A Message from Jacob Doran

Over the last month, I prayed through the Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius, paired with his 14 Rules for discernment. This is a challenge on the Hallow app led by Fr Timothy Gallagher, O.M.V. Events in the world and in my own life have felt very heavy during the last month. However, I have been encouraged and strengthened through times of prayer.

I was particularly moved by the final session which included St Ignatius' final Rule. Here is how Fr Gallagher explained it:

*There is no area where we cannot hope.
Hope where we feel least hopeful ...
Identify that area of your life where you are most vulnerable to the enemy's temptations and discouraging lies, and strengthen it ...
Identify that, know what that is, and then apply the spiritual tools to strengthening that place.
If you do that, wonderful things will happen.*

Fr Gallagher adds that our vulnerable points are probably going to be places of fear or anxiety or burden that we carry in our hearts. These are the areas where we – where I, too – need to ask for greater hope and then act on it.

Finally, St Ignatius gives us the Suscipe Prayer in which we can offer up everything to God and ask only in return for what we truly need – His love and His grace:

*Take, Lord, and receive all my liberty,
My memory, my understanding,
And my entire will.
All that I have and possess,
You have given all to me.
To you, O Lord, I return it.
All is Yours.
Dispose of it wholly according to Your will.
Give me Your love and Your grace,
For this is sufficient to me.*

I pray that your hope will be built up by the Holy Spirit in those areas where you feel least hopeful. Make a specific prayer now to allow God to strengthen any weaknesses or doubts. In the end, allow that hope to spur you on to acts and words of love for God and others.

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Am 6:1a, 4-7 | 1 Tim 6:11-16 | Lk 16:19-31

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Have you ever had a moment when you felt yourself to be the underdog, and wished that there were some champion who would come and defend your cause? Today, we see God described in those terms. Our psalm tells us that the Lord “raises up those who are bowed down,” that he “protects strangers,” and “the fatherless and the widow he sustains.” But God doesn’t stop there. He wants us to become champions for the poor. Notice that our Gospel reading depicts the poor man named Lazarus in such a way that we cannot help but feel compassion for him. Here is a man who is in dire need, covered in sores, right outside the door of a rich man who has more than enough to provide for his own needs and those of Lazarus – but does nothing to help him. In fact, the rich man’s dog shows more compassion toward Lazarus (by licking his sores) than the rich man! The story is meant to prick our consciences and move us to have the same kind of response that God has – of compassion – leading us to become champions for those in need.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Throughout our history, the Church has been particularly effective at spreading the faith during those times when we’ve put care for the poor and vulnerable at the center of our action. Before the advancements of modern medicine, members of the early Church risked their lives to care for those sick with contagious diseases. Their selfless example led many to faith in Christ. While our situation is much different today, we are called at the beginning of the first reading to not be complacent in our efforts to care for the poor. As we serve those most in need, our witness will likewise draw others to seek to know and follow the God of compassion whom we serve.

SERVE

One of the ways we can fight against complacency is to engage in service. Check your parish or local charitable organizations for opportunities to serve those in need in your community. No matter what kind of service you choose to engage in, do everything with “love, patience, and gentleness,” as Paul reminds us today. Then we will be models of God’s own care for the poor.

Diocesan Survey Request

Bishop Fernandes would like to hear from as many of the Christian Faithful in the Diocese of Columbus as possible about your view on his priorities of pastoral concern. The survey is accessible until October 17 via the QR code or at www.forms.office.com/r/DXkJrndQ9Z?origin=lpLink&route=shorturl
