Message from Maggie Cook

(CONGRATS! MAGGIE AGRA IS NOW MRS MAGGIE COOK!)

Our “yes” to the Lord changes our lives forever. And what God has planned for us is greater and more beautiful than we could ever imagine. This truth convicted my heart even more after hearing the extraordinary story of Sister Clare Crockett. Born in Ireland with dreams of becoming a movie star, Sister Clare astonished the world with her complete abandonment to God’s will in her life.

So, who was she?

Sister Clare was born a millennial, in 1982, in Derry, North Ireland. Clare was witness to much violence and strife, especially between Catholics and Protestants. Her mother even recalls ducking from bullets and distantly hearing bombs erupt. However, her family fondly recounts how her charming personality and big dreams allowed her to rise above the difficult circumstances. In the documentary, “All or Nothing,” Clare’s biological sisters remember her acting talent, as she was often the lead in school plays. From a young age, Clare had insatiable dreams of being famous. At one point, she was even recruited to film a movie. By her teenage years, Clare was well on the way to stardom, riches, and fame.

This all changed on Good Friday, in 2000. Clare arrived in Spain, on a trip she was invited to by a friend, to smoke and sunbathe. However, she quickly realized she may have been duped—the trip was actually a pilgrimage. The group was staying at the main house of the Servant Sisters of the Home of the Mother. Although uninterested at first, a friend eventually persuaded her to attend the services of Good Friday. Clare resignedly sat in the last pew. However, everything shifted when she got up to reverence the cross. As she gently kissed the feet of Jesus, the realization that her sins nailed Him there came upon her. A religious sister came to her in the back pew to find Clare weeping and saying, “He died for me, He loves me!”

Although Clare had experienced a profound encounter with the Lord, like many of us, she reverted to her old life of partying and superficiality upon her return to Ireland. After becoming violently sick from a night of drinking, Clare again heard the gentle voice of Jesus, and He enquired, “Why do you keep hurting Me?” After that, Clare was ready to give her all to the Lord.

She entered the Servant Sisters of the Home of the Mother at age 18, in 2001. Eventually, Sister Clare was sent out on different assignments. Her zeal for the Eucharist and passion for the youth was noted. The documentary of her life has many interviews with former students lovingly remembering the after-school Rosary club she began, or the ways she instilled in them a love of Our Eucharistic Lord.

In 2010, Sister Clare of the Trinity and of the Heart of Mary made her final vows. She was the only one that year to profess final vows, causing the priest, Father Rafael, to say, “Your motto shall be this: Alone, for Christ alone.” From there, Sister Clare was sent on many missions, evangelizing and loving anywhere from the youth in Guayaquil to the small villages of Puyo. Guitar in hand and armed with her joyful voice, Sister Clare would make up songs with the children or teach music to those who surrounded her.

Sister Clare was so joyful and obedient in everything she did, that one fellow sister noted, “I still do not know what things she liked to do and what things were hard for her. I could never tell. And when I would ask her to do something, her answer was always, ‘Of course!’ And on top of that, she was always observing to see what was needed and so offered to help. At the end of that year, I thought to myself, ‘I want to learn how to obey like her.’”

Sister Clare spent her last years in Playa Preita, Ecuador, where she and her other sisters taught in their Catholic school. On the day of her death, they had just finished a week of cleaning the entire school from the results of the recent floods. Layers of mud had been washed away, chairs and desks restored, and Sister Clare and a few young students had gathered to play guitar and say the Rosary. Sister Clare had previously said, “Why should I be afraid of death if I’m going to go with the One I have longed to be with my whole life?” A heavy quake began, and the school collapsed on Sister Clare and five other young girls. They later recovered their bodies amidst the rubble.

What can we learn from Sister Clare?

Sister Clare was on her way to fame and fortune early on in her life. However, once she encountered Love Himself, her entire life was changed. She had found the Person who could satisfy her every desire. In response to that call, she lived her life entirely for Christ.

Sister Clare’s life was modeled on total obedience and surrender to the Lord. May we, too, strive to surrender all for the One we love.

Sister Clare of the Trinity and of the Heart of Mary died at age 33, on April 16th, 2016. Her cause for canonization is officially open, and she has merited the title, “Servant of God.”

