Priest Convocation this Week – Pray for Priests!

This week, the priests of our diocese will gather for a time of reflection and refreshment – much needed and deserved, given the level of service they provide to all of us. The Convocation will be time for prayer, recreation, fraternity, and some talks given by priests and speakers from outside the diocese. They will cover wellness/self-care, preaching, and having reasonable expectations on themselves in ministry.

Let us join together in prayer for our priests this week, especially Father Dooley, Father Severance, and Father Weldit. While they willingly sacrifice for the needs of the Church every day, we can offer a sacrifice of prayer for them. We ask you to complete a Holy Hour in prayer for our three priests sometime this week. While we will not be able to offer daily Mass, our Adoration Chapel and church remain open for you to come and pray. Our usual Wednesday Holy Hour will still take place at 6 PM and will be another fitting time to lift our priests in prayer.

A Prayer for Priests

from the Saint Teresa of Calcutta Vocation Society

Lord Jesus, You have chosen Your priests from among us and sent them out to proclaim Your Word and to act in Your Name. For so great a gift to Your Church, we give You praise and thanksgiving. We ask You to fill them with the fire of Your love that their ministry may reveal Your presence in the Church.

Since they are earthen vessels, we pray that Your power shine out through their weakness. In their afflictions let them never be crushed; in their doubts never despair; in temptation never be destroyed; in persecution never abandoned.

Inspire them through prayer to live each day the mystery of Your dying and rising. In times of weakness send them Your Spirit, and help them to praise Your heavenly Father and pray for poor sinners. By the same Holy Spirit put Your Word on their lips and Your love in their hearts, to bring good news to the poor and healing to the brokenhearted.

And may the gift of Mary be Your gift to every priest. Grant that she, who formed You in her human image, may form them in Your divine image, by the power of Your Spirit, to the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

No Mass/Confessions, Sept 22-26

PLEASE NOTE: There will be no Mass or Confessions from September 22-26 due to the Priest Convocation.

Diocesan Prayer for Priests

Also, please join the faithful in the Columbus Diocese in covering our priests in prayer so that their time together at the Convocation may be fruitful and inspired. Sign up to spend an hour in prayer, praying for our priests with your diocesan community at <http://bit.ly/3Vb8yWV>

Children's Prayer for Priests

Dear Heavenly Father, we thank You for our priests at St Brendan – Fr Dooley, Fr Severance and Fr Weldit. We are grateful they answered Your call. Please help them be good shepherds for all of us. Keep them in Your loving care and help them share Your love with everyone they meet. Amen

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Am 8:4-7 | 1 Tim 2:1-8 | Lk 16:1-13

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

As Catholics we understand that none of our actions are truly isolated. Every virtue we practice or sin we commit affects others because we are all members of the body of Christ.

Today's readings from the Old and New Testaments highlight our interconnectedness and offer guidance for how to order the life of the community according to God's will. The key to tranquil communal life is to consider the needs of others as important as our own. In the first reading, the prophet Amos decries those who exploit the poor for personal gain, putting profit over the common good. In the second reading, St. Paul begs the community to pray not only for themselves and for their close relatives, but to offer prayer and supplication for everyone. It's tempting to buy into the perspective that we need only focus on our own life. But the Lord invites us into authentic community where we intercede, sacrifice for and build up the kingdom together.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I like to think of myself as a trustworthy person, and I'd expect most of us would consider ourselves the same. But as the Lord convicts my heart with today's Gospel reading about those who are trustworthy or untrustworthy in big and small matters, I hear the Holy Spirit inviting me to ponder deeper questions: Perhaps I don't intentionally deceive people and I aim to keep my word, but when someone's name or reputation comes up in conversation, can I be trusted to build them up? Do I fall prey to petty gossip, or simply sit idly by as others fall? I am true to scheduled commitments I make, but am I trustworthy with how I spend all my time? Do I use the gift of time for God's greater glory, or do I squander it with excessive scrolling or mindless TV shows? The Spirit doesn't want us to be scrupulous, and everything must be understood through God's merciful gaze. But the Lord does intend to purify us so that we can live more fully in communion with him.

REFLECT

Today, consider how you are invited to live in community and contribute to the building of a Christ-like culture. How are you called to more trustworthy stewardship of the gifts and time God has given you so that you can use them for building up the body of Christ?
