A Message from Fr Weldit

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY: LET GOD LOVE YOU!

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Although Divine Mercy Sunday was officially established by Saint Pope John Paul II in 2000, many Catholics are still discovering its deep meaning. The feast is rooted in the visions of St Faustina Kowalska, to whom Jesus appeared, asking her to spread the message of His boundless mercy. The more we open our hearts to His mercy, the more we become instruments of compassion, forgiveness, and love in our world.

God's Mercy and Justice: God's mercy flows from His infinite love, His perfect justice required an infinite payment for our sins— something only God Himself could offer. Through the death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ, that debt was paid.

Romans 6:23: "For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." When we sin, we should neither beat ourselves up nor minimize our wrongdoings. All sin is an offense to God's love. But in humility, we can ask for and receive His forgiveness.

Jesus and Thomas: A Lesson in Mercy: In today's Gospel, Jesus appears to Thomas the Apostle, who struggled to believe. Many of us experience doubt at times— sometimes daily. Some speculate that Thomas stayed away because he thought everything was over. But Jesus gently invites him into belief and a deeper relationship. He offers the same invitation to us.

Mercy at Every Mass: At each Mass, we encounter God's mercy in the Penitential Rite, the Eucharist, and our prayers. On Divine Mercy Sunday, we especially remember the moment Jesus' side was pierced on the Cross and water and blood flowed forth— a sign of cleansing and renewal for all.

The Message of Divine Mercy is Simple: God loves us— all of us. He wants us to know that His mercy is greater than our sins, and He calls us to trust Him, receive His mercy, and extend it to others. In doing so, we all come to share in His joy.

Remember the Divine Mercy message with three simple letters: A-B-C

A- Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to come to Him in constant prayer, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour out His mercy upon us and upon the whole world.

B- Be Merciful. As we receive God's mercy, we are called to pass it on— to love and forgive others as He does for us.

C- Completely Trust in Jesus. The graces of His mercy are tied to our trust. The more we trust in Him, the more we will receive.

You're Invited. If you've never experienced the Divine Mercy devotion, we warmly invite you to join us for a Holy Hour this Sunday at 3 PM in the church, which will include praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet together, Adoration and Confession. It's an hour to simply "let God love you."

May today draw you closer to the heart of Jesus— the source of all mercy!

In Christ's Love,
Fr Weldit Abay

"Why DON'T We Pray?"

(Part 2) by Tod Wornor

WE WORRY— Letting go of control and surrendering to someone else's plan is quite threatening to an assertive, "can-do" people. And yet we can't do everything. To be sure, Jesus turned the disciples loose to feed the five thousand after they first complained to be powerless. But when they returned with their meager five loaves and two fish, He looked at them lovingly and said, "Give them to me." God partners with us and augments our insufficient efforts. Hans Urs von Balthasar in his work, The Christian and Anxiety, opened with, "When one surveys even from a distance how often and how openly Sacred Scripture speaks of fear and anxiety, an initial conclusion presents itself: the Word of God is not afraid of fear or anxiety."

If we pray more, we will worry less.

WE DOUBT— Yes, Christ performed miracles and offered extraordinary truths. Surely, the saints demonstrated a superabundance of sanctity and exquisite courage. But how does that apply to us here and now? We miss God with our world-blind eyes. This happened to St. Thomas before he thrust his shaking hands into the wounds of Christ and declared, "My Lord and my God!" Thomas Merton reminds, "We too often forget that faith is a matter of questioning and struggle before it becomes one of certitude and peace."

If we pray more, we will doubt less.

WE GROW IMPATIENT— An old joke portrays a man dreaming about meeting God. Striving to have things happen on his terms and in his time frame, the man asks, "God, for you, are a billion years like a second? And a billion dollars like a penny?" "Yes," God answers. The man then cleverly queries, "God would you give me a penny?" And God smiles, "In a second." God's timing is perfect and "Faith," as Philip Yancey said, "means believing in advance what only makes sense in reverse." As German poet Rainer Maria Rilke counseled a young poet in a hurry, "Everything must be carried to term before it is born."

If we pray more, we will be more patient.

The Appeal Begins Next Weekend

Next weekend, we officially begin The 2025 Appeal.

This year's theme, "Together in Mission," makes it abundantly clear that we have a responsibility to the entire Body of Christ that we all are members of. The Appeal serves as the lifeline for vital ministries to the poor, hungry, and incarcerated in Central Ohio. It also funds the religious formation and preparation programs for our seminarians, diaconate, Catholic school students, and even engaged couples!

Our parish goal this year is $330,000 – a daunting challenge that can only be achieved with everyone's participation. Whether a contribution of $10 or $10,000, every gift matters! Any monies raised in excess of our goal will be returned to our parish and allocated for renovations and remodeling within our Sanctuary.

Please come prepared to make your pledge next weekend if possible.

We are grateful for your generosity! Find more details about the impact and services of the Appeal at <https://columbuscatholicgiving.org/appeal>

Rest in Peace, His Holiness Pope Francis

Born on
December 17, 1936

Ordained to the Holy Priesthood
December 13, 1969

Elected to the Papacy
March 13, 2013

Died
April 21, 2025

"We will never be disillusioned or lose our way if we are guided by God."

Pope Francis, who died April 21 at the age of 88, gave new energy to millions of Catholics as he transformed the image of the papacy into a pastoral ministry based on personal encounters and strong convictions about poverty, mission and dialogue. U.S. Cardinal Kevin J. Farrell, chamberlain of the Holy Roman Church, announced that Pope Francis had passed away at 7:35 AM. "His whole life was dedicated to the service of the Lord and his church," Cardinal Farrell said in a video announcement broadcast from the chapel of the Domus Sanctae Marthae, where Pope Francis lived.

Promoting peace, solidarity and respect for the Earth, the pope insisted people needed to recognize each other as brothers and sisters and issued an encyclical about that, "Fratelli Tutti, on Fraternity and Social Friendship." He signed the text at the tomb of St Francis of Assisi on the saint's feast day, Oct 4, 2020.

Pope Francis spent much of the first nine years of his pontificate pursuing two ambitious projects: revitalizing the church's efforts at evangelization – constantly urging outreach rather than a preoccupation with internal church affairs – and reforming the central administration of the Vatican, emphasizing its role of assisting bishops around the world rather than dictating policy to them.

On March 19, 2022, the ninth anniversary of the inauguration of his papacy, he promulgated "Praedicate Evangelium" ("Preach the Gospel"), his complete restructuring of the Roma Curia, highlighting its mission to serve the church's evangelization efforts at all levels.

"Go out" was Pope Francis' constant plea to every Catholic, from curial cardinals to the people in the pews. More than once, he told people that while the Bible presents Jesus as knocking at the door of people's hearts to get in, today Jesus is knocking at the doors of parish churches trying to get out and among the people.