Congratulations on the Baptisms of

Maren Jo Hudson
Katherine Kay Welch
Lennon Marie Culberston
Stella Susan Gagliardi

Email Scams

If you receive texts or emails from someone claiming to be one of our priests or parish staff member, asking for your help in buying gift cards, it's not them. It's a scam. Your pastor or parish staff will never contact you directly with a monetary request of this nature. Messages asking parishioners to help fulfill a need come through the parish or diocese's official communication channels or through a collection approved by the diocese. If you're not sure about a text or email, do not engage. Verify in person or by phone any request involving money or personal information.

In-person Prayer Available!

Are you seeking personal one-on-one in-person, prayer? Our Prayer Teams are available to pray directly with you after the 8:45 AM Mass on the second Sunday of each month!

From Our Principal's Desk

Dear St Brendan Community,

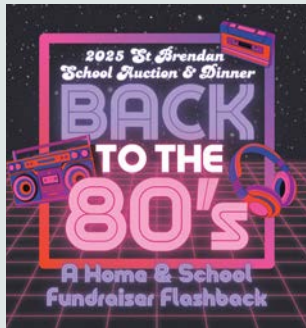

Happy New Year! It has been a great start to 2025 at St Brendan School! I know the students enjoyed the days off we had for inclement weather this month, but make no mistake about it, they are working hard in the classroom. This coming week, we will celebrate Catholic Schools Week and have a lot of excitement in store for everyone!

I would like to ask you for your support for our 2025 School Auction & Dinner Fundraiser! St Brendan School is proud of its long-standing commitment to providing quality elementary education in a Catholic community where spirituality is fostered, uniqueness is valued, and potential is realized. To continue our tradition of support to this commitment, the St Brendan Home and School Association will hold its 22nd annual auction and dinner fundraiser, BACK TO THE 80's, which will be held March 1 at St Brendan. I hope you can come for dinner, drinks, raffles, our silent auction, and entertainment!

Our Home and School Association is an organization of our school parents who work to ensure the students, staff, teachers, and administrators have all the resources they need to succeed in their work with our students. This event helps bridge the gap between our tuition and the annual needs of the school. In addition, this event helps to continue the progress we've made over the years of community building that directly impacts our children in a positive way!

Visit www.stbrendans.net/school/auction or scan the QR code below to purchase tickets, to make a donation and to support this impactful experience. RSVP for the event by Feb 15. Join us!

In Christ, Mike DeMassimo –St Brendan School Principal

Contact Jen at jrice@stbrendans.net Missed the earlier sessions and want to get caught up? Discussion questions are on the registration web page!

Women's Catholic Conference - Feb 15

Women of the parish are invited for a day away to grow in your faith, experience the strength of sisterhood and be affirmed in your vocation as a Catholic woman. As your emcee for the conference again this year, I cannot express how just one day can spark new life into your faith life, which extends into your relationships with family, friends and community. The speakers are stellar with the theme of Created for this Moment. Music is offered by The Vigil Project, whom we hosted here last Lent. A beautiful Holy Hour, Vigil Mass, Confession and even shopping await you! Please join me! I can't wait to look out and see your faces! Register today at www.columbuscatholicwomen.com and look for an email about carpooling from our parking lot that morning. ~Grace and peace, Jen Rice

Catholic Times Subscription Renewals

February is the month when annual subscription renewals traditionally begin for the print edition of The Catholic Times, the information source for the Diocese of Columbus. An online system is now in place to make the process easier for new subscriptions and renewals. Simply visit The Catholic Times website, catholictimescolumbus.org and use the "subscribe" tab at the top of the home page to sign up for a new subscription, a renewal or a gift. Please consider a subscription to keep up on the events in the diocese, especially during these eventful times.

Ministry to the Homebound & Facilities

Hearts of compassion and service are needed for our ministry to the homebound and facilities. We have some openings for facilities during the week to bring Communion to our brothers and sisters there. All training with shadowing is provided and you do not need to have been an EMHC previously. Contact Jen at jrice@stbrendans.net or at the office to find out more to see if this is a way God is calling you to serve.

"GOD'S PLANS ARE NOT ALWAYS OUR OWN"
by Fr Agustino Miguel Torres, CFR

God has a plan. It's a plan for you. It's also a plan for us, corporately, for all of us. When you're aware of this plan, when you are aware of what God wants to do in your life, your life becomes an adventure.

I'll tell you a story. When I was over in New York at one of our evangelization events, I struck up a friendship with one of the women who was living at the home of the Sisters of Life on 51st Street. When the event ended, she said to me, "When my baby is born, I want you to do the Baptism." And I said, "Of course."

