

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours.

*Blessed are you who are now hungry,
for you will be satisfied.*

*Blessed are you who are now weeping,
for you will laugh.*

*Blessed are you when people hate you,
and when they exclude and insult you,
and denounce your name as evil
on account of the Son of Man.*

*Rejoice and leap for joy on that day!
Behold, your reward will be great in heaven.*

~Luke 6:17, 20-26

A Message from Jennifer Rice

If you could have any superpower, what would you choose? This is always a fun question to use as an icebreaker and a gauge to where we are in a particular season or moment in our lives! If you asked me today, I would say, please allow me to clone myself so I can spend more moments with each of my three boys before they leave for college in the fall. Unfortunately, since we know that is not possible (well, bi-locate maybe, but not tri-locate), let's redirect our energy. What is your superpower that helps you to build up the Kingdom of God? Whoa, wait, Jen, that just took a turn!

Let me explain. In my prayer time and discussions with our pastoral staff, lately I have been pondering how we are really doing to encourage our parishioners to do something with what they are receiving here at the parish. Our programs and events and Masses are mostly well-attended, but the question is: How are we taking what we have received out on mission? How are we developing our superpower, that is, THE superpower that is the Resurrection Power of Jesus Christ to build up our Church here and in our families, workplaces and communities?

We just finished the StB Book Club for Matthew Kelly's The Three Ordinary Voices of God. For those who attended and dug into the material, they did not leave it without a plan – it was a game-changer. If you haven't read the book we gave to you at Christmas, I highly recommend it – there are even study questions on our adult formation page. What we discovered was that God speaks to us in three ordinary voices: our needs, talents and desires. And each one of us has all the talents we need, given by God, to do what He needs us to do. Instead of asking God for what He can do for us, we should be asking what we can do for God. If He has already given each of us our superpower to build up the Kingdom, why would we not ask Him how to use it to serve Him and the Church?

Your talent does not have to be big and noticeable. I'll tell you a secret. As you read this, I just finished as emcee of the women's conference in front of, hopefully, over 3000 women. And I was honored to do that. But that's not my superpower talent that God asks me to use every day. It's being present to people, 1:1, listening and pouring into them so they know they are loved. That's a Kingdom-builder more than speaking in front of all those people.

You have a superpower. Whether you are a mom of littles who is just trying to get everyone clean and fed or a retiree taking a moment to drive a friend to the doctor. If you keep a running prayer list and hit your knees regularly in the chapel or if you make sandwiches for the homeless. You are taking what God has given you and using it to build the Kingdom. Thank you.

Lent is coming, friends. What if in your prayer you asked God to reveal your superpower? What if in your fasting, you put aside those other desires and distractions that hide your talent? What if in your almsgiving you asked God each day – what can I do for YOU today, God?, then acted on what He tells you? What a great Lent. What a great way to use the power within us all to change the Kingdom one moment at a time.

