"An old Irish proverb says, 'It is in the shelter of each other that the people live.' Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how best to 'shelter' them." For some concrete ways we can compassionately care for them, visit www.usccb.org/end-of-life-care

A Message from Jennifer Rice

At a week-long silent retreat last year, my spiritual director would give me Scripture passages with which to pray. One such was Deuteronomy 30. I was perplexed at this choice until I read it and now find myself returning to it over and over again in prayer. It is a passage of repentance and restoration where the Lord gives His people their choice:

"I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse. Choose life, then, that you and your descendants may live, by loving the LORD, your God, obeying his voice, and holding fast to him. For that will mean life for you..." (30:19-20) ...Choose life!

In this Respect Life Month, we do gravitate to the well-known causes of holding up that dignity of life from conception to natural death, as we should. Today I offer you another, more personal perspective where our daily choices of how we live our own lives affirms this dignity.

In the chapter, God reminds us that He is not offering us anything too lofty to attain. Simply love God, listen to Him, follow His commands and statutes, and life will be yours. Are we tuned into this? Start with the choices we make in our personal lives: Am I taking care of my body, the temple of the Holy Spirit? Am I spending time in prayer every day, going to Mass each Sunday? Am I mostly spending my time on activities that are fruitful?

Listening to God for life instructions also means listening to Him and acting on ways to build up His Kingdom here in our community. How can I be light to others to bring them life? I continue to be struck by a homily for the Gospel of Lazarus and the rich man. The priest said "the rich man's greatest sin was not seeing Lazarus," not seeing the life before him, precious in God's eyes even when he may not be seen as precious in the world. Do we see others' lives as dignified to us because God does? Are we kind and patient, extending love to those who may have a different life than ours? Do we meet the needs of our brothers and sisters in need to help them improve their quality of life?

Choosing life, respecting life, means daily action. My challenge to you and to myself is to listen to where the Lord is directing us to choose life in our own personal worlds and to extend life-affirming care to others. Who needs our help today to see that they are precious and loved in the eyes of God?

Can we commit to spreading that Gospel of love to the stranger? Can we get out there and serve in the places that need someone to bring the light? What will we personally commit to the rest of this month?

May the Lord circumscribe our hearts (verse 6) to choose Him, His words, and choose life.

We would love to hear about your life-affirming actions this month! Email me at jrice@stbrendans.net

Make a Difference – Support the Hilliard Food Pantry!

Are you aware of our "Green Bin" located in the church gathering area? The left side is for donations to JOIN (Joint Organization for Inner-City Needs), and the right supports the Hilliard Food Pantry.

Every week, our St Brendan's St Vincent de Paul team collects your donations of nonperishable food items and delivers them to the Hilliard Food Pantry – this past year, our parishioners have generously donated 5,362 lbs of food and given $4,700 to the Hilliard Food Pantry! These donations truly touch the lives of our Hilliard neighbors. To continue with these life-affirming efforts, consider adding just one extra item to your grocery cart each week. It's a simple habit, but the impact is incredible – because of you, someone in need will have food on their table! Or, choose to provide financial support via the QR code instead. Whether in food or funds, you can make a difference. As we focus on compassion for others during Respect Life month, let's fill the Green Bin to the brim!

OCIA Sponsors Are Needed!

What does an OCIA sponsor do?

They serve as a friend, witness, and spiritual companion to a person seeking to join the Catholic Church!

Several candidates in our OCIA program are in need of a sponsor to:

- Attend sessions alongside them
- Pray with them and for them
- Serve as a witness to our faith
- Provide guidance and support!

The weekly OCIA sessions are held on Tuesdays at 7-8:30 PM in the Davidson Rooms. Sponsors attend the OCIA sessions and Rites with their candidates, a commitment of approximately 6 months. To sign up, please complete a Sponsor Form available on the Welcome Desk or at <https://tinyurl.com/sponsor4ocia> Questions? Contact Wendy Ferkany at wferkany@stbrendans.net

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

2 Kgs 5:14-17 | 2 Tim 2:8-13 | Lk 17:11-19

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

After his healing in the Jordan river, Naaman returns to Elisha. It's clear from their ensuing conversation that his miraculous healing had led to him recognizing the God of Israel as the one who had healed him. In thanksgiving, he desires to offer sacrifice, and pledges that he "will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any other god except the Lord." In the Gospel, we see the Samaritan returning to Jesus after his healing, falling at the Lord's feet and "glorifying God in a loud voice." It's clear from both Scriptures that when we recognize what God has done for us, our first response is to worship. That's why our central act of worship as a Christian community is called Eucharist – from the Greek word for thanksgiving. When we come to worship God, what is it that we're grateful for? If gratitude is the heart of worship, it's a fruitful practice to intentionally spend some time considering God's providence in our lives over the past week so we come to the liturgy prepared to offer thanks.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Something that has always struck me about today's Gospel is that Jesus heals all ten of the lepers, not only the one who returned to offer thanks. While we, as humans, can be tempted to withhold love when we know it will not be acknowledged or appreciated, Jesus heals all ten. God is good to us, even when we're ungrateful. As Paul says, "If we are unfaithful he remains faithful, for he cannot deny himself." God can do only one thing: love. How powerful would it be if we worked to imitate the kind of gratuitous love we see in today's Gospel? Think about opportunities to practice this kind of love. What a witness this would be to the world if we were to imitate God's way of loving. As the Persian poet Hafiz wrote: "Even after all this time, the sun never says to the earth, 'You owe me.' Look what happens with a love like that. It lights the whole sky."

REFLECT

Take some time before Mass each Sunday to do an examine-style prayer, reflecting on where you've seen God's action in your life during the week. How has God provided for your needs? How has God accompanied you through challenges? How has the Spirit of God brought consolation and strength? Make a list of all the places you've experienced God's presence and grace and prepare to offer thanks to God for these gifts at Mass.
