SUNDAY ADORATION DURING ADVENT!

Please join us on Sunday evenings during Advent for special Adoration hours after the 5:30 Mass until 10 PM. This is a special time set aside for prayer to prepare our hearts for the Lord. Sign up for an hour that evening or another time during the week to get ready for His coming!

A Musical Message from Dr Ross Williams!

Praise be to Jesus Christ! The members of the Music Ministry at St Brendan are excited to usher you into Advent and Christmas this year! This Sunday, December 1, we invite you to a "Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols," at 3 PM in the church. This event will kick off Advent in style with Biblical lessons outlining salvation history, stunning new choirs singing beautiful Renaissance polyphony, and sing-along carols for the whole family.

HYMNALS RETURN TO THE PEWS – As you arrive in the church on the first Sunday of Advent, you will be welcomed with hymnals in each pew. We are excited to partner with our interdiocesan endeavor to bring sacred music to the liturgy with the "Source and Summit" hymnal. This beautifully edited hymn book also contains Mass readings throughout the year, devotional prayers (like the Angelus), and music notation for our psalms, acclamations and antiphons.

A NOTE ABOUT SACRED MUSIC – In my November 6 video posted online (view it at <https://youtu.be/2Inm3JGH-uo>), I outlined our goal for bringing sacred music to the liturgy. What is sacred music? As the Holy sacrifice of the Mass is the source and summit of our faith, the great treasury of Catholic music accompanies the liturgy. Pope Benedict XVI wrote: "In the course of her two-thousand-year history, the Church has created and still creates music and songs which represent a rich patrimony of faith and love. This heritage must not be lost."

LATIN DURING ADVENT & LENT – Fr Dooley and I believe that one aspect of our rich treasury is singing Gregorian Chant, hymns, and the Latin parts of the Mass that accompany the Eucharistic prayers. The "Holy, Holy, Holy," "Mystery of Faith," and "Lamb of God," will be sung in Latin during Advent and Lent. As these penitential seasons are set aside for more internal participation, we hope you either sing in Latin, or find participation in the stillness as Pope Benedict reflects: "...a thousand thoughts and desires assault us, but a time of recollection, giving us an inward peace, allowing us to draw breath and rediscover the one thing necessary, which we have forgotten."

COME JOIN US! Fr Dooley and I are thrilled to see our choirs grow in numbers, and we invite you to join! Our parish choir rehearses on Wednesdays, 7:15-8:30 PM, and sings on the 2nd and 4th Sunday of each month.

Please don't hesitate to email me at rwilliams@stbrendans.net with any questions or come up after Mass and say "hi"!

EUCCHARIST: BODY OF CHRIST BROKEN FOR THE WORLD, PART THREE

Continuing with the article from the last two weeks: The USCCB on the Eucharist as a social mission prompts us to look up the writings mentioned for even further study. Look for part 4 to come next week.

The Eucharist moves us and inspires us to respond. In the Eucharist, the boundlessness of the Father's love "springs up within us a lively response" that causes us to "begin to love" (Dominicae Cenaе, no. 5). Contemplating Christ's sacrifice for the world in need, we are compelled to follow His example. Drawn "into the very dynamic of His self-giving," we are moved to self-giving action in solidarity with the members of our human family who face injustice (Deus Caritas Est, no. 13). St John Chrysostom's words in the fourth century become real for us as we reflect on Matthew 25:31-46: "Do you wish to honor the Body of Christ? Do not ignore Him when He is naked."

Eucharist-inspired love allows us to live out our Christian vocation. St John Paul II writes that our ability to go and do likewise in imitation of Jesus' washing of the disciples' feet is the "criterion by which the authenticity of our Eucharistic celebrations is judged" (Mane Nobiscum Domine [Stay with us, Lord], no. 28). "Eucharistic worship," he says, is the expression of "the love that springs up within us from the Eucharist"—that love which is "the authentic and deepest characteristic of the Christian vocation" (Dominicae Cenaе, no. 5). Pope Francis reminds us: "It is in the Eucharist that all that has been created finds its greatest exaltation"; therefore, "the Eucharist is also a source of light and motivation for our concerns for the environment, directing us to be stewards of all creation" (Pope Francis, Laudato Si' [On Care for Our Common Home], no. 236).

Congratulations on the Baptism of Hurricane Recovery Update - Help Needed!

There are five trailer-homes that passed code enforcement and are ready to be rebuilt. Thanks to your gracious generosity, we were able to purchase drywall and insulation for these homes! Now the challenge is in getting it installed. Mike Gunnarson has taken over coordination of the teams working in Swannanoa, North Carolina to install the drywall. The work is not difficult, but it is dirty. Understanding that people cannot be away for too long, we are working in 3 to 4-day increments. The remaining upcoming dates that volunteers are still needed are Dec 2-5, Dec 4-7, Dec 9-12 and Dec 11-14.

Update from Our Kairos Cookie Drive...

Below are a couple letters written to the prison Chaplain from two of the inmates who received cookies from our last Kairos Cookie Drive, baked and prayed over by our parishioners. The cookies had a major impact on them!

Letter #1: "I just got back with God two days ago through my commitment to sobriety. I was on the verge of suicide crying uncontrollably alone in my cell in TPU. I asked for a Bible and ever since, I have been shown God's glory... My faith is still in the beginning stages. I prayed and read scripture last night. This afternoon I got a security review done by my case manager and Sgt. – even though I won my appeal and was found not guilty, I am still going to level 3. I felt defeated and was so close to giving up. I prayed and spoke to God and fell asleep... Then, I got woke up to Kairos cookies! Like God was telling me it was going to be okay. I didn't lose faith and want to thank you all! Keep doing God's work. It helps me more than you know. God Bless."