As it turned out, however, the Baptism was sandwiched in between two other events I needed to be present at, one of which was four hours away in Pennsylvania. I was confident I could be present at the Baptism in downtown Manhattan and then get in the car with my brothers and get to Pennsylvania in plenty of time. But it's New York. So after the Baptism and holding babies and greeting friends, I said, "I gotta go!" and—this couldn't be planned—my car had been towed. I was so frustrated. "I'm trying to help people!" I thought, "Now there's no way I'm going to get to Pennsylvania on time..."

Brothers and sisters, God had a plan. When I reached a lady on the phone for information on how to find the status of my car and where it was located, she said to me in Spanish, "You're a priest? Can you pray for my son?" Right there I prayed with her. I knew it was the Holy Spirit. Afterward, I hung up the phone and said, "Thank you, Lord!"

You see, I had plans. I was going somewhere, but the Lord also had a plan. The Lord wanted me to evangelize "in season and out of season."

But wait. There's more. On the subway I was taking to get down to 42nd Street where my car was impounded, a girl came up to me while I was praying and asked, "Do you know about the Bible?" It's my favorite type of question! I opened up the Scriptures as best as I could from 135th Street all the way to 42nd Street. When I exited the subway station I said to the Lord, "There's no way I would have been there at the right time for her if I had not been towed. Thank you, Lord."

The POD Nursery Is Open!

The POD Nursery is now open during 8:45 and 10:45 AM Sunday Masses for children 6 months to 4 years old. Our coordinator, Christina Perez, schedules volunteers through Parishstaq. Research Fair Reviewers Needed March 6

March 6, 12:30-3 PM, the St Brendan Middle School will be conducting its annual Research Fair. Students are researching their topic this winter and will present on March 6. There will be approximately 14-16 students in each of the rooms assigned for the presentations with a panel of 3-4 judges per room. The topics include: 6th grade – People of the Eastern Hemisphere; 7th grade – Charitable Foundation; 8th grade: People or Event from American History. If interested in being a reviewer, contact Michele Hazzard at mhazzard@cdeducation.org

Catholic Foundation High School Scholarship

The Nativity of Mary Scholarship provides $2,000/year (for 4 years) to any rising 9th grade student (current 8th grader) who will attend a Catholic High School in the 2025-26 school year. A letter of recommendation, short essay on the applicant's devotion to our Blessed Mother, and financial need will be used to evaluate the applicants. Questions? Contact Dan Kurth, at 614-443-8893 or dkurth@catholic-foundation.org. Apply (by February 28) and find more details by visiting www.catholic-foundation.org/scholarships

The Ben Smith Scholarship

The Ben Smith "You Can Make a Difference" Scholarship provides a one-time $1,000 scholarship to a graduating high school senior from St Brendan, St Margaret of Cortona, or senior at any Hilliard public school pursuing a degree in K-12 education. Additional consideration is given to students pursuing a degree in a special education-related field that positively impacts the lives of those with special needs. Apply by February 28 at <https://catholic-foundation.org/grants/scholarships/ben-smith-you-can-make-a-difference-scholarship/> (Look for/click on "Apply Here".) Questions? Contact Dan Kurth at 614-443-8893 or dkurth@catholic-foundation.org

Diocesan Collection: Church in Latin America

The Collection for the Church in Latin America has been a way for Catholics in the USA to express a closer unity with and love for their brothers and sisters in Central/South America and Caribbean islands. Please continue your support by giving this weekend via the QR code.

The Spaghetti Dinner Has Been Cancelled

We are sorry to announce that our Spaghetti Dinner has been cancelled due to logistical issues. We hope to restore this parish tradition at a future date. Those who have already made dinner reservations and purchased meals will be given a full refund within the next couple weeks. Thank you to all the volunteers who had signed up to help.

How We Manage Snow on Campus

Our snow contract stipulates that our parking lot is plowed only if we reach TWO INCHES or more of snowfall and is pretreated only if it is not raining. The parish facilities team is responsible for keeping the walkways cleared. Parish activities remain open if we are at a Level 1 Snow Emergency, but please consider whether you can safely reach the campus and attend events.

If a Level 2 Snow Emergency is declared, the entire campus closes, including Mass and all events. We will alert you via social media and ParishStaq Communications if this occurs. School parents will be alerted of school closures or delays by FACTS communications. The Parish Office will also close if we reach a Level 2 Snow Emergency.
