Farewell, from Jen Rice

Dear Parish Family,

After almost 12 years on staff here, supporting you, our ministries and those in need, my time is at an end. The Lord has been preparing the ground for a new season between other professional opportunities and changes in our family when the boys left home. I will be leaving St Brendan staff on November 6 to return to my clinical social work roots and add the pastoral background at Lumen Counseling, a private practice. By no means will I disappear, as Grant and I will continue to be very present as parishioners and volunteer our time.

Thank you for welcoming me so many years ago, for sharing your stories, your joys and grief, for coming to all of the women's ministry and parish-wide programs and events, for teaching me how to truly serve in His Kingdom. I will continue to pray for you. Please pray for me in this new chapter and for whomever the Lord sends here next.

God bless! ~ Jen Rice

All Souls' Mass of Remembrance, Nov 5

Our annual All Souls' Mass of Remembrance is this Wednesday, November 5 at the 5:30 PM Mass. This liturgy is for you who have experienced a loss in the past year, for you who want to pray for the departed souls precious to you, and for all of us, as members of this great family, to pray for the dead.

During the month of November, the names of our deceased parishioners and those who have had funerals at St Brendan in the last year are inscribed on banners that hang behind the altar. Blank banners are in the gathering area for you to write the names of your own deceased loved ones. Let us remember all the souls of the faithful departed in prayer.

November Spotlight

This month is dedicated to the Souls in Purgatory. November 23 we also celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King. The last day of November is a Sunday and it marks the beginning of Advent. We will feature books in the Spiritual Spotlight bookshelf this month in a wide variety of topics to help broaden your faith as we prepare ourselves for the Advent season. Feel free to take the books and share them with others!

Vocation Awareness and Support...

Our diocesan Seminarian Support Fund collection this weekend coincides with the start of National Vocation Awareness Week, Nov 2-8 (find more details on the bulletin center spread).

This second collection, scheduled annually on the first week of November, will aid the ongoing formation of our seminarians and future priests in the diocese.

(Please note that this collection is not an extension of the "Good and Growing Need" campaign that took place earlier this year to offset the budget deficit created by an unexpectedly large number of vocations.)

Seminarian, Shawn Caslow will speak at all Masses this weekend to explain in more detail the necessity of these funds. Bishop Earl Fernandes expresses his gratitude for your ongoing support of future priests in the diocese.

Contributions may be made through our second collection at Masses this weekend or online via the QR code.

Please pray for our clergy, religious and seminarians:

O God, hear our prayer and let our cry come to You. Bless the Diocese of Columbus with many vocations from our families to the priesthood, sacramental marriage, and consecrated life. Give Your sons and daughters the confidence to accept Your call, and the love to follow you always in the footsteps of Your Beloved Son, with courage and faithfulness to Your Divine Will. Amen.

JOSEPHINUM COME & SEE WEEKEND, NOV 6-9

Young men (high school juniors and seniors as well as college-aged) are invited and encouraged to attend the Come and See weekend retreat at the Josephinum, November 6-9. NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

ENCOUNTERING JESUS

SERRA CLUBS LAUNCH 'ADORE' TO LINK ADORATION & VOCATIONS

“We hear a lot about holy hours, but many people feel they don’t have an hour, or even a half-hour,” said Margo Geddie, the president-elect of Serra International, the Church’s official apostolate to promote vocations. “We feel it’s important to encourage people to spend any amount of time—even just ten minutes—visiting Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. I know for me, it’s been life-changing.”

Why did Serra undertake this project? “It’s really pretty simple,” said Margo, “For years we’ve seen the link between vocations and devotion to the Blessed Sacrament. Go to any youth conference, and you can see the enthusiasm, the incredible graces being poured out during Adoration. And these are the same students who are answering the call, entering seminaries and convents.

So we thought if we can promote Adoration on the local level, we’re also promoting vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life.”

Of course, “making a visit” has long been a traditional devotion for Catholics, young and old alike. “We also want to encourage older people to say a quick prayer for vocations whenever they’re in the chapel,” said Margo. “Jesus told us we should beg for what we need—and every Catholic knows we need more sisters and priests.”

Gabriel Spence

ADVICE TO SEMINARIANS

“Do not think of yourselves as alone, nor by yourselves,” said Pope Leo to seminarians in Rome this summer. He quoted a Church document on priestly formation, saying, “Each one of you is the protagonist of his own formation... but protagonist does not mean soloist! Therefore, I invite you always to cultivate communion, first of all with your seminary companions... Finally, the most important thing: keep your eyes fixed on Jesus, cultivating the relationship of friendship with Him.”

DISCERNMENT

MEN DISCERN ON 'THE WAY'

If you've seen Martin Sheen's movie "The Way," you know that many pilgrims who walk Spain's famous Camino begin with a certain goal in mind, but end up receiving far more than they ever imagined.

That was the idea behind the "Discernment Camino" led by Fr. George Sears, the Vocation Director for the Archdiocese of New York. He and a brother priest led four seminarians and nine young men on a 14-day trek across the Spanish countryside, ending at Santiago de Compostela.

"It was an absolutely amazing experience," said Fr. Sears. "Every one of the men built camaraderie and grew closer to the Lord. And at least two of them are excited about applying to seminary next year."

The archdiocese recently made headlines with their "Called by Name" campaign, which identified more than 800 faithful young men. While Fr. Sears can't accompany all of them on the Camino, his Vocation Team has a solid plan to help them begin their own journey to discern God's call.

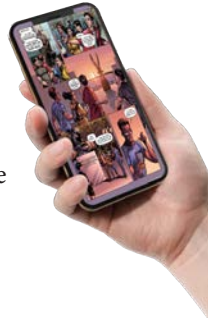

A LIGHT IN THE DARKNESS

For centuries, amidst the dark tragedy of war, Catholic priests have brought the consoling light of Christ to both soldiers and civilians. The Army's new Sacred Call digital comic celebrates the 250th anniversary of the Chaplain Corp, featuring the stories of brave priests such as Fr. Charles Watters, Fr. Francis Duffy, and Fr. Emil Kapaun, now a Servant of God on the way to sainthood.

MESSAGE TO YOUTH JESUS CALLS YOU TO GREATNESS

"It is Jesus in fact that you seek when you dream of happiness; he is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you; he is the beauty to which you are so attracted; it is he who provokes you with that thirst for fullness that will not let you settle for compromise; it is he who urges you to shed the masks of a false life; it is he who reads in your hearts your most genuine choices, the choices that others try to stifle.

It is Jesus who stirs in you the desire to do something great with your lives, the will to follow an ideal, the refusal to allow yourselves to be grounded down by mediocrity, the courage to commit yourselves humbly and patiently to improving yourselves and society."

~Pope Saint John Paul II, World Youth Day, 2000

St Brendan Children's Choir Returns!

This exciting collaboration between St Brendan School and the parish music ministry is led by Mr Matthew Fox (our school music teacher) and Dr Ross Williams (parish Director of Sacred Music). The Children's Choir season runs December 7, 2025, through May, 2026, bringing beautiful music to our parish and school community. Rehearsals are Sunday mornings at 8 AM in the Davidson Rooms. Performances are during the 8:45 AM Mass at least once a month. Musical repertoire consists of similar music that the students are learning for School Masses. Special performances will include: Christmas Eve Mass at 4 PM and Easter Sunday Mass at 8:45 AM. If your child is interested in joining our children's choir, to bring beautiful, sacred music to the hearts and minds of our Parish community, please email Dr Williams at rwilliams@stbrendans.net