Letter #2: "I have practiced Islam for a while and thought that was the path I wanted to choose, but God has called me and showed me over and over and over again that I am supposed to be a Christian. Islam was different and I believe that was the only reason I chose it – to rebel against Jesus Christ. I have been so angry at Him for taking my mom, my dad, and my little brother from me. I have been so angry because everybody seems to leave me... thru death or thru life. I don't want to hurt anymore. And most importantly, I don't want to hurt anybody else ever again. I wake up and my heart hurts. I go to bed and my heart hurts. I chase drugs to ease my pain and hurt the entire world in the process, including my beautiful son. Help me find the right way before I go home at Christmas. I want to be saved! I want to know Jesus Christ!! I want to feel loved! I don't want to ever feel alone again!! (PS – I don't know if it's the Kairos cookies talking right now but they are soooo delicious!!!) ...The kindness shown to a man that they have never met before has given me hope in a dark place. Thank you guys and God Bless."

How We Manage Snow on Campus

Our snow contract stipulates that our parking lot is plowed only if we reach TWO INCHES or more of snowfall and is pretreated only if it is not raining. The parish facilities team will be responsible for keeping the walkways cleared. When weather is inclement, please be careful when walking around campus. Parish activities remain open if we are at a Level 1 Snow Emergency, but carefully consider whether you can safely reach the campus and attend events.

If a Level 2 Snow Emergency is declared, the entire campus closes, including Mass and all events. We will alert you via ParishStaq Communications and social media if this happens. School parents will be alerted by FACTS communications of any school closures or delays. The Parish office remains open during regular hours, unless we reach a Level 2 Snow Emergency, in which case, the office will close.

Invite One Back to Mass!

Do you know any family members or friends no longer practicing their Catholic faith? What would happen if each of us invited just one person back to the church? We are asking each of our parishioners to "Invite ONE back" to Mass with them. Or, try starting by asking them to come to an event at our parish this Advent season, like "Lessons and Carols" this Sunday at 3 PM. If you missed the Inviting Catholics Home workshop recently, "Praying Them Home: a Practical Guide," visit www.stbrendans.net/ich to watch the videos and view the handouts that were provided for some practical advice on how to bring back those away from the Church!

December "Spiritual Spotlight"

To say there is a lot going on in the world is a bit of an understatement. In Matthew Kelly's book, Holy Moments, he asks us to take a single moment from the world to open ourselves to God and for one moment do what we prayerfully believe God is calling us to do (see pg 23). God is never more than just one choice away (see pg 31.)

This tiny collaboration with God will breathe new life, spread joy, virtue, hope, reverence, patience, care and character to others. Through our encouragement, compassion, forgiveness, kindness, or even a smile, we will gain wisdom and meaning which not only helps others, it solves the meaninglessness and hopelessness in our own lives (see pg 113).

Small, simple changes we purposefully do, transform our lives and with that change, we can change the world. Starting on page 42, find real examples of Holy Moments. We have two moments to choose from; unholy and holy. Unholy moments are choices we make that are hard to live with and holy moments are choices we make that are easy to live with. It's up to each of us to decide. One thing to remember when making any decision, "We are made in the image of God, act accordingly" (see pgs 96 & 111).

If you want to see miracles, make yourself open to God, focus on good and change the world – one holy moment at a time. Pick up a copy of Holy Moments this month in the church gathering area on the Inviting Catholics Home Spiritual Spotlight bookshelf (while supplies last!). Read it and share it with others. Become the change that changes the world!

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Are you one of those people who flips to the end of the book to find out what happens or maybe you roam the internet for spoilers of your favorite show? We have all been tempted to know what is going to happen before whatever it is unfolds, especially in tension-filled situations. Knowing the ending changes the way we experience the angst of the present moment, especially if it's a great ending! Like today: even as we anticipate and know the comfort and joy of the Advent season, we certainly do not begin there with our Gospel reading from Luke. In it, Jesus describes the coming of the Son of Man: this time will include moments of dismay, tribulation, assault, fright, and death. Contemplating this time of justice can be fearsome, but it is also a source of joy, because Christ is coming! We know that through Christ we have been redeemed – and that, if we remain faithful to him, we have the hope of eternal life. As Luke tells us, we can stand with our heads held high because redemption is at hand. Our Advent does not start with comfort and joy, but it sure ends there. Knowing this ending helps us have confidence and hope in God.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

We are encouraged and challenged by the Word and our Advent traditions this first week to remember how it ends! In our first reading, the prophet Jeremiah relays consolation to the nation in crisis when God tells them the days are coming when the Lord will “fulfill the promise.” This will bring them much-hoped-for safety and security. In Luke’s Gospel, Christ’s coming will be with “power and great glory” and although it sounds somewhat frightening, it will usher in redemption. Those are some spoilers providing great confidence and hope. In addition to our readings, the lighting of our first candle this Advent season is a visual reminder of the culmination of our salvation story! The Light who has come into the world has and will dispel the darkness. We can stand erect and raise our heads together to glimpse this light of Advent and fill our hearts again with hope that God surely is the one who keeps his promises. That is the best spoiler of all.

SING

*O come, divine Messiah!
The world in silence waits the day
When hope shall sing its triumph
And sadness flee away*
