A Message from Fr Dooley

WHY ARE THE IMAGES COVERED IN THE CHURCH?

Happy 5th Sunday of Lent or, as it is called, Passiontide Sunday. This weekend, you will notice that all the sacred images in the church are covered. Why? The tradition of covering images dates to the 8th century in Germany. The Germans even went so far as to veil the altar from view for the entirety of Lent.

The Roman Missal states the following: "In the Dioceses of the United States, the practice of covering crosses and images throughout the church from [the fifth] Sunday [of Lent] may be observed. Crosses remain covered until the end of the Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday, but images remain covered until the beginning of the Easter Vigil."

It may seem strange, but this practice helps us to yearn even more for the Resurrected Lord. The Church takes on a different atmosphere when the images are covered in veils. It is unnatural since we are creatures of habit. The veils are not meant to be with us forever. As Christians, we live in a world covered with a veil. Hence, Christ lifts the veil, and the beauty of a resurrected world is revealed to us.

I look forward to celebrating my first Holy Week with you as your Pastor. The deacons, parish staff, and school faculty have been a huge help for Fr Weldit and me as we await our new parochial vicar. Stay tuned for some exciting news from both our parish and school!

Fr. Dooley

April 6 is Safe Haven Sunday

The most powerful tool we have when it comes to teaching our children about the beauty of their sexuality in the digital age is conversation. Real, honest, "look them in the eyes" conversations about their deep questions. In the digital age, passive parenting is not an option—the internet never rests. St Brendan and the Diocese of Columbus are setting aside this weekend, to celebrate Safe Haven Sunday in order to provide free resources to assist you with talking to your children about internet dangers, as well as their online and offline choices. Watch a video of Bishop Fernandes talking more about Safe Haven Sunday at <https://tinyurl.com/SHS-video>

The Covenant Eyes' book entitled Confident: Helping Parents Navigate Online Exposure is available to you at no cost. It includes a free seven-day text-to-opt-in program for practical tips to create safer digital environments for adults and young people. Simply text SECURE to 66866 or view the book online at <https://bit.ly/3Xw7fU3> to start receiving guidance today!

April "Spiritual Spotlight"

Invite One Back to Mass this Easter!

As we approach Palm Sunday next weekend, Holy Week after that, and then Easter the following Sunday, Inviting Catholics Home Ministry hopes that you will take steps now to "Invite One Back" to Mass for Easter! If you know someone who has been away from the Church and are visiting you this Easter, try extending them a no pressure invitation to join you and your family at Easter Mass. We will have our Spiritual Spotlight bookshelf full of books during April that can help ease them back into their faith as well as a small sign that simply asks if they have been away from the Church and lets them know that Jesus (and all of us) want them to come back! We have seen it happen many times that a sign that says they are welcome and wanted back at Mass is the "sign" they may have been waiting for to take that first step to come back to their Catholic faith. The Holy Spirit speaks to people sometimes in the most simple and subtle ways!

"Pay careful attention to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to care for the church of God, which he obtained with his own blood." ~Acts 20:28

"And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near." ~Hebrews 10:24-25

From the Principal's Desk

Dear St Brendan Family,

I pray your Lenten Season has been one filled with penance and prayer. I have been trying to make a concentrated effort reflecting on what our Lord was put through as He prepared to make the ultimate sacrifice for all of us. At times, I feel I am not worthy. However, through Jesus' words, He tells me that I am.

The same goes for all of us and especially our students at St Brendan. Below are the experiences that I am thankful for and get excited about here at our school. All of these things, and more, shape our children and are a part of their faith journey...

I am blessed to watch the students' faith journey unfold during the school year and especially during this time. I am thankful we begin our school day all together in prayer. I am thankful we get to attend Mass as a school, praising our Father's holy name and asking for His guidance. I am thankful that each of our teachers begin class with prayer. I am thankful that Mr Bogrette leads each of our middle school classes in the Stations of the Cross and in Adoration. I am thankful that our 2nd through 8th grade students get to participate in Confession. I am thankful our House Program planned for a school-wide Stations of the Cross event this Lent involving all of the students. I am thankful our faculty and staff come together each Wednesday to offer intentions and pray together.

I wish you all a blessed remainder of Lent as we march towards Jesus' greatest miracle on Easter morning!

In Christ,
Mike

iTHIRST Spiritual Companions Are Now Available!

We are pleased to announce that iTHIRST spiritual companions are available in our diocese and parishes to walk one-to-one with families and adults who are struggling with the spiritual disease of substance use disorder.

iTHIRST is an initiative of the Missionary Servants of the Most Holy Trinity and spiritual companions have been trained and accredited through Seton Hall University to address the vital need for spiritual healing (an often overlooked aspect of traditional addiction treatment) by fostering connection, purpose, and inner peace. We are blessed to have three spiritual companions right here in our parish home.

Missionary Support...

Hello Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I am Olivia Ash and I have been a parishioner and student here at St Brendan's for my entire life. I now attend Bishop Watterson and have been called to serve for the next two years of my life at Damascus, otherwise known as CYSC. However, I cannot do this without support financially and spiritually. I am grateful for Fr Dooley's endorsement of my mission because St Brendan's support is necessary to see souls come to Jesus and experience the New Life He has waiting for each person that I will be blessed to encounter. As Paul writes in Philippians, "Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that increases to your credit." I, too, come desiring great fruit for the kingdom of God and to see many souls encounter His love, but none of that is possible without your generosity.

If you would kindly consider pledging a tax-deductible gift to sustain me during my next two years as a missionary, Damascus has established a giving portal in my name: bit.ly/oliviaash

Additionally, if you would like to become a longer-term sponsor or learn more about my mission, I'd be happy to meet with you. Please email oliviaash27@damascus.net to set up a time to chat.

As Jesus said, "The harvest is plentiful but the laborers are few." Help me to be sent as a laborer from this community, and together, store up treasures in heaven as a body that neither moths nor vermin can destroy (Matthew 6:20). Again, I'm grateful to Fr Dooley for his support and hope to talk with many of you in the near future.

All Glory and Honor is His,
Olivia Ash
