church, beginning with Baptism during our infancy, First Holy Communion in our early grade school years, Confirmation as we graduate 8th grade, and then Holy Orders or Marriage as we enter our adulthood and mission in the Church and the world. Confession is a sacrament that we probably don't visit often enough. Anointing of the Sick is available for when we are seriously ill and in need of the grace to suffer with Jesus. Sacraments give "sanctifying grace"; the free gift of God that makes us pleasing in His sight. Closely linked to the 7 sacraments are what are called sacramentals: the objects, prayers, and blessings that are related to the sacraments because they are a means of "actual grace." This is the grace that is given to strengthen us to live out our Baptismal call to holiness and to protect us against the attacks of the Devil who tries to thwart us along our path, to abandon God's presence in us as His Temples. These are things like the rosary, holy water, getting your house blessed.

This week, I would like to highlight one particular occasion that I believe is one of the most powerful sacramentals, even if it not traditionally defined as one: family dinners. There has been some research coming out in the last few years, and even something called The Family Dinner Project through the Massachusetts General Hospital/Psychiatry Academy in Boston, promoting the positive effects that family dinners have on parents and, especially, on children. Much of this research notes very interesting correlations between families who regularly and intentionally have dinner together (which means only a couple of times a week) with better outcomes in many areas of life that you would not immediately suspect. Higher grades, less risky behavior by teenagers, reduction in rates of depression and need for family therapy, higher vocabulary in younger kids, reduction in obesity later in life, and more success in marriages, especially in the early years of marriage. The list can probably go on.

The thing that struck me the most about all this research and advertising was that they were only ever able to show a correlation, not a causation. Oddly enough, they are not saying that it is the family dinner itself that is making kids smarter or healthier. In all of these studies and promotions, there is room left for that causation to be drawn, which is exactly what I would like to do here. I propose that the reason all of these benefits are correlated to families who intentionally eat together is because the family meal is a sacramental; it is a source of actual grace that builds us in holiness and protects us from the assaults of the Enemy.

The family is called the "Domestic Church." This means it is in the home where we come to know how to love by being loved, first from our parents and siblings, and through them, we learn the love of God. This communication of love is central to making a family the seedbed of saints and of building up the Church. We learn the most from those we spend the most time with, so when families spend time together, the love that constitutes them and makes them a sign of the love of Christ for His Church is communicated to all the members of the family, building them all up.

The family meal, then, is a concentrated time for this communication of love. Sharing food is the heart of civilization; thus, it is at the heart of the City of God. The communication of God's love also comes through a meal, in the sacrament of the Eucharist. The sacraments are symbols, exterior signs instituted by Christ Himself that communicate sanctifying grace. Jesus didn't just make up the symbols; He took them from our humanity. In the family dinner, we experience in a lesser way what we experience in the Eucharist, a communication and formation in love. This is the part that the scientific research had to leave out. There is no scientific way to measure grace or love. And yet, this is the key to the success that families have when they regularly and intentionally share dinner together. As we are getting back into the rhythm of the school year, now is the perfect time to think about scheduling meals together. If you are not doing this now, I encourage you to find time to do it. If you are already a family that shares dinner, take the opportunity to make it all the more intentional of a time for the communication of love, God's love and yours.

As explained last week, the most important initiative of this third Eucharistic Year is to walk alongside those who are seeking, away from the faith, or on the edges. The Walk with One mission is for each of us to take on in our own families, with friends, coworkers, or others in the community. We are here to support you with resources along the way, but it begins with prayer and relationship. Let us start with the first two steps in the process.

STEP 1 – Identify someone in a spirit of humility.

Prayerfully begin to discern whom God is calling you to accompany. Invite the Holy Spirit to guide you in the process. Ask the Holy Spirit to show you the person that he wants you to accompany. Consider going to Adoration or committing to a period of silent prayer in church or your own prayer spot to allow you to hear that call.

STEP 2 – Intercede for that person in communion with the Holy Spirit.

