A Message from Fr Dooley

Hello friends,

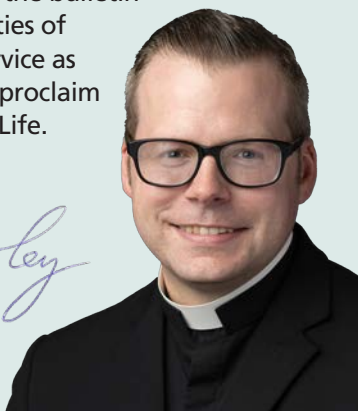

In this Respect Life Month during the month of October, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops have presented the theme of Life: Our Sign of Hope. As followers of Jesus Christ, we stand with the most vulnerable in our society: the unborn, the poor, families in difficult situations, and those with serious health conditions. Of course, the news of shootings and violence among schools and individuals is in my mind as we pray for peace and non-violence in our country.

Pope Leo XIV reminds us that hope is connected to faith and charity. He says that hope "can be seen as the virtue that connects the other two. In one sense, faith and theology provide the basis for knowing God, while charity is the life of love we enjoy with him. Yet, it is by the virtue of hope that we desire to attain the fullness of this happiness in Heaven. Thus, it inspires and sustains us to grow closer to God even when confronted by the hardships of life."

Please consult the bulletin for opportunities of prayer and service as we stand and proclaim the Gospel of Life.

In Christ,

Fr. Dooley
Fr. Dooley

Respect Life Month

Each October the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday of October is observed as Respect Life Sunday.

As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between.

This month, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity and gift of every human life. As members of the Body of Christ, we are called to continue Jesus' mission here on earth...

We have been entrusted with a message of hope for the woman who finds herself unexpectedly pregnant or for the man diagnosed with a terminal illness. At these moments, we must bring God's presence, witnessing to His love, and inspiring a renewal of hope in those whose hearts are burdened. For inspiration to cultivate a culture of life, visit www.respectlife.org/celebrate

A Prayer for Life to be said, specifically in Adoration, can be found in our chapel this month. Or, consider praying this prayer while at Mass in October:

Almighty God, giver of all that is good,
we thank You for the precious gift of human life:

*For life in the womb, coming from Your creative power,
For the life of children, making us glad with their freshness and promise,
For the life of young people, hoping for a better world,
For the life of people who are disabled, teaching us that every life has value,
For the life of the elderly, witnessing to the ageless values of patience and wisdom.*

Like Blessed Mary, may we always say "YES" to Your gift. May we defend it and promote it from conception to its natural end. And bring us at last, O Father, to the fullness of eternal life in Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen

Please also make a note of these upcoming October Respect Life offerings...

RESPECT LIFE NOVENA, OCTOBER 22-30

Each day of the Novena features a different prayer intention, a short reflection, and ideas for building a culture of life. Join thousands of Catholics across the country as we pray together for the protection of human life by signing up at www.respectlife.org

40 DAYS FOR LIFE VIGIL, OCTOBER 24

A 40 Days for Life Vigil sponsored by Greater Columbus Right to Life will take place at the Planned Parenthood Surgical Clinic (3255 E Main Street). St Brendan Parish has adopted 8 AM-2 PM on October 24 to pray at the vigil. Please sign up at www.tinyurl.com/stb2025vigil to let us know you can join us! (Note: Two volunteers are needed at the clinic each hour). Questions? Contact Tim Reno at tireno04@gmail.com

Try a New Thing - Come and Adore with Us!

Looking for some extra grace? A little quiet time? Maybe a place to unload all of your worries? Look no further than our Adoration Chapel. We encourage all ages and stages of faith to spend some time in Adoration for all of these reasons and more. Bring a book, your rosary, listen to your music or prayer app, or just sit and be still.

Come for 15 minutes or commit to an hour. Sign up online on our easy-to-use www.stbrendan.weadorehim.com

Check in when you get here, for however long you are staying - you can even be anonymous and sign in with your initials!

Our Church and our world need your prayers. Let us pray for you, too. Come and see what peace is awaiting you in our chapel.

