An Adult Evangelization Update, by Wendy Ferkany

THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS –

Our Gospel this weekend gives the perfect lead-in to adult formation! While Nicodemus was old and wise about the teachings of the Jewish faith, he still thirsted for knowledge about Jesus, to the point of sneaking around to talk with Him under the cover of night! The good news is, you can learn more about Jesus and the Catholic faith all you want here at St Brendan, no sneaking necessary!

Our Messiah, Jesus, is hungering and thirsting to grow closer to you! There is always something new to learn. You can do that in many ways, through Scripture study, discussion with fellow disciples and prayer just to name a few.

THERE IS SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE AT ST BRENDAN –

The Men meet Tuesday and Saturday mornings, 6:30 AM for Esto Vir (Be a Man), a group that combines fellowship with study. They dive into Scripture, video series, testimony and The Chosen (season 4).

The Women meet Thursdays, both morning and evening, with childcare provided in the mornings. Their study this semester will be The Chosen, Season 4, complete with Scripture, prayer and discussion.

Studies for both men and women include: the Catholic Way studies which focus on a specific book of the Bible and they meet Monday mornings. They have begun the Gospel of John, but you can still attend! A study on prayer, Introduction to Real Prayer, will begin on September 24, and beginning in January, our StB Book Club will be reading and discussing a book by Matthew Kelly.

Details for all of these offerings are contained in the weekly bulletins and on our adult faith formation page at <https://bit.ly/StB-AdultFF>. Studies are offered year-round.

For more individualized growth, I highly recommend spending an hour in the Adoration Chapel each week. We even have a library in the chapel to help you expand your knowledge.

FAITH STUDY AT HOME – Check out the books in our Spiritual Spotlight bookshelf (over by the chapel) that you can take home and share with others, or, use our parish subscription to Formed available for free at www.formed.org when you create an account and search for "St Brendan the Navigator, Hilliard." Many Catholics also enjoy the Hallow app (or website at www.hallow.com), which only requires a nominal fee for the extra content. Or, try it out for a free trial period!

Some of my favorite YouTube channels include: Kristin's Crosses, The Catholic Crusade and Word of God. Another favorite of mine is Sunday 7pm Choir for beautiful choral music that inspires my faith.

You are invited! Come and see what the Lord wants to teach you in this season!

*"I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
I will counsel you with my loving eye on you!" ~ Psalm 32:8*

Welcome New Catholics!

Please join us in congratulating and welcoming the following individuals who completed St Brendan's recent OCIA cohort and came into the Church on August 15.

Invitations to share with them are now available on the Welcome Desk to let them know about the Inviting Catholics Home Ministry's "Come Home for Christmas" sessions taking place in November. These informative Catholic faith refresher classes are specifically tailored to benefit those who have not been attending Mass for some time and so, they may feel apprehensive about returning. Please take some with you next time you come to Mass to help spread the word!

Around Our Campus...

St Brendan is eager to celebrate a young parishioner, Anthony Whipp, for completing his Eagle Scout (Troop 859) project this summer. Before beginning his freshman year at Bishop Watterson, Anthony renovated the sports garage in front of the rectory. The project included cleaning gutters, removing dead trees, trimming bushes, mulching, pressure washing, replacing damaged cedar boards, and painting the building.

Anthony's final touch was the planting of a memorial garden in honor of Lt Paul Kendrach, a devout Catholic, star athlete, and member of the Army Air Forces who went missing in action over Papua New Guinea in December 1941, just weeks after Pearl Harbor.

At his 8th grade graduation, Anthony received the Lt Paul Kendrach Scholarship, which recognizes student-athletes committed to faith and service. In gratitude, Anthony "paid it forward" by dedicating the memorial garden as the final piece of his Eagle Scout project.

On Sunday, August 24, Deacon Jim Morris blessed the new garden. Present were members of the Whipp family, the Hiss family (Lt Kendrach is the great uncle of parishioner Megan Hiss), and Mr Paul Kendrach, nephew of his heroic namesake.

We are grateful for Anthony's hard work and witness of service, and we are blessed to honor Lt Paul Kendrach's legacy through this new memorial space.

Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross

Num 21:4b-9 | Phil 2:6-11 | Jn 3:13-17

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Although God had freed our ancestors in faith from their slavery in Egypt, today we find them grumbling against the Lord as they wander in the desert. Even after we've glimpsed so much of God's goodness, we, too, can begin to grumble in challenging moments of our lives. It's precisely then that we need to cling to faith. After serpents appeared and began to bite those who had grumbled against God, those who had been bitten only had to look at the serpent mounted on a pole and put their faith in God once again to be healed. Similarly, when we find ourselves in the trials of life, we need only look at the cross of Jesus with faith. "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life." Amid the storms of our lives, we are called to put our trust in his cross, for through it we are saved and set free.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Paul tells us that God the Father "greatly exalted" Jesus for his humility in embracing the cross, and that ultimately, all creation will join the Father in glorifying Christ. We who know the gift of what Jesus did for us on the cross are called to praise him with our voices and our lives. We praise and glorify Christ first through our example. How might our day-to-day interactions give others a glimpse of the humble and self-emptying love of Jesus? Finally, think of the ways that knowing Christ's love has made a difference in your life. Has it made you more patient? Has it made you more hopeful? Think of ways that you could share this in conversation. Telling others about what God has done for you or the difference that he has made in your life is one way of exalting Christ.
