Message from Jacob Doran

Can you believe that we are already well into August!? The summer has absolutely flown by for my family. This week, teachers will be reporting back to school and families will be finishing their back-to-school shopping.

This is also the last week to register for Family Faith Formation without having to pay a late fee. After Monday, August 18, we will be putting together all of our children, parent, and family groups for the year. If you want your family to be a part of this community, make sure to sign up this week.

Family Faith Formation is for all parish families with children in grades K-8. We have three different pathways – Seek & Root for families new to the program, Sacrament Preparation, and Continued Growth. (Registration information is on page 7.)

We especially want to get the message out to families with children in 1st grade who don't attend a Catholic school. This is the time to sign up so that you can prepare for First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion in 2nd grade.

Please contact me with any questions you may have! My email is jdoran@stbrendans.net or call 614-876-1272 (ext 231).

I want to leave you with some of the feedback I received from families this past school year. God bless you all and have a wonderful start to the school year!

"I enjoyed being able to meet new families in the parish! My table was full of fantastic, faith-filled parents and we had lots of great conversations. Also, having already done the Root program, it was helpful in leading those conversations. I also really enjoyed hearing the ways other families bring their faith into the home."

"It's nice to have focused one-on-one time with my daughter."

"My daughter and I both grew in our faith."

"Our son really enjoys the activities and talking through them. We enjoy the time together as family without distractions."

"Our family has set a routine and a great way to talk about Jesus. We are excited to continue talking about what this means to us."

"It is good to talk as a family to remind us of all the good qualities and talk about them more. Seeing the kids acknowledge each other. Reminding them we are going to make mistakes and it will be okay."

"We are enjoying the togetherness and learning more about God together as a family."

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, August 15

Catholic Way Bible Study: Gospel of John

John's Gospel offers an "eagle's eye" view of Jesus' life. Not only is He clearly Priest, Prophet, and King, He is also the Eternal Word, the Son of God. Meet the cast of the wedding at Cana, the Samaritan woman, the Adulteress, and Lazarus as they confront who He really is. In addition, Jewish feasts reveal the pivotal moments of Jesus' life and mission as the Promised Messiah, sent because "God so loved the world." Come ENCOUNTER Jesus with us as we come to know our Redeemer, through the Gospel of John in this 22-week study. We will meet on Mondays, from 9-11 AM starting September 8, in Wellnitz Hall, breaking for Thanksgiving and Christmas and ending March 23. Materials are provided.

Please register on our adult faith formation web page at: <https://stbrendans.net/growing-in-faith/adult-faith-formation/>

Adoration Chapel Children's Bookshelf & Book Sharing

Thank you to Leslie and Tom Zimmerman for answering the call to organize the books in our Adoration chapel and continue managing them! The shelves are now labeled by subject. Take a book to read at Adoration or take it home with you. Return books in the baskets to be reshelfed. Just inside the doors, next to the confessional, we now have a bookcase just for children who are welcome to borrow a book for the chapel or for Mass. Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wis 18:6-9 | Heb 11:1-2, 8-19 | Lk 12:32-48

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

If we're honest with ourselves, we often want God to give us exactly what we ask for in prayer, or to provide immediate comfort in moments of need. But from the beginning, God revealed that the life of faith would entail trusting in his promises even as we wait for their final fulfillment. The example of Abraham in the second reading can be our model. We are called to emulate Abraham's obedient trust: "for he thought that the one who had made the promise was trustworthy." Throughout the Scriptures God promised his people that he would prepare a place for them. This promise propelled the Israelites through famine, exile, and agony, until God brought them to their earthly homeland. Jesus promises a new and everlasting place of rest, where we will live with God forever. We wait in joyful hope that one day he himself will bring us to our heavenly home. Amid the difficulties of life, in seasons of grief, pain, or confusion, it is easy to let doubt creep in. This is when, more than ever, we must cling to our faith, which Paul describes as "the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Trusting in God, we are called to wait with hope and prepare ourselves to readily receive him when he comes. Today's Gospel from Luke provides an image for us to imitate: the faithful servant dutifully awaiting his master's return. What does Jesus say about these servants who keep close watch, always prepared for the moment their master will return? "Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival." The faithful witness of the servants in the Gospel reminds us not to over-complicate our faith. We simply need to remain diligent in carrying out the work that God has given us to do here and now and to keep ourselves alert as we wait with patience for the coming of the Lord.