"What it Means to Evangelize" by Fr Agustino Miguel Torres

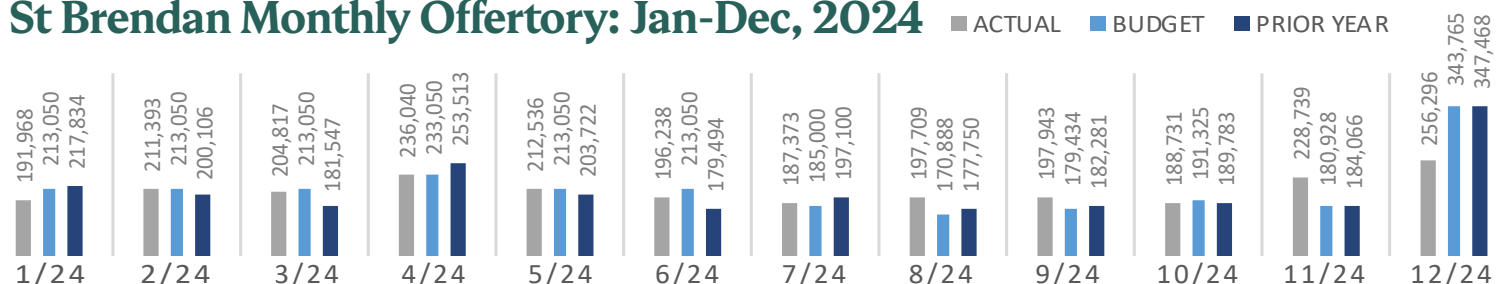

It's clear that the power of evangelization does not come from us. To evangelize is to tell others about the joy of this friendship with Jesus that we have found. It is to trust God's plan when our plan doesn't work out! It is the joyful announcement that Jesus Christ is a living person, and that He wants to enter into relationship with you, and that through His Resurrection He has defeated sin and death.

God is real, my friends, and He wants to be in relationship with you. He has defeated sin and death and wants to invite you to be with Him for all eternity in heaven. With this basic message, thousands, millions of souls have been converted. So, I invite you to pray.

The Congress was an incredible time, but it is now time for us to make it a way of life. Revival is something that God wants to do in the history of this country. There have been awakenings in our history and these awakenings have even led to mass conversions. Dare we believe that we are alive now during what will be an extraordinary awakening for us in these times?

I dare to believe.

Women's Lenten Study - March 6

Have you ever wondered why Jesus went into the wilderness? Some believe it was to reveal His divinity or to restore humanity's relationship with God.

In Wilderness Within, Sister Josephine Garrett, a mental health counselor and popular speaker, reflects on the belief that Jesus went into the wilderness to rescue us! The Lord does not want us to view the wilderness as something that causes worry, or fear.

This journal will guide you through the forty days with daily meditations, illustrations, thought-provoking questions, heartfelt prayers curated to uplift your spirit, and ample journaling space for personal revelations and insights. It's about 2 pages of reading and reflection a day! A perfect pause in our days and easy to manage.

Morning (9-10:30 AM) and evening (7-8:30 PM) sessions are offered beginning March 6 for 7 weeks (off Holy Week). Childcare is offered in the morning sessions. We will order the book in bulk with a deep discount down to $7 each! Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jer 17:5-8 | 1 Cor 15:12, 16-20 | Lk 6:17, 20-26

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

"It is so good to be poor, to have nothing, to await all from God!" These sentiments of the humble French religious sister St. Jeanne Jugan sum up the spirit of Jesus' words in today's Gospel. Jesus praises poverty, hunger, sadness, and rejection, but certainly not as ends in themselves; God does not take pleasure in our suffering! He does use our suffering, however, to awaken us to our need for him. Poverty can spur us to pursue heavenly goods, and thus Jesus assures the poor, "the kingdom of God is yours." Hunger can cause us to seek God who alone can truly satiate our desires, and thus Jesus says to the hungry, "you will be satisfied." Those who weep will laugh, Jesus says – so long as their sadness inspires them to seek happiness in the service of God and the joys of eternal life. For all of us, no matter our means or our circumstances, today's Gospel is a reminder to allow everything – including our difficulties, disappointments, and unfulfilled desires – to turn our hearts to God and rely on his loving care.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

It can be difficult to practice the spirit of the Beatitudes (as the "blessings" in today's Gospel are called) in the moment. Suffering, distress, and confusion easily divert our attention from God as we attempt to "make the problem go away." Sometimes we are even tempted to give up, to turn aside from God, and to seek consolation in other things. This is exactly the opposite of what he wants for us, and for good reason! God knows that it is best for us to always rely on him. This is why, as today's first reading explains, the man who trusts in the Lord is secure – "like a tree planted beside the waters ... it fears not the heat when it comes" – and fruitful – "its leaves stay green." For those who trust in the Lord, help comes from the all-powerful, infinitely loving Creator of the universe. When we entrust ourselves to him, we have nothing to fear.
