The 2025 Jubilee Year: Pilgrims of Hope

LET'S WALK TOGETHER IN FAITH – AND MAYBE HAVE A FEW LAUGHS ALONG THE WAY!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we journey through the year 2025, the Catholic Church has entered a Jubilee Year – a special time set aside for spiritual renewal, deep reflection, and a focus on God's endless mercy. Every 25 years, the Church designates a Holy Year, offering us a chance to rediscover the depth of our faith and renew our relationship with God. Pope Francis has chosen the theme "Pilgrims of Hope" for the 2025 Jubilee Year – perfect for a world that sometimes feels like it's in need of a bit more hope!

A Little History Lesson with a Dash of Humor

Did you know that the Jubilee tradition dates to the Old Testament? Every 50th year, the Jewish people would forgive debts, return lands, and set captives free. It was a time of renewal and liberation – kind of like a giant spiritual spring cleaning. So, if you're looking for a reason to clean out your closets and your soul, this might just be it!

This ancient concept of the Jubilee invites us to reflect on God's mercy and freedom, calling us to return to Him with open hearts. Just think – it's like a reset button for our spiritual lives (minus the "delete all" option).

Pilgrimage: Not Just for the Super Religious

One of the highlights of a Jubilee Year is the opportunity to make a pilgrimage to Rome and pass through the Holy Doors. These special doors are opened only during a Jubilee Year and symbolize Christ, the ultimate door to a deeper relationship with God. If you've ever thought about a pilgrimage before, here's your sign to do so! (It's not just for professional saints or people with a lot of vacation time.)

For many, traveling to Rome can be a transformative experience, but if that's a bit far, don't worry! There are four pilgrimage sites in the Diocese of Columbus for the faithful to visit: St Joseph Cathedral (Columbus), The Basilica of St Mary of the Assumption (Lancaster), Shrine to Our Lady of Guadalupe, Star of the New Evangelization at Holy Name Church (Columbus) and St Joseph Catholic Church (Somerset).

We're all called to embark on our own spiritual pilgrimage in our daily lives – through prayer, reflection and acts of charity. So, whether you're walking to the church or just traveling to your local grocery store, every step can be a moment of grace.

The Grace of a Plenary Indulgence: It's Like a Spiritual Coupon

This year, we're also invited to receive a plenary indulgence. In plain English, that means a special grace that wipes away the temporal punishment for sins, like a get-out-of-jail-free card, but way more spiritual. To receive it, you need to attend Mass, go to Confession, pray for the intentions of the Holy Father, and maybe offer an extra prayer for your mom while you're at it (trust me, she'd appreciate it!) This is a beautiful opportunity to cleanse our hearts and grow closer to God. After all, who doesn't like a fresh start? It's kind of like hitting "refresh" on your browser, but for your soul!

"Pilgrims of Hope" in a World that Needs It

As we entered this sacred year, we are reminded that our hope is in Christ. He's the source of our strength, our refuge, and our salvation. Pope Francis has called us to be Pilgrims of Hope – witnesses of Christ's love and hope in a world that sometimes feels a little like it's lost its way.

We are called to be people of hope, charity, and service – to bring hope to those who are suffering, love to those in need, and, most importantly, we're called to live the Gospel. Whether it's helping a neighbor, giving to those in need, or simply sharing a laugh to brighten someone's day, we should be living our faith every step of the way.

So, as we embrace the 2025 Jubilee Year, let's remember to walk together in faith and maybe even share a few laughs along the way. Hope is contagious, after all, and the best part about it, it's free for everyone!

~Fr Weldit

"In the Eucharist, the Lord Speaks the Language of Love" (Part One)
by S. M. Marcelina Mikulska, CSFN, LPC, NCC

I am a Sister of the Holy Family of Nazareth. With my sisters, we are called to extend the Kingdom of God's love among ourselves and others by living in the spirit of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. I am also a mental health provider.

Born and raised in Poland, I came to this country as a young sister without any knowledge of the English language. How I missed my family, my native country, and even my scrumptious Polish food!

The Eucharist has always been the strongest way I know God's love for me. It is the way He reaches me. At Mass, Jesus, really and substantially present, establishes with me a living relationship through Holy Communion. When I receive Jesus in the Eucharist, I know I belong to Him. I know I am seen and valued by Him.

During those difficult times in my first years here in the United States, I remember some profound experiences in prayer through which I encountered the power of the Eucharist.

One day, during Mass, I asked Jesus to let me feel the touch of His presence. I needed to know I wasn't alone in my pain. After receiving Holy Communion, I closed my eyes and began to cry. Immediately, I felt a heavy and strong hand on my shoulder. I opened my eyes and looked up. To my surprise, a gentleman stood beside me, and my eyes met his gentle but permeating gaze. I didn't know who he was. He didn't say anything. He just stood next to me and looked deeply into my eyes. I felt like it was Jesus fulfilling my deepest desire at that moment. The unknown gentleman walked away without a word, and I never saw him again. In my heart, however, I knew Jesus was telling me through this experience that He sees my tears and is there to protect me and to love me unconditionally.

From this and other encounters with the power of the Eucharist, I knew even in those early years that in some way God would use me to accompany others on their way to healing and fullness of life.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

“Love your enemies” may be one of the most oft-quoted verses of Scripture. We tend to think of it as a moral principle to guide us in our dealings with people who rub us the wrong way. But do we ever consider what it tells us about God? After all, Jesus, who is God himself, speaks it. God tells us to love our enemies because God loves his “enemies” – that is, those who freely choose to oppose his plan of life and love. On the cross, Jesus forgave and prayed for the people who sought to kill him while they were crucifying him. But his mercy was not confined to that time and place alone; he died for each of us who, whenever we sin, refuse to love him. If we get this into our heads and our hearts – “God loves and forgives me” – we can begin to rest in his embrace like children confident in the unconditional love of their father’s heart.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

If, as a child, you learned a musical instrument for which regular recitals were the norm, you know how many hours of practice are required for a few short minutes of performance. You know, too, that if you are well prepared, a musical composition which appeared impossible months before comes easily and naturally on the day of the recital. For most of us, loving our enemies as Jesus commands us to do appears far beyond our reach – impossible, in fact. But this kind of heroic love is nevertheless God’s call for us, and he will never deny us the grace we need to respond to his call. What’s required on our part is a willingness to practice. If we practice loving in small things even when it’s difficult – listening patiently to someone whose conversation bores us, for example, or taking on an extra chore without seeking recognition or thanks – we will be prepared for the day when God asks us to make an even greater act of love for his sake.

Thanks and Gratitude

The Catholic Foundation proudly serves St Brendan the Navigator, providing our parishioners access to skillfully managed funds and methods to support our parish for decades to come. They also provide scholarships to our youth and annual grants for ministerial and capital projects. Last year, The Catholic Foundation provided a $4,000 grant to purchase music and sound equipment for Fr Weldit’s faith community. They also granted $5,000 for a robust security system at our collaborative parish, St Margaret of Cortona. We’re tremendously grateful for the wide variety of ways that The Catholic Foundation supports us and our diocese. If you would like to learn more about “giving smarter,” reducing your taxes, or making a sustaining gift at St Brendan, contact Scott Hartman: shartman@catholic-foundation.org