Pray for the grace to be able to accompany the person whom the Lord has laid on your heart. Now that He has identified someone, commit to pray for them for a specific period of time, asking God to open the opportunity for a conversation. Pray for any struggles the person might be facing with brokenness or sin, or any obstacles that might prevent this person from drawing closer to Jesus and exploring the faith more deeply. Offer a Holy Hour or Novena for this person.

November 9-10 | The Spiritual Center of Maria Stein

Does your energy dim trying to juggle everything and leave you feeling invisible in your surroundings? Reflect on how God is present in your own story and truly sees each one of us. Let's discover together how this being seen and loved calls us to support our family and neighbor.

Retreat cost of $130 includes a private room with bathroom, 3 meals, snacks and drinks. Early Bird discount of $5 if you register and pay by October 22. Add Friday night to your stay for an additional $75. We do not want to turn any woman away, so, if cost is a factor, there are scholarships available. WISDOM BOOKS WITH FR STINNETT

Throughout the Wisdom Tradition of the Old Testament, King Solomon stands as the great representative of wisdom. The four books of Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs, and Wisdom all stand as part of the Solomonic cycle, describing the progress of the one growing in wisdom over the course of his life and his journey with the Lord. Fr Stinnett leads us through these four books, to grow with King Solomon in wisdom and to gain insights that lead us to Jesus Christ. The 8 sessions are Wednesdays at 7:15 PM beginning September 18 (no sessions Oct 2 & 16). First session is in the Davidson Rooms and remaining sessions will be held in the Chapel. Register at www.stbrendans.net/adults

A Mission of Prayer

October 2
7:15 - 9 pm
IN THE DAVIDSON ROOMS

FEATURING
GUEST SPEAKER
Bryan O'Donnell
Founder & President,
Urban Encounter Ministries

In this Eucharistic Year of Mission, we are called to go out to companion others in their time of physical, emotional or spiritual need. To be effective in our ministry with family, friends, community and even strangers, we first must be equipped to pray, to ask the Lord for His intercession – just as Simon Peter and his family asked for the healing of his mother-in-law.

Join us for our special guest, Bryan O'Donnell, founder and president of Urban Encounter Ministries, as he leads us through the why and how of intercessory prayer: why we should be praying with and for those closest to us and those at a distance, how to offer prayer to others, and how to ask for intercession. All are welcome to attend Adoration in the church prior to the event at 6 PM, then enjoy a light dinner, game-changing talk, and prayer ministry at 7:15 PM in the Davidson Rooms. Registration is now open at www.stbrendans.net/eucharistic-revival

This sacred area is now in need of renovation and upgrades. To make a gift, visit www.catholiccemeteriesofcolumbus.org/about-us/donations (Click the drop-down to specify your donation goes to Garden of the Holy Innocents.)

Faithful Citizenship: The Common Good

In Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the Catholic bishops of the U.S. identify the four main principles of the Church’s social teaching—Dignity of the Human Person, the Common Good, Solidarity, and Subsidiarity—and apply them to concrete issues. This entry focuses on the Common Good.

The Common Good is “the sum total of social conditions which allow people, either as groups or as individuals, to reach their fulfillment more fully and more easily.”¹ Human rights (to life, freedom of religion, and access to necessities for decent standards of living) must be protected, and basic responsibilities (to ourselves, our families, the larger society, and to earth) must be fulfilled to foster the common good.

In response to Pope Francis’ call to build a “culture of encounter” in which those most in need receive our greatest concern and all people can flourish, we must:

- Support and strengthen marriage and family as the central institutions of social life and the primary school of virtue.
- Respond to climate change to protect our common home and vulnerable populations now and in generations to come.²
- Accept and care for the entire world, including our bodies, as gifts from God.³
- Protect religious liberty as a fundamental human right and crucial for the common good.⁴
- Prioritize the needs of the weak, vulnerable, and impoverished by advocating for policies that support a robust social safety net, decent jobs, affordable housing, and childcare.

Pope Benedict XVI writes in Caritas in Veritate (Charity in Truth): “To desire the common good and strive towards it is a requirement of justice and charity.” We must be attentive to the common good “juridically, civilly, politically and culturally” in the life of society. “The more we strive to secure a common good corresponding to the real needs of our neighbors,” he writes, “the more effectively we love them.”⁵
