A Message from Fr Dooley

Hello friends,

It is hard to believe that it's been one year since I've been your pastor. Thank you for your prayers and support for me as I try my best to lead this community. There is great wisdom in that saying: "Take one day at a time." I have taken that to heart in my prayer to the Lord. Thank you to our deacons, parish and school staff for a great year and helping me to grow in my humanity and priesthood.

In other news, Fr Weldit and I are excited to welcome Fr Severance to St Brendan! Fr Severance's first day was July 8. As many of you know, Fr Severance was a summer seminarian with me at Our Lady of Peace Parish. I look forward to ministering with Fr Severance.

As St Maximus the Confessor once said, "Christ is buried in the tomb of every single being." Please pray that we keep that in the forefront as we share the Gospel message.

In Christ,

Fr. Dooley

St Brendan Parish Staff Summer Reading Recommendations...

JACOB DORAN (DIRECTOR OF YOUTH EVANGELIZATION & CATECHESIS):

I'm currently reading Knowing the Love of God: Lessons from a Spiritual Master by Fr Reginald Garrigou-Lagrange, OP. It is a series of retreats given by the Dominican priest that speaks to growing in the spiritual life and preparing for life with God in heaven. I've been hearing this priest's name for quite a few years as a recommended read, and I am so happy to finally have one of his books!

BRANDT BOYDEN (OUR SUMMER SEMINARIAN):

I recently picked up a book called Time for God by Jacques Philippe. This book was recommended to me by my spiritual director, as it is a spiritual classic on the necessity of prayer. It is a very short and comprehensible read. Anyone who wants a greater desire for prayer in their life should pick this up!

DEACON JIM MORRIS

A couple I had the honor of marrying a while back gave me this book, Eager to Love: The Alternative Way of Francis of Assisi by Richard Rohr, and I find it both interesting and thoughtful! The book explains how St Francis found an "alternative way" to follow Jesus, one that disregarded power and privilege and held fast to the narrow path of the Gospel. The author helps us look beyond the birdbath image of the saint to remind us of the long tradition founded on his revolutionary, radical, and life-changing embrace of the teachings of Jesus.

LEE SALCONE (MARKETING & COMMUNICATIONS):

It helps if we understand the reasons why our young people drift away from the Catholic Church, and this book, Return: How to Draw Your Child Back to the Church by Brandon Vogt, addresses the reasons and what we can do to help bring them back!

On Summer Break

Note: Our monthly Anchored in Adoration (second Wednesdays) and In-person Prayer Teams (second Sundays) are taking a break during the summer months.

Summer Hours

Our Facility Team's Summer hours are 6 AM-6 PM. The church remains open for evening Mass, scheduled meetings and parish events. Doors are locked after 6 PM only if no evening events are scheduled. The church is open for evening Adoration as normally scheduled.

Thank YOU!

St Brendan School students, Charlie and Sam Owsley would like to thank everyone who brought food donations to the Hilliard Fourth of July Parade last weekend. Their Food for the 4th food drive to support our community through the Hilliard Food Pantry resulted in collecting 571 pounds of food, 229 pounds of non-food items and over $800 in donations!

has mobilized to provide direct assistance to those affected by the recent floods in Texas. They are on the ground in Kerrville, serving food, counseling, shelter, and other critical resources. If you feel called to help financially, Catholic Charities set up a dedicated Texas Flood Relief Fund at <https://ccaosa.ejoinme.org/helptoday> that will directly support victims and their families. Please continue to hold the people of Kerrville and surrounding areas in your prayers in the weeks ahead.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dt 30:10-14 | Col 1:15-20 | Lk 10:25-37

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Do you ever feel as though the concept of God's plan for your life feels too distant and abstract to perceive? If you raised your hand, just know I'm raising mine, too. The life of a Christian striving for virtue and closeness with our creator is not always simple! But Moses' words to the Israelites in today's first reading pierce my heart, even centuries after he spoke them: "For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you." Moses is talking to the Israelites about God's instructions that will lead them to the Promised Land, but it's a relevant reminder for us, too. God's command is not some vague message written in the sky, or some ancient code we need to decipher. It is written in our hearts. Our job is simply to return to the Lord our God so that we might understand it. If you ever feel as though God's ways are inscrutable, return to him, perhaps using this particular Scripture. When we call upon God, he always responds. And in his response there is great mercy and love. We are meant to share this mercy and love we receive with others.

GO EVANGELIZE | PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I think it's natural, in our fallen humanity, to overcomplicate the Lord's commandments. But in the parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus spells it out for us in plain terms: show mercy to our neighbor. How often do we encounter someone in need? Probably daily. How often do we respond with love, generosity, and mercy? This is the question we must ask ourselves. Though the call is clear and concise, the reality is demanding. But Jesus also reminds us that our acts of mercy aren't without merit – they are precisely what will carry us onward to our eternal reward. "Do this and you will live," Jesus says.
