Thanks & Gratitude from Fr Dooley...

In this week of Thanksgiving, I would like to express my gratitude to this parish community that has so quickly made Hilliard feel like home. It was a daunting announcement when I was first made aware that I would be appointed to St Brendan the Navigator. Any lingering fears were quickly alleviated by a supportive staff, diligent school faculty and a fervently welcoming congregation. My fellow priests and deacons round out a dream team that further illustrates just how special this place is. I eagerly anticipate celebrating the holidays with my new faith family here at St Brendan Parish. Thank you again for your warm spirit of inclusion, inspiring zeal, and reliable generosity.

Gratefully yours in Christ,
Father Sean M. Dooley

From Our Principal's Desk

Dear St Brendan Community,

Happy Thanksgiving! I think the two most powerful words you can say to someone is "Thank You." I've been blessed to be able to visit some of our classrooms and remind our students of this the past couple weeks. I think sometimes we lose track of how important gratitude is and how we take things for granted. This reminder is not only appropriate for our students but also us adults. I pray you can take the time this holiday season and display a sense of gratitude. I want to thank YOU for supporting our parish and school. We are blessed beyond belief. Thank you for the sacrifices made and thank you for your continued prayers.

As we march closer to the Christmas season, our students and teachers at St Brendan continue to work hard. They not only work hard in the classroom but they work hard with intent to help others who are less fortunate. One such example is our House Cereal Drive! Our students will donate approximately 1,000 boxes of cereal to the less fortunate over the next couple of weeks!

In closing, I hope you have a Happy Thanksgiving and a blessed lead-up to Christmas! THANK YOU!

"Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." ~1 Thessalonians 5:18

St Brendan School Principal

Hurricane Recovery Update - Help Needed!

There are five trailer-homes that passed code enforcement and are ready to be rebuilt. Thanks to your gracious generosity, we were able to purchase drywall and insulation for these homes! Now the challenge is in getting it installed.

Mike Gunnarson has taken over coordination of the teams working in Swannanoa, North Carolina to install the drywall. The work is not difficult, but it is dirty. Understanding that people cannot be away for too long, we are working in 3 to 4-day increments. The remaining upcoming dates that volunteers are still needed are: Dec 2-5, Dec 4-7, Dec 9-12 and Dec 11-14

Learn more from Deacon Yglesias in a video at <https://youtu.be/0kJG8dTHkEs> or if interested in helping out, contact Mike Gunnarson at 614-403-3163 or mikegunnarson@gmail.com

EUCCHARIST: BODY OF CHRIST BROKEN FOR THE WORLD – PART TWO

Continuing with the article from last week: The USCCB on the Eucharist as a social mission prompts us to look up the writings mentioned for even further study. Look for part 3 to come next!

The Eucharist awakens us to our own dignity and to that of others. The Eucharist is a sign of our incomparable dignity as human persons. This dignity, given to all equally, regardless of our social or economic status or where we come from (Jas 2:1-9), causes us to recognize "what value each person, our brother or sister, has in God's eyes, if Christ offers Himself equally to each one... If our Eucharistic worship is authentic, it must make us grow in awareness of the dignity of each person," St. John Paul II writes (Dominicae Cenae [On the Mystery and Worship of the Eucharist], no. 6).

The Eucharist unifies and heals divisions. St Paul taught that the celebration of the Eucharist is insincere if there are divisions within the community based on class (1 Cor 11), status, or privilege (Rom 12), or if there are factions within the community (1 Cor 1). Partaking in the Sacrament as equals in the Body of Christ challenges us to unity as one family.

The Eucharist sensitizes us to those who suffer. As we meditate on the Eucharist, we experience Christ's love for us—and for others. In the depth of prayer, we become so moved and sensitized to His love for those who suffer that the words of St Augustine become a reality for us: "The pain of one, even the smallest member, is the pain of all" (Sermo Denis). When we receive the Eucharist but "turn a blind eye to the poor and suffering, or consent to various forms of division, contempt and inequality, the Eucharist is received unworthily" (Pope Francis, Amoris Laetitia [The Joy of Love], no. 186).

Sing along as our music director, Ross Williams, leads us in festive carols to further prepare our hearts for the birth of our Savior this Advent season. No registration is needed. Invite a friend or bring your entire family! This is the perfect opportunity to "invite one back" to our church this Advent (see below for details).

Invite One Back to Mass!

Do you know any family members, neighbors or friends who are no longer practicing their Catholic faith? What would happen if each of us invited just one person back to the church? Inviting Catholics Home Ministry is asking each of our parish family members to "Invite ONE back" to Mass with them. Or, try starting by asking them to come to an event at our parish this Advent season, like "Lessons and Carols" or the women's "Advent by Candlelight" event. If you missed the Inviting Catholics Home workshop recently, "Praying Them Home: a Practical Guide," visit our web page at www.stbrendans.net/ich to watch the videos and view the handouts that were provided for some practical advice on how to bring back those away from the Church!

M.A.S.T. Christmas Open House

If you are 45 years of age and single, you are invited to join your fellow singles at our annual Christmas Open House on December 7, 2-4 PM. There will be food, games and plenty of fellowship. M.A.S.T. stands for Mature Active Singles Together and we are a social/service ministry of St Brendan's. Location is at a member's clubhouse. RSVP to Chrishauck0522@gmail.com for location address and further details.

Poinsettias for the Altar

Christmas Poinsettias for the Altar contributions are $10 per poinsettia and can be made in memory of a loved one or for a special intention. To make your poinsettia request, fill out and pay through our online form by scanning the QR code or by visiting <https://bit.ly/AltarPoinsettias> (Note: Multiple requests can be entered on one form!) Requests/payments are due by Dec 11. The memorials will appear in our Christmas bulletin & online bulletin.

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Dn 7:13-14 | Rv 1:5-8 | Jn 18:33b-37

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

If we reflect on today's Gospel, it might be hard for us to envision Jesus ever dressed like an actual king! When Pontius Pilate asked him if he was a king, Jesus responded, "If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over." Imagine: Jesus had spent the night in agony; his friends had all abandoned him; and, in a few verses, Pilate will deliver him to be scourged. He must have felt, at that moment, like anything but a king. But, indeed, he was (and is) the Creator of the Universe and its rightful king. We Christians – called, like Jesus' first disciples, to be his friends and followers – should do everything we can to proclaim him as king of our hearts, our families, our lives, and our society.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

There is a tradition of placing an image of Jesus' Sacred Heart in a prominent place in the home. The idea is to "enthron" Jesus as king of the home and the family; there is even a small ceremony to go along with the enthronement. In one of the most famous images of the Sacred Heart, Jesus wears a magnificent crown, holds a scepter in his right hand, and carries the earth in his left hand. We see, from this picture, Jesus as a king with a glorious crown who holds the world in his hand – but he does so with a heart burning with love! He loves us so much that he wishes to extend the reign of his love to every human being on earth. We can cooperate with him in this by "enthroning" him as king of our hearts and our homes and allowing his love to impact everything we do and say. By our willingness to welcome God into every aspect of our lives, we will become witnesses of his love to others.

INVITE This week, take one opportunity to invite someone to pray with you. They could be dinner guests, a coworker, or a friend you meet for coffee. Whoever it is, ask him or her if there are any particular intentions you can bring to God in prayer. By doing this, you remind your friend of God's constant presence and his desire to be part of all of your joys, sorrows, and anxieties.