Do you have questions or need help on how to get started with Adoration? Please contact Jen Rice at jrice@stbrendans.net

Date Night Returns, Oct 24

St Brendan and the Knights of Columbus will host date nights for young couples and young parents – each month from October to June. We'll take care of the kids (6 months to 5 years old) while you enjoy dinner and friendship with other couples of the parish beginning on Friday, October 24, 6:30-8 PM. Share your stories and learn from other Catholic couples about the joys and challenges of marriage and raising children. A strong, loving marital relationship in Christ is the cornerstone of a lifelong, joyful family life.

This year, we will explore how couples can best love each other to continually grow and strengthen a joyful marital relationship through a variety of media: videos, books (The 5 Love Languages and Marriage Insurance: 12 Rules to Live By) and a talk by Deacon Yglesias. The cost is $35 for the year (make checks out to "KofC 11208"). If cost is a burden, scholarships are available. At our October 24 Date Night, we will also be discussing preferences for meals. Bring your ideas! Register by October 21 by contacting Chuck Heinlen at chuck436@att.net or 224-612-1557.

Inviting Catholics Home Session Invitations

Do you know anyone who has been away from the Catholic Church but are asking questions or have expressed an interest in coming back? Invitations to share with them are available on the Welcome Desk to let them know about the "Come Home for Christmas" faith refresher classes sponsored by the Inviting Catholics Home ministry. These informative classes held on Mondays in November are tailored to benefit those who have not attended Mass for some time and so, they may feel apprehensive about returning. Please take some invitations with you to pass out and help us to spread the word!

October

The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary, as the Memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated on October 7. Try making a concerted effort to pray the Rosary together as a family during the month of October. To understand the beauty of this devotion more deeply, learn about St John Paul II's Apostolic letter Rosarium Virginis Mariae (the Rosary of the Virgin Mary) at <https://bit.ly/IP2rosary> This letter introduced five new mysteries, called the Luminous or the Mysteries of Light:

- 1) Jesus' Baptism in the Jordan
- 2) Jesus' self-manifestation: Wedding at Cana
- 3) Proclamation of the Kingdom of God with the call to conversion
- 4) The Transfiguration
- 5) The Institution of the Eucharist

The feasts of some of the most popular saints of the universal Church are also celebrated during this month: St Thérèse the Little Flower (France), St Francis of Assisi (Italy) and St Teresa of Avila (Spain). Learn more about the lives of these saints and pick one virtue that each saint practiced well. Then, try to implement those virtues in your own life!

October is also Respect Life Month, a time when we join with Catholics across the country in praying for the protection of human life from conception to natural death and work toward promoting a culture of life. To aid in this effort, we will feature books in our Spiritual Spotlight bookshelf on the sanctity of life as well as resources for praying the Rosary. Some of the Saints whose feast days are this month will also be featured. Take the books home with you and share them with others!

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples: "When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.'" I think what Jesus is drawing us to see is the humility we need as his disciples. It's easy to get puffed up, thinking, "Well, I've done this" or "I've done that" in service of God. We can even start to feel that God owes us. But we are called to love God for God's own sake, not for the accolades or even the reward that comes from faithfully serving him. St. Ignatius of Loyola penned a beautiful prayer called the Prayer for Generosity that expresses the sentiment that I feel is at the heart of our Scriptures today: "Eternal Word, only begotten Son of God, teach me true generosity. Teach me to serve you as you deserve. To give without counting the cost ... to sacrifice myself without thought of any reward save the knowledge that I have done your will." Let's ask God to help us to serve him with generous hearts.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In his second letter to Timothy, Paul calls us to "bear [our] share of the hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God." Serving the Lord requires that we rely on the gift of the Spirit within us who empowers us to serve courageously and generously. The good news, Paul tells us, is that "God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." In our efforts to serve God and to share our faith with others, let's remember that it is God's grace that is at work within us, equipping us and strengthening us. Let's remember Jesus' promise that even if we only have faith the size of a tiny mustard seed, we can still do great things for God. Indeed, through the gift of faith and the gift of his Holy Spirit, God has truly given us immense spiritual power.

PRAY

Take a moment to examine your own heart. Is your discipleship fueled more by a hope of reward (heaven), or, by pure love of God? Take some time to pray with St. Ignatius of Loyola's Prayer for Generosity (the full text can be found online), asking the Lord to increase your generosity in serving him.

Join thousands from around the world to encounter Christ and follow Him.
