MESSAGE FROM MAGGIE AGRA

ST ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY: A LIFE MARKED WITH GENEROSITY

As we draw closer to Thanksgiving (I can't believe it's almost here!) I wanted to reflect upon a saint who shows the nature of gratitude and the response we can take from it – St Elizabeth of Hungary.

St Elizabeth was born into a royal family in the 13th century. Far from being the typical “spoiled princess” one may envision, Elizabeth was motivated by her love for the Lord to dedicate her life to the poor and vulnerable. Upon becoming queen, she would leave the castle daily to distribute loaves of bread to the hungry. Even amongst the riches of the court, Elizabeth found a way to practice simplicity and austerity.

One popular story of her is as follows: One day, when Elizabeth was bringing bread from the castle to the poor, she encountered her husband in the street. He had been told that she was stealing from the castle, so he asked her what she was carrying in her apron. When she opened it, beautiful roses appeared, to the delight of Louis who saw that as a sign of divine favor that humbled her detractors. She is often pictured with roses and bread as a result of this miracle.

As we enter into this season of gratitude, I would encourage you to allow your thankfulness to motivate a response of love, as St Elizabeth did. When we take into account the great blessings and graces the Lord has given us, we can have no other response than to offer praise and thanksgiving. Perhaps spend some time pondering the story of St Elizabeth or reading the Gospels this season.

MESSAGE FROM ST VINCENT DE PAUL MINISTRY

The Gospel predicts end times; our challenge though is to live faithfully now. When we live in conformity to the Word, hearing Jesus' words and living them out, the future holds no fear for us.

St Brendan's SVDP conference wants to thank you for all your ongoing support towards the needs of the Hilliard Food Pantry (HFP). Our parish donates about 100 lbs per week. HFP informs us that each 1.2 pounds of donation = 1 meal. That means we are helping to feed a family of four, 20 meals each week (dinner from Monday-Friday). Awesome giving!

While we won't have a formal food collection this November (remember we did Thanksgiving in June?), HFP always has a need since more of our neighbors and friends in the community are asking for help.

The average family of four eats 84 meals each week (3 times a day). If you feel called to help, please place your donation in the green bin in the gathering area, and maybe we can feed one family all week long. As you place your gift in the Green Bin, know that you are hearing the words of Jesus and living them out.

EUCHARIST: BODY OF CHRIST BROKEN FOR THE WORLD – PART ONE

This is a wonderful article from the USCCB on the Eucharist as a social mission that also prompts us to look up the writings mentioned for even further study. Check each week for the next portion.

The Eucharist is “the source and summit of the Christian life” (Lumen Gentium [Dogmatic Constitution on the Church], no. 11). In the Eucharistic Liturgy and our prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, we encounter God's presence in personal and profound ways. But the Eucharist is also social, as Pope Benedict XVI reminds us in Deus Caritas Est (God Is Love): “A Eucharist which does not pass over into the concrete practice of love is intrinsically fragmented” (no. 14). The Eucharist, celebrated as a community, teaches us about human dignity, calls us to right relationship with God, ourselves, and others. As the Body of Christ, it sends us on mission to help transform our communities, neighborhoods, and world. Church teaching, rooted in both Scripture and Tradition, emphasizes both the personal and social natures of the Eucharist. This guide highlights the writings of Popes St Paul VI, St John Paul II, Benedict XVI and Francis about the social nature of the Eucharist. Their words challenge and move us to encounter Christ in the Eucharist in ways both personal and social.

We experience the Eucharist as a community.

The Eucharist draws each of us closer to Christ as individuals, but also as a community. As Catholics, we never really worship alone. At the Eucharistic Liturgy, we gather with the young and old, the rich and poor, as well as millions around the world and the saints in heaven, to celebrate Christ's sacrifice. This powerful reality reminds us, in the words of St John Paul II: “A truly Eucharistic community cannot be closed in upon itself” (Ecclesia de Eucharistia [On the Eucharist], no. 39); rather the Eucharist challenges us to recognize our place within a community and the human family.

HAPPENING THIS WEEK!

HOLY LAND CARVINGS

Holy Land Carvings represent the Christian wood carvers of Bethlehem that rely on the tourism to support their families. Due to the bad situation there and interruption of the tourist trade, families in the Holy Land are in danger of having to leave their homes in search of work. Your purchases will help to support the effort to enable Christians to stay present in the Holy Land. Choose from beautiful carvings, such as Nativity Scenes, Crucifixes, Rosaries, Statues, and Pictures of the Last Supper, available this Sunday, November 17 in the Davidson Rooms. For information about Holy Land Carvings, visit www.holylandcarvings.com

DIOCESAN COLLECTION

THE CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT is a national anti-poverty program of the US Catholic Bishops, working to carry out the mission of Jesus Christ – "to bring glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, sight to the blind, and let the oppressed go free." (Luke 4:18)

CCHD works to break the cycle of poverty and offers a hand up, not a hand out.

THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

My brother-in-law inherited his father's company. Although he studied business in college, he knew years before receiving his degree that, provided he was faithful to his studies, he would have a comfortable job waiting for him after graduation. We may not all inherit the same economic opportunities as my brother-in-law, but, as Christians, we are heirs of infinitely greater spiritual ones. You are my inheritance, O Lord, the psalmist says. This phrase reveals the tremendous goodness of God who not only created us but who, in baptism, extended to us an invitation and a promise: provided we are faithful to him, we are heirs of eternal life. Nothing short of eternity will be sufficient to express our thanksgiving to him for this gift.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Daniel's words in today's first reading remind us not only of the gratitude we owe to God but also of our responsibility to help souls who have gone astray from following him. Some shall live forever, the prophet says, but others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace. The reality is that eternal life is not guaranteed us - not because God does not offer it freely, but because we are free to reject his offer. My brother-in-law, if he had neglected his studies in college, would never have equipped himself to run the family business. His father may have wholeheartedly desired to give the company to him, but doing so would have been irresponsible if his son did not want to take the helm. Likewise, God's mercy is abundant; but we can nevertheless say "no" to God by choosing not to follow him. As Christians seeking (although imperfectly) to follow the Lord, we have the dignity of cooperating with God in order to draw the souls who have gone astray back to him. By word, example, prayer, and sacrifice, we can help others experience the joy of knowing God in this life and of living forever with him in the next.

PRAY The Church especially devotes the month of November to praying for the souls in Purgatory. These individuals died in a state of friendship with God but are still in need of purification. God is indeed their inheritance, but they experience pain because they do not possess him yet. One way to remember to pray for the Holy Souls is to conclude grace before meals in this way: "Bless us, O Lord ... May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace."
